They were headed by former Lieutenant Governor Louis A. Watres, Mayor Alex Connell, of Scran-ton, and Sheriff-Joseph Schlager. When told no more seats were avail-sible they set out to provide their own. They visited Eli Kirk Price, Fairmount Pack commissioner, and obtained per-mission to build a stand along the Park-way at Twentieth street. One thousand tickets immediately were printed for this stand.

TWO MORE OFFICERS OF IRON MEN CITED

Pershing Awards Medals to Crookstor and Lieutenant Col- | Llewellyn

NEWS ON EVE OF PARADE

Just before they started in the line of march today Colonel William J. Crookston, of Pittsburgh, division surgeon, and Lieutenant Colonel Fred W. Llewellyn, regular army, assistant ief of staff of the Iron Division, were notified that General Pershing had awarded them Distinguished Service. Medals for extraordinary service in France. The orders from General Per shing reached the Iron Division head quarters at Camp Dix after Major General Muir and his staff had left for Philadelphia. The medals probably will be presented at Camp Dix by General Muir before the division demobilization is completed.

Colonel Crookston's citation says:
"As division surgeon, be displayed marked ability of organization and administration with the Twenty eighth Division in France. With keen judgment, he supervised the location of dressing stations and field hospitals and used remarkable discretion in directing the entire work of evacuation of a large number of casuals. By constant vigilance and unceasing effort, he provided for the health and treatment of the troops with whom he served, displaying professional attainments of a high order."

The order accompanying the Distinguished Service Medal award to Lioutenant Colonel Lewellyn says; "As the officer in charge of the first section of the general staff of the Twenty-eighth Division before the Meuse-Argonne of fensive, he co-ordinated the several services. By his conduct, vigilance and censeless efforts the entire system of supply, traffic and seventian measured. stations and restrooms to serve visitors.

Long before trains and trolley cars began emptying enormous crowds into the center of the city, vendors in droves were picking locations on Chestnut street, Market street and Broad street.

Numerous varieties of "welcome home" buttons were offered by them, a red keystone being conspicuous on most of the little circular emblems. There was a wide choice in flags and pennants.
