

EARLY RECOGNITION OF OMSK PROBABLE

Allied Action Needed So $20,000,000 Siberian Railroad Loan Can Be Secured

MAY CRUSH BOLSHEVIKI

By the Associated Press
Washington, May 8.—Urgent need of $20,000,000 for immediate use on the Siberian railroad may lead to earlier recognition of the Omsk government than had been placed by the representatives of the associated governments in Paris, it was learned today from an authoritative source.

The American representatives have been insistent in cable dispatches to officials here that the money be forthcoming at once, as the need is imperative. The suggestion that the Kolobek government be recognized immediately, as the government of all non-Bolshevik Russia has led to the explanation that such action would compel recognizing the entire Russian question in Paris, which is something to be avoided. The prevailing belief, it was said today, is that the early recognition will be forthcoming in order that the loan may be negotiated. It was also learned today that the Russian government in Omsk and the regions controlled by the Cosacks of the Don and at Orenburg, General Denikin and the Archangel government has been completed and the forces arrayed against the Bolsheviki are now operating under the single direction of Admiral Kolchak. This military observers here believe, will give the Omsk government a strong position when recognition has been accorded, from which a crushing blow could be delivered against the Bolsheviki.

CURE FOR BOLSHEVISM

Box Manufacturers Plan to Make Each Plant a Social Democracy
Atlantic City, May 8.—"Social democracy" was adopted as the keynote of the newly organized National Paper Box Manufacturers' Association at the Hotel Traymore today. As an antidote to bolshevism, owners of 1000 plants, including several of the largest in Philadelphia, represented in the new merger of paper box making establishments, are to deal directly with their 50,000 employees in the future, making each plant as far as is possible a social democracy.

J. Linton Engle, vice president of the Philadelphia Typothetae, spoke this afternoon.

Four Appointed to City Jobs

The following city appointments were announced today: Laura Shortz, 1911 North Nineteenth street, typewriterist, Bureau of Health, $800 a month; Robert L. Tracey, 323 West Tioga street, clerk, Bureau of Surveys, $1000 a year; Jacob E. Ellinger, 642 West Clearfield street, outdoor physician, $540; William J. Burns, 2924 French street, operator, Electrical Bureau, $325 a day.

City Treasury Statement

The weekly statement of City Treasurer Shoyer shows receipts of $1,805,842.40 and disbursements of $1,385,105.01 for last week. The balance now on hand in the city treasury, outside of the sinking fund account, is $12,543,357.57.

Here's the war diary of an average man—your diary of the last four years. What will the FINAL entry be?

May 7, 1915.
They sunk the Lusitania without warning, did they? Hundred and twenty-four American lives lost, too. WHY DON'T WE DO SOMETHING?

August 19, 1915.
Paper says they've sunk the Arabic. Suppose we'll get some more notes from Germany. SHADES OF DECATUR! ARE WE AFRAID?

March 24, 1916.
Now they've sunk the Sussex. More American lives lost. I'm getting ashamed to call myself an American. My boy Tom talks of going to Canada to enlist. Some boy, Tom! HOW LONG ARE WE GOING TO STAND IT?

January 31, 1917.
Morning paper says Germany will sink all ships at sight. She will, will she? We'd better get off the earth and be done with it.

February 28, 1917.
Zimmermann, German Secretary, has been writing notes to Mexico, wanting to form an alliance with that precious country and divide up the U. S. THEY'D HAVE A SWEET JOB TAKING MY WARD!

April 6, 1917.
This has been some day! Congress has declared war! Bought two flags and covered the front of the house. WILL WE FIGHT? WATCH US!

May 15, 1917.
Tom has joined the Marines and I've bought Liberty Bonds for every member of the family. Had my shoes half-soled.

October 1, 1917.
Second Liberty Loan opens. Walked right up to a booth and took more bonds for all of us. Think I'm getting the habit. If I can't fight I can at least buy bonds!

April 6, 1918.
Takes a good deal of scrimping to dig up the money for the Third Liberty Loan, but it's got to be done. "BONDS OR BUST" is my motto.

September 28, 1918.
Fourth Liberty Loan. Now it's "Borrow and Buy"! Uncle Sam can have anything I've got!

November 11, 1918.
Armistice is signed! WOW—Ain't it a grand and glorious feeling?

May 7, 1919.
Got a letter from Tom today saying: "I'm in the hospital, but if the war had gone on for six months more there'd have been several hundred thousand more of us in our graves. It's the money that was spent that ended the war. If Victory isn't worth paying for, what is?" HE'S RIGHT. I didn't think I'd buy any bonds this time, but, by George, I'm going in just as deep as I can. And then I'm going down to the bank and borrow to buy till I can look every neighbor in the face and say "I've done my share." The man who doesn't back up the Victory Loan is a quitter of the worst kind.
