

718 SALES OF LOAN BY WOMEN IN DAY

Emergency Aid Force Active Despite Rain, and Many Rallies Today

RECORDS ARE SURPASSED

Today's Returns of Women's Victory Loan Committee

Table listing sales figures for various Philadelphia districts, including West Philadelphia, South Philadelphia, and North Philadelphia, with a total of $122,876,326.

Women workers for the Victory Loan are gradually reaping splendid results. It was reported today that 718 subscriptions totaling $118,200 were obtained yesterday, despite the rain, by the Emergency Aid force at the twenty booths in the central part of the city.

The biggest subscription today up to noon was one for $100,000 from the Philadelphia Thursday M.E. It was made through Mrs. Ellis A. Ginkel, chairman of the central city stores committee.

Victory bond business is gradually improving in Broad Street Station. Subscriptions to the amount of $20,300 were obtained in the Victory Loan booth there during the last forty-four hours. The booth is in charge of Mrs. William H. Meyers.

Many Rallies Today. There will be many loan rallies today. Mrs. Morris L. Paris, the first Philadelphia woman to receive the Croix de Guerre from the French Government, will address a meeting at the army and navy officers' club in Rittenhouse Square, at 7 1/2 o'clock this afternoon.

West Philadelphia Street Dance. A Victory street dance will take place about the statue in West Philadelphia, Fifty-second and Chestnut streets, this evening if the weather permits, and a boxing exhibition at the "Button," Sixtieth and Locust streets. Tonight there will be folk dancing by children and adults from the city recreation centers at the Victory statue in Penn Square.

Woman Freed of Theft Charge. Florence Riordan, of South Forty-fourth street, who was alleged to have stolen $1,200 from Thomas Dolan, who gave his address as 2107 Walnut street, was released by Magistrate Pennock at Central Station today. Mr. Dolan having failed to appear to prosecute. Early last Wednesday morning Mr. Dolan reported to the police of the Fifteenth and Locust streets station that he had been robbed by a girl companion. Miss Riordan was arrested by Detectives Clark and McDevitt.

LOAN SUBSCRIPTIONS HERE TAKE BIG JUMP

Gain of $14,226,850 Over Preceding Day Shown in Returns

$97,484,900 FOR DISTRICT

The biggest gain since the starting of the Victory Loan campaign was made yesterday by Philadelphia and the Philadelphia district. As a result of the big jump in figures, workers for the loan are hustling with renewed confidence and hope for a finish which will bring the total up to the quota for the district.

The gain of yesterday over subscriptions of the preceding day in Philadelphia was $14,226,850, and the gain in the entire district over the previous day was $22,967,350. The total for the district was $97,484,900. This was made up as follows: Subscriptions obtained in Philadelphia, $46,213,700; eastern Pennsylvania, outside of Philadelphia, $38,090,800; southern New Jersey, $7,089,200; and Delaware, $5,485,200.

The girls will be dressed to represent different animals, including donkeys, dogs and cats. Other participants will be attired in picturesque costumes representing the different nations. A playlet, "Act as You Are," will be enacted. Students from the School of Occupational Therapy, dressed as gypsies, will tell fortunes.
