

Coast Artillery Circus and Balloon Trips for Loan : Women's Golf Tourney at Overbrook

LOAN RALLY crowd in Penn Square thronging about the Coast Artillery Victory Loan Circus. Among the equipment exhibited was a long-range gun, trench mortar, howitzer and anti-aircraft gun. All were used in the intensive fighting "over there." There are fourteen officers and 130 enlisted men in the train.

SINGING for the Loan, Philadelphia Normal School Girls in front of the Union League on Broad street in vocal selections for Victory.

GENEROUS Victory Loan subscribers may have the privilege of viewing Philadelphia from a captive balloon. The great gas bag is making hourly ascensions at 22d street and Parkway. The balloon is of the type used at the battlefront to guide the aim of American artillery.

NICE, NEW boche parade helmet for Victory bonds. George Hartzell, native of Philadelphia and veteran clown, who came to Camac street from the circus to help the Loan campaign.

GOLF TOURNEY contestants for the Geist Cup at the Overbrook Golf Course. Seated—Mrs. Frank Mahan, Mrs. A. Dannenbaum, Mrs. A. Lowry, Mrs. C. T. Kethnell, Mrs. E. V. Murphy. Standing—Mrs. G. W. Curran, Miss McVey, Mrs. Stuart Hamilton, Mrs. Moss.

MISS MILDRED CAVERLY, of the Philadelphia Country Club, a star in tournament play and one of the contestants for the Geist Cup over the Overbrook Golf Club course yesterday.

MRS. RONALD H. BARLOW, of the Merton Cricket Club, winner of the Geist Cup for the sixth consecutive time at yesterday's tourney over the Overbrook Golf Course.