STATE VICTORY WON, SUFFRAGISTS FORESEE FEDERAL APPROVAL

"We Expect Amendment to Go Through U. S. Senate," Says Miss Ingham

Woman suffrage leaders here expressed delight today over the state Senate's action in passing the proposed suffrage amendment to the state constitution.

The Senate's action, reversing its vote of two years ago, was taken to indicate that Pennsylvania will be one of the first commonwealths to ratify a national amendment.

"We are not asking for government paternalism," Mr. Edmonds declared, "the South is not seeking any favors whatsoever. What it does ask is that the cotton crop shall be regarded, not as a sectional product, but as a great national asset."

COTTON KINGS ASK JUSTICE

400 Roar Approval to Demands at Annual Convention

Atlantic City, May 27.—Four hundred "cotton kings" roared a mighty chorus of approval in the twenty-third annual convention of the American Cotton Manufacturers' Association at the Marlborough-Blenheim today.

"We expect the federal amendment to go through the United States Senate tomorrow or Thursday," said Miss Mary H. Ingham, head of the Pennsylvania branch of the National Women's party.

"While, of course, we are delighted with the Pennsylvania Senate's action," she continued, "its chief importance now is its indication that a federal amendment will be ratified. We hope that Pennsylvania will be one of the first states to ratify a federal amendment."

PENROSE TO DISCUSS CHARTER AT SUNDAY HARRISBURG MEETING

Senator Will Spend Friday and Saturday in Philadelphia. Pleased With Bills

Washington, May 27.—Senator Boies Penrose expects to arrive in Harrisburg next Sunday to meet the members of the Legislature and discuss the preparation and passage of the Philadelphia charter bills and numerous other legislative matters, he stated today.

"So far as I can see from this distance, the Legislature is getting along nicely with the Philadelphia charter bills and framing excellent measures," said Senator Penrose.

"While I am in Harrisburg I shall of course discuss the bills with the legislators and may suggest some changes that I think may strengthen the bills and benefit Philadelphia."
