DELICIOUS HOT BREADS MRS. WILSON SUGGESTS

Recipes for the Good Old Southerner "Battah Bread," Popovers, Rice Waffles and Muffins That Make Breakfast Worth While—Try Them

By MRS. M. A. WILSON

THE southern housewife feels that hot breads are necessary for breakfast. She will be satisfied with a dish of fruit and a plate of waffles or hot biscuits and a pot of coffee.

Uncle Jake and Aunt Cindie will tell you that batter bread for breakfast for "de quality" and corn pone for "de cullin' folks an' de standin' rule" throughout the South.

Close your eyes and come with me and see old Uncle Jake, with the majestic and dignified manner that characterizes the trusted family servant, serve the morning meal.

Then the baking dish on a tray containing the spoon bread, with a pitcher of honey and a pat of butter and the coffee, with cream and sugar.

After all are served he just hovers over them while at the table like a mother hen with her baby chicks, urging first this one and then the other to have just a little morsel more, saying: "Missy, you all hain't hardly none touched a bite dis here mawmin'."

How to Make Spoon Bread (Batter Bread) Place in a mixing bowl Two and one-half cups of milk or water.

Beat to mix and then add One teaspoon of salt, Two teaspoons of baking powder, One cup of corn meal, Two tablespoons of sugar.

Beat to thoroughly mix and then place four tablespoons of shortening in a baking dish, using it to grease the dish well.

Batter bread may be baked in individual custard cups. This dish is eaten with a spoon.

Rice Waffles Break one egg in a cup and fill with milk. Pour into a mixing bowl and then add

One cup of flour, One-half cup of boiled rice, One teaspoon of salt, One teaspoon of baking powder, One teaspoon of shortening, One teaspoon of sugar.

Beat to thoroughly mix and then bake in a hot, well-greased waffle iron.

Plain Muffins One and three-quarter cups of milk, One egg, One teaspoon of salt, Three tablespoons of melted shortening.

Four tablespoons of sugar, Two cups of flour, Four teaspoons of baking powder.

Beat to mix and then pour into well-greased muffin pans. Bake in a hot oven for twenty-five minutes.

Rice Batter Cakes Place in a bowl

My dear Mrs. Wilson—I am a little girl ten years old and love to read your recipes, and am putting them in a book, and would like very much to know how you make a thick, creamy fudge candy.

Cream Fudge Candy Place Two cups of brown sugar, One cup of white corn sirup, Three-quarters cup of evaporated milk.

Sweet Butter Cream Cake Place in bowl Three-quarters cup of sugar, Two cups of three eggs.

One cup of cold boiled rice, One egg, One-half cup of milk, Three-quarters cup of flour, One teaspoon of salt.

Two teaspoons of baking powder, One teaspoon of shortening, One tablespoon of sirup.

Beat to mix and then bake on a hot griddle, and serve with butter and sugar.

Honey and Nut Bran Muffins Place in a mixing bowl

One and one-half cups of honey, One teaspoon of baking soda, One teaspoon of salt, Two cups of bran, One cup of flour.

Two tablespoons of shortening, Three-quarters cup of finely chopped nuts, One and one-half cups of milk, One egg.

Beat hard to thoroughly mix and then bake in well-greased muffin pans in a hot oven for twenty-five minutes.

Rice Muffins Place in the mixing bowl

One egg, Two tablespoons of sugar, Two tablespoons of shortening, One teaspoon of salt, One cup of milk, One and one-half cups of flour.

Four teaspoons of baking powder, One cup of cold boiled rice.

Beat hard to thorough, mix and then pour in well-greased muffin pans. Bake twenty-five minutes in a hot oven.

Indian Griddle Cakes One cup of corn meal, One cup of flour, One teaspoon of salt, Three level teaspoons of baking powder.

Two tablespoons of sirup, One tablespoon of shortening, One egg, One and one-quarter cups of milk.

Beat hard to mix and then bake on a hot griddle.

Popovers Place the popover pan in the oven to heat. When hot start to mix the batter.

Place the popover in the oven for ten minutes. Opening the door before this period of time elapses prevents the mixing from springing or popping.

After twenty minutes turn down the heat to moderate oven to prevent burning and to dry out the centers.

Louisiana Corn Bread Place in a mixing bowl

Three-quarters cup of corn meal, One and one-quarter cups of flour, One teaspoon of salt, Five level teaspoons of baking powder.

Two tablespoons of shortening, Four tablespoons of sirup, One egg, One and one-quarter cups of milk.

Beat hard to mix and then pour into well-greased square pans. Bake for thirty-five minutes in a hot oven.

And You Did Come Back!

When war is over and a world set free And youth returns triumphant to our land,

Then, dear heart, you'll be coming back to me! With eager lips and tender, out-stretched hand

You will be coming as you came of old At eventime, with laughter lifting eyes,

Glad of the little things that life may hold. And I will meet you in the self-same way.

Yes, in the shadows by my open door I will be waiting as I used to wait,

And I will feel that you are come before I hear the clicking of the garden gate!

And in the darkness there my pulse will leap, Revising dreams that long have lain asleep.

SOMEBODY'S SWEETHEART

Wouldn't a dainty daytime dress like this delight the eye of any returning soldier who has wearied of the sight of endless khaki? It is in navy dark blue challis, with dainty collar, sash and cuffs of white organdie. The cuffs have an inset of hand-made Irish crocheted lace and the sash ties in the back with a butterfly bow.

Adventures With a Purse

WE SMILED sympathetically at each other over the adorable hand-made baby pillow cover. Here is a cover fit indeed to hold the soft, downy head of his most royal highness, friend baby.

"Here's a particularly good cleansing cream," she said, as she handed me a generous-sized jar of sweet-smelling cream.

"I'll confess that I do sort of keep the children in mind when I am out 'adventuring.' I hope you like to read about them.

TO THE BOYS WHO MARCH FROM WOMEN WHO WATCH

Some of Us Are Twenty and Others of Us Are Sixty, but You Are All of You Ours, and, God Bless You, You Are Home

DEAR boys of the Twenty-eighth: Our hearts are bursting with love and pride today, for we—well, we are the women who sent you away with a smile.

Do you see us as you pass on this your day of glory? You are men apart today, tall, young living torches in this march of victory that swings down this aisle of vivid flags.

WE SALUTE you, boys. You fought for us and some of you died for us. Each one of you—the youth who must sleep forever in France and you who swing along vital and alive in the marching—belongs to us.

blue banners. To us they must forever be only blue banners, gently stirring in the breeze. But to you—Fishes, Fismette, Argonne Forest, Hill 233—These are not blue banners. They are flaming bits of a life we know nothing about.

But that is wrong, at least partly wrong. Some of us in this crowd, boys of the Twenty-eighth, wear gold stars. "St. Agnan," one of your banners says. That was July 14. There was a boy who gave his eyes that day and later gave his life.

Your home-coming is the dream we feared to dream come true! Humbly we are, proudly and gratefully, The Women Who Watch You Parade.
