

Establishing World's Launching Record at Hog Island: Devon Winner: Wellesley "Eight"

THE FIVE VESSELS launched yesterday at the great shipyard on the Delaware are of identical construction. This is the Luxpallie, number five on the record-breaking launching program.

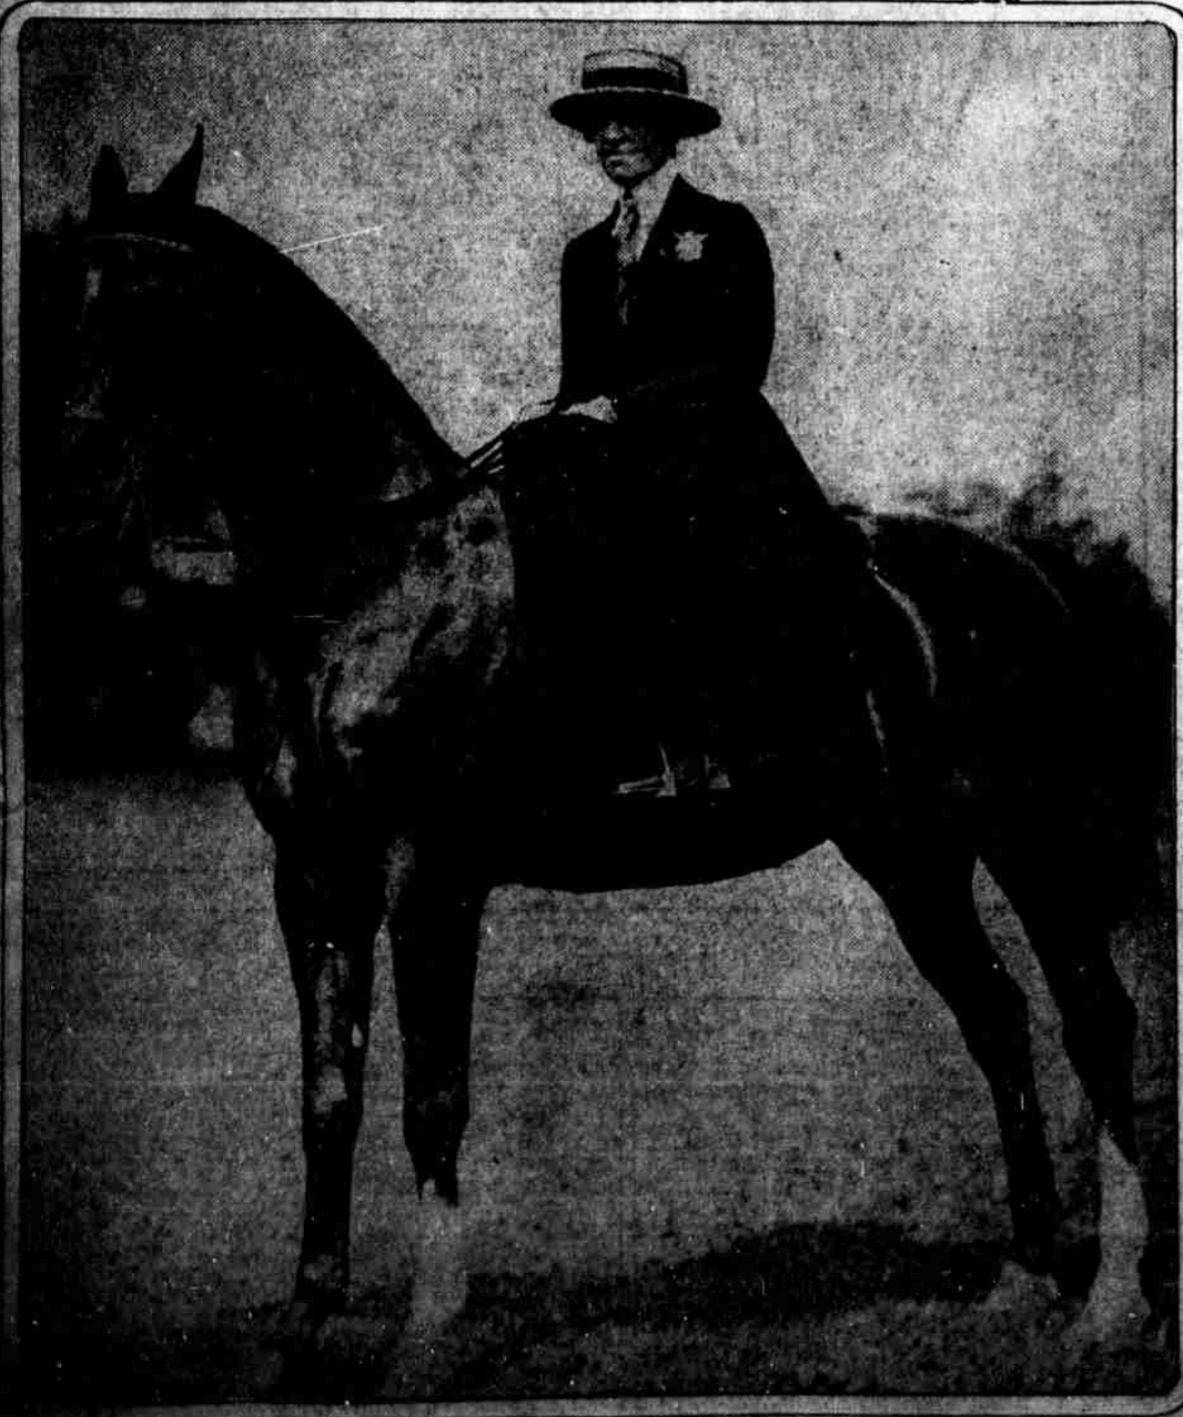

MISS LOIS GAITHER, of Pipestone, Minn., who christened the Pipestone with water brought from Minnesota.

MRS. WILLIAM R. THOMAS, of Allentown, Pa., sponsor for the Lehigh.

CARGO CARRIER LEHIGH leaving the ways at Hog Island. The Lehigh, named in honor of the Pennsylvania county, was the third vessel launched yesterday.

THE TRANSATLANTIC SEAPLANE NC-4 at anchor at Ponta Delgada after the jump from Horta, the first stop in the Azores. In the flight from Lisbon to England yesterday the plane was compelled to stop at Ferrol, Spain, about 325 miles up the coast from Lisbon, on account of motor troubles.

ALICE A. DODEWORTH on Thus, a first-prize winner at the Devon Horse Show.

THE WELLESLEY CREW out for a practice spin on the lake on the college grounds at Wellesley, Mass. Tennis, hockey, riding and even football are also popular on Wellesley's sport schedule.

N. B. DIAL, of Laurens, E. C., is the senator elected to serve the long term succeeding the late Senator Tillman. He is of...