Braves Make it Three in a Row Over Coombs's Clan With Twin Win

HUB HITTERS HIT HARD

By EDWIN G. POLLOCK

Special Staff Correspondent Traveling With the Phillies Boston, Mass., May 31.—Battered and beaten and tossed around by the other ball clubs in the parent circuit, the Braves, seemingly remade over night, arose from the chaos and cuffed and kicked our Phils in the morning and afternoon yesterday. It is likely that they would have continued in the eve-ning, but electric-light baseball has not from the third lacing in one day.

Jack Coombs doesn't care how soon he pulls out of this city of books and beans and ball players. He arrived here with a nice average of .500, but he's going to leave with one some disbreaks. The second victory of yester day for the Braves was their third straight over the Phils. Coombs is in favor of having Boston eliminated from be carried to the dressing room.

Then the hospital corps had a rest until the afternoon engagement. In the second inning, after Big Injun, Jim Thorpe beat out an infield bunt, he suddenly developed a Charley horse and limped to the ambulance.

With such luck the Braves are sure to drop out of the league, even if they Penn and Navy Are Evenly keep on winning.

Probably because of the fact that Red Smith got three hits in the morning game. Stallings made him sit on the bench until Thorpe was hurt in the second inning of the post-luncheon contest.

George McQuillan allowed the Phils one but in three innings. Ray Keating only six in six frames and Dick Rudolph only four in nine.

Irish Meusel had a pair of hits in the a m. but failed to come through with a safety in the u.m. Irish lan't playing what might be called a sensutional game in left field. He acts as if he had a sore whip.
