BIG TRADE OPPORTUNITIES IN BRAZIL, SAYS U. S. CONSUL

C. F. Deichman Reports Market in That Country for Everything Made Here Except Shoes—Gossip of the Street
C. F. DEICHMAN, United States consul to Brazil, whose headquarters in this city for a few days in the Corn Exchange National Bank and whose headquarters in Brazil is the city of Santos, with a population of 1,000,000 persons, was pleased to hear of the quick sale of the $10,000,000 6 per cent bonds of the city of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

It will be a shame," he said, "if Americans allow this opportunity, which is open to them without any effort on their part, to fall into the hands of others, to pass through indifference, an opportunity which other countries have spent millions to secure."

On the subject of civics, Mr. Deichman told of a magnificent concourse of driving and promenade parkways which in twenty months was constructed through the city of Rio, running from the ocean front to the bay back, a distance of more than two miles. Three city blocks wide for the whole distance were commanded by the city for the purpose.

It was reported early yesterday that the $10,000,000 issue of city of Rio de Janeiro bonds had been largely oversubscribed, and as a consequence allotments will be cut in proportion.
