Rummage Sale

Sylvia and Elsie Lathrop are certainly having a good time while staying here, are they not? They are English girls, you know, both under twenty and perfectly charming.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown gave a luncheon yesterday for the two girls and a dinner at the Country Club on Saturday night. It was a really gay affair, by the way. Two hundred and fifty were there for dinner and the Heck Wethevis gave a number of songs.

Katherine Willoughby Clark, who has just come back to Ardmore after spending the winter at Palm Beach, was at the Country Club and looked very smart in a cream-colored dress of green and yellow satin.

Alba Johnson is president of the club and the membership is limited to 100 members. There are forty-four members now.

Well it isn't it's for the women too, and the men love very much that the women will go. It's a wonderful course. You know where the club is, don't you? Right near the old Gulph Mills bank.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Johnson, of 3014 Germantown avenue, are all members of the club. They are the only men who are members.

Some of the other members are Bob Stranberg, Bob Cassatt, John Hampton Barnes, Clarence Dolan, Yale Dolan, Harry Berwind, Williamson Roberts, Truxton Hare, Garance Munn, Charles Wheeler, Paul Mills and John Townsend.

The next people to have a rummage sale are the women of the social service department of the Presbyterian Hospital.

MISS FARRAR SCORES; HART IN NEW FILM

Marguerite Clark, Ben Alexander and Hale Hamilton Appear as Stars

Orpheum patrons had the special enjoyment of witnessing a capital revival of "Potash and Perlmutter," based on Montague Glass's stories in the Saturday Evening Post.

There is an excellent photoplay thriller on view this week, embracing as it does all of the favorite tricks of the melodramatic writer in a setting of most artistic merit.

Because this role of a Spanish woman of the high-spirited type shows the star off in a new light and is very different from her other characterizations, there is forecast an added number of admirers of this operatic star's work.

Beautiful scenes of Alaska are shown in the special Prima Natural color scenic. This is an improvement upon the pictures displayed here some time ago.

There is no reason why the author, director and star should not have a good product when they are all represented by the same person, which is the case with this movie.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Rush, of Chesteridge, West Chester, will give a dinner on Friday, May 20, in honor of Miss Mildred W. Longstreth, who will be one of next season's debutantes.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Sellers, of 115 Glenn road, Ardmore, will give a dance on Friday evening, May 20, in honor of their two sons, Mr. William Sellers and Mr. Alexander Sellers, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Johnson, of 3014 Germantown avenue, are all members of the club. They are the only men who are members.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ford Barber, of 506 Harvard avenue, Swarthmore, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Frances Barber, to Mr. Ralph Myron Wilder, of Bryn Mawr, Pa., and Swarthmore.

Mr. William Clements Chambers, E. S. N., of Savannah, Ga., who arrived on the Cap Finestore last week is spending a short leave with Mrs. M. E. Eastlake, of 7419 Boyer street, Mt. Airy.

SUFFRAGE CAMPAIGN GOES ON UNABATED

With Sufficient Votes Pledged to Amendment, Efforts Are Not to Relax

The pledge from Senator Harris, of Georgia, to vote in favor of the federal suffrage amendment will not in the least abate the work of the National Woman's party to try to "convert" the other United States senators who have not yet committed themselves on this question.

With not a single vote to spare in the Senate, the suffrage amendment cannot yet be considered assured.

This is the statement of Alice Paul, national chairman of the Woman's party, as she left Washington for New York, where leaders of the party will discuss plans for continuing the campaign on the remaining three noncommittal senators—Keves, of New Hampshire; Dial, of South Carolina, and Harrison, of Mississippi.

Senator Harris's pledge gives as the last of the necessary sixty-four votes, but deaths and defections must be guarded against. Even if the three still uncommitted men are won, one majority will follow the example of Senator Harris, the only Republican senator who has not yet announced his position on the amendment.

With the winning of the vote of Senator Harris the Democratic party now has 55 per cent of its members in the upper house pledged, while the Republicans claim 77 per cent.

These figures are based on the Women's party poll of the Senate, which is in accordance with the public pledges of the members of that body.

"The Boomerang" Pleases at Walnut Farical Comedy Given Capital Revival at Popular Prices

"The Boomerang" the farical comedy by Winchell Smith and Victor Majes, which has been highly successful for long runs in all the big cities of the country, was presented here for the first time at popular prices last evening at the Walnut.

The plot is made for laughing purposes only, and it will perhaps be remembered, those who saw the original presentation, has to do with a very modern doctor's prescription for a young man in love and the boomerang like reaction of it in his own mind.

As the doctor Robert Combes tended to ward the method of force, but of a quiet and business kind, his facile methods winning continuous laughter while he was on the stage.

MYSTERIOUS THURSTON GARRICK'S ATTRACTION

Premier Entertainer in Magic Plexes and Delights

"Mystifology" is a science in which Howard Thurston is the world's foremost professor. The annual reunion of the alumni of the magic met last evening at the Garrick, where the modern wizard opened his two weeks' exposition of the art of prestidigitation.

Returning from a manipulator of playing cards to the location of chief exponent of "black art" on the stage is the record of this entertainer, who has the good taste to invest his offering with a sprinkling of clean comedy.

Much of Mr. Thurston's success is due to ready wit and presence of mind, which enable him to become master at once of any ill-mishap which would ordinarily mar the performance of one less proficient.

When the audience leaves a musical comedy its members are whistling the catchy air of the piece, but when Mr. Thurston's devotes five out of the lobby there is much questioning as to the whys and wherefores of the means employed to secure the effects just witnessed.

Manifestations, such as are usually seen at spiritual seances, play an important part in the program. The revival of the floating ball and the introduction of cabinet work provoked wonderment and won applause.

As the doctor Robert Combes tended to ward the method of force, but of a quiet and business kind, his facile methods winning continuous laughter while he was on the stage.
