Returns From Third District Show Aggregate of $74,520,950

WEALTHY LAG IN SUPPORT

Returns from the Third Federal Reserve Loan District to date total $74. 20,950, a gain of $7,543,500 over yesterday's report. These figures, com-piled from reports made by 769 of the 1094 banks in the district are divided as Philadelphia - $31,986,850. Delaware-$5,220,200. Southern New Jersey - $5,867,6501. Eastern Pennsylvania, outside Philadelphia-$31,446,250.

The gain in Philadelphia over yesterday's report is $3,038,750.

Among the large subscriptions re-$230,300 from the Lebigies Coal and $601,450. Navigation Company, Larkin Comhas already exceeded its former loan today subscriptions by thirty-five per cent, The Phoenix Iron Company subscribed $200,000; Wilson & Bradbury, $100. 000 and the Swind Machine Company employes, $29,700, which was 100 percent and gave the company its honor flag. The Commercial Trust Company turned in $500,000 additional subscriptions, bringing its total to $2,500,000 These subscriptions are entered for No Reserve Districts Overly Opti clients of the company and do not come from the concern itself.

Failure of wealthy individuals and the same support as in preceding campaigns has caused Philadelphia and the entire Third Federal Reserve District to lag far behind.
