

SAYS SUNDAY SPORTS WILL CUT HOLIDAYS

Tasony Minister Predicts End of Saturday Half-Day as Result of Park Edict

WOULD "SOUND WARNING"

Loss of the Saturday half-holiday to the working classes probably would result from the success of the effort to open city parks and playgrounds here for Sunday sports...

Doctor Edwards protested vigorously against the movement to make the Sabbath more of a holiday than a holy day...

"I want to sound a note of warning," he said, "that should this scheme succeed, the half-holiday on Saturdays will speedily disappear..."

"Business, that under the plea of war necessity is making multitudes bow on God's Sabbath now, will say, 'Keep on working or else give up your Saturday holiday or your job...'"

MOTHERS' CLUB HOLDS ANNUAL LUNCHEON

Organization Here Ends Season. Plans Again to Support Nurse in Nineteenth Ward

The annual luncheon of the Philadelphia Mothers' Club was held today at Hamilton Court and closed the season of the club's activity.

Mrs. Arthur L. Bunting introduced the speakers, Mrs. Edwin J. Cumming responded to the toast, "Women in the War"; Mrs. J. Earl Wagner talked of "Our Boys"; and Mrs. George Wheeler spoke of "Our Allies."

The club also had three other toasts to home life. The babies of the club were paid a tribute by Mrs. Charles P. Moore and "husbands" were complimented and defended by Mrs. B. B. Osborne.

The last toast was to the "Spirit of Motherhood," which was responded to by Mrs. Oliver B. Wait, president of the club.

Mrs. F. E. Pierce and the Misses Galling starred in the musical program for the party.

During the summer the Mothers' Club will maintain a nurse in the Nineteenth Ward. For a number of years the club has been paying the expenses of a nurse under the city Department of Health in one of the congested districts of the city.

Mrs. W. E. Cline was in charge of today's luncheon. Among the guests were Mrs. Thomas Raeburn White, Mrs. Walter Shiley and Mrs. Harold De Lanoy Powers.

"TRY a better news-stand—uptown, Gascoigne," he called to the chauffeur. "It's out today. And Mrs. Mellows will put poison in my tea if I come home without her copy." AS the car swung into the Avenue, he turned to me with a smiling explanation. "This happens regularly on the 20th of every month. It's the one errand I am never allowed to forget." "MY wife is reading 'The Wild Goose' or 'The Box with Broken Seals' or 'This Light Must Live' or maybe all three. She says they are, by far, the best novels she can find anywhere and she doesn't want to miss a single instalment." "YOU see, there are always three, and sometimes four, great serial stories—best sellers—running in the magazine. As soon as one stops, a new one replaces it. Here, for example, are novels by Arthur Stringer, Gouverneur Morris, and E. Phillips Oppenheim—all at once!

MANY NEWSDEALERS tell us that their supply of Hearst's Magazine is sold out completely a day or two after the magazine arrives. Since only as many copies are printed as are ordered in advance many people are disappointed each month. It is, therefore, always well to buy your copy of Hearst's at once, and, where convenient, to leave a regular reservation for all future numbers.
