All of these events absolutely free to the public. Full of historical interest and spectacular entertainment.

Where Health, Rest and New Vigor May Always Be Found

MOUNTAIN TOP and wooded valley, rushing streams and placid lakes, everything that brings joy to the heart of the lover of nature and out-door life are here in profusion.

The general altitude of the Adirondacks is not surpassed by any range east of the Rockies, great peaks like Ten-hants towering into the air for more than a mile. The popular lake resorts are from 800 to 2000 feet above sea level. The soil is sandy and porous. Here a mile, the mountains from hay fever. The roads are good, the drives enchanting. Wonderful Camping facilities, where all the delights of pure, unspoiled nature may be enjoyed.

Chateau LAKE LOUISE

LOUISE, "The Pearl of the Canadian Pacific Rockies," a jewel of a lake, compels attention by its incomparable loveliness. Pine-clad mountains, snow-crowned peaks and glaciers rise above it. And right at the edge of its iridescent waters, in a glory of wild flowers, is the CHATEAU, one of the most perfectly appointed and commodious hotels of the Canadian Pacific chain of summer resorts—hospitable, welcoming, with every creature comfort; a Paris-New York cuisine, music, dancing, and always the most delightful, cosmopolitan companions.

"Its every window frames a million-dollar picture"

Thrilling mountain sports; foot trails; pony or trolley to other lakes in the clouds; Alpine climbing equal to any in Switzerland. Even the memory of Chateau Lake Louise is a tonic.

Plan NOW to go this summer. Season from June 1st to September 30th. Make reservations early, for CHATEAU LAKE LOUISE is the most desired of summer resorts. For full information, address
