The young lady across the way says it certainly does seem to be just one thing after another these days and before the regular flu has run its course she sees in the paper that the influx of foreign labor is By C. A. VOIGHT now greatly feared and she sup-poses it's terribly contagious.

The Young Lady Across the Way

Cut out the picture en all four-sides. Then carefully fold dotted line 1 its entire length. Then dotted line 2, and so on, Fold-each section underneath, accurately. When completed turn ever and you'll find a surprising result. Save the pictures.

Knicker-We are given language to conceal our thoughts. Bocker-And ' silence conceals the concealment of thoughts.
