Miss Winson Says She Gave $5, Not to I. W. W., but to Legal Defense Fund

POLICE ACTION DEPLORED

"My five dollars was not contributed to I. W. W. neitators but to a legal defense fund to combat the illegal breaking up of legitimate meetings." said Miss Mary Winsor, of Haverford, who is said to have been the only contributor at the so-called radical meeting which the police stopped last night in Grand Fraternity Hall, 1626 Arch

According to the police. Charles Recht, a New York attorney, was addressing a gathering of the Young Democracy. He was suggesting the collection of funds to obtain legal assistance tenant Wagner, of the Fifteenth and and international problems of society.

Young Democracy is not a radical organization. It is a progressive organization. It believes that the education of youth has been too much limited by old men; that the old men create dif-ficulties and then send the youth forth to fight their battles for them. Young Democracy believes that youth must have its chance to express itself and not the old men and women who dominat and limit their education. The society
