John Randolph, of Roanoke, Virginia

(as he signed his name), was one of the famous names of ye olden time. A Princeton and Columbia College man, he studied law in Philadelphia with his uncle, Edmund Randolph, then Attorney General of the United States. He was descended from Pocahontas, the beautiful and beloved daughter of the Indian Chief of the Powhatans. He took his seat in Congress in 1799 and served there for nearly 30 years, an intimate friend of President Jackson, who appointed him minister to Russia. He died in Philadelphia in 1833. He was a great speaker and crossed swords at times with Patrick Henry.

The dignity of his presence, set forth by his portrait, was greatly enhanced by the old-time fashions of our fathers.

Some of the present-day fashions of men's and women's dress have not improved upon the simplicity and distinguishing dress of the olden time.

(Signed) John Randolph

May 8, 1919.

For the Young Women Who Want a Practical, All 'Round Suit—

We know of nothing better than the jaunty, comfortable sports models. And here's a group of brand-new suits, just unpacked.

There are roughish tweeds in gray and brown mixtures. There are new wool jersey suits, including some of heavier weight than usual, in beige, rose, Pekin blue and heather mixtures. There are clear, pretty black-and-white shepherd checks. All are made in sports styles, with slit seams or pleats, with belts and pockets and an air of good tailoring.

$32.50 to $42.50—and 14 to 20 year sizes

New Tricolette Dresses for Women—Prices $48.50 to $140

They are of the light-weight tricolette and designed with novel touches, such as the scarfs and borders of heavy hand-knitted wool, the soft wool embroideries, the blouse backs and bright girdles, the heavy heading—the beads often of the iridescent sort; the foot "cuffs" and dozens of other features. Also the colors are all the latest—"bark" brown, beige, gray, old and navy blues, sand and henna, besides the ever-wanted navy and black.

Prices are $48.50 to $140. The Women's Fashion Salons are showing gowns with the curious new tricolette which France is making—carigated silk used with solid-colored fabrics like satin or soft taffeta. Also with the much-heralded lace—as witness one gown of brown lace, brown satin and old blue satin.

There Is Only One True Way to Judge a Men's Clothing Store

and that is by the things it can do for you.

This Men's Clothing Store can show you the best Summer suits to be had for their prices in Philadelphia.

It may be that you are accustomed to reading statements of that kind and that you have come to regard them as theories.

Our purpose is not to express a theory—anybody can do that—but to state a fact, an actual condition.

The condition is based on very reasonable grounds.

There can be no better suits than ours in this city, because it is a known and demonstrable fact that no better fabrics are used in making men's ready-to-wear suits to sell for the same prices; also because no ready-to-wear suits at any prices are modeled, made and finished with a finer degree of care, skill and deliberate determination to give a man something more in fashion and service than he can obtain elsewhere.

With this clothing store it is a principle and a practice to give men the most they can possibly obtain, believing as we do that the practice of this principle is to our own advantage, as well as theirs.

The point of it all is that in this store a man can never get less than the best he can get anywhere, no matter how much he may be able to get elsewhere.

Let these men's Summer suits at $28 to $65 be the test.
(Third Floor, Market)

The Eruption of Last Year's Straw Hats Is About Over

Each Spring with the opening of the straw hat season, some men bring out their little old last year's straw hats with the fond expectation of wearing them for a while.

These hats don't look so bad in the house, but when they are taken into a crowd of this year's fresh, new straw hats you can see how yellow and out-of-date they are.

Better get a fine London straw hat at the start. Lincoln-Bennetts, $3.50, $4 and $4.50. Redleafs, $3, $3 and $5.

25 Garden or Lawn Benches of Carrara Marble—and No More

That is to say, there is no likelihood that there will be any more for a long time, certainly not this year.

Despite this fact and the fact that there are so very few Carrara pieces to be had anywhere, these benches are very moderately priced at $37.50, $50, $60 and $75.

Duplicates, were any available, would have to be priced as high again.

So you see, that if you have a lawn or garden to beautify, it would be well to see this collection at once.

All are classically modeled pieces, imported direct from Italy and, as is characteristic of Carrara marble, their color softens to a still more beautiful shade with the years. To be seen in the garden and lawn furniture display in the China Store.
