YANKS SCORE THREE IN SECOND FRAME

Visitors Get Big Lead on Athletics in Opening Game of Double-Header

AS LOSE GOOD CHANCE

By ROBERT W. MAXWELL Sports Editor Evening Public Ledger. Philadelphia, June 2.—In the opening round of the first game of today's double-header between the Athletics and Yankees neither club was able to count.

New York got busy in the second and slipped over three runs before any one knew what had happened. Pipp opened with a high hoist to Dugan, but Joe lost the ball in the sun and it fell safe for a single. Vick's rap to right was good for two bases and Pipp dashed around to third.

This set the stage for a clean-up with Rodie at the plate, but Ping was too anxious and swung three times. Truck Hannah, however, leaned against a fast one, sent it to center for a triple and everybody counted. Shawkey then perpetrated a squeeze play and Truck scored.

The A's were dangerous in the fourth, but they were not. Roth walked and went to third on Burns's double. That placed runners on second and third with none out, but Shawkey tightened up and easily disposed of the next three batters.

First Inning. Fester fanned, Peckinpough walked. Baker flied to Witt. Lewis was thrown out by Dugan. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Witt fanned. Grover grounded to Shawkey. Fester muffed Roth's fly. Burns forced Roth, Peckinpough to Fester. No runs, no hits, no error.

Second Inning. Dugan lost Pipp's fly in the sun and it dropped safe for a single. Vick doubled to right, Pipp going to third. Rodie fanned. Hannah tripled to center, scoring Pipp and Vick. Shawkey sacrificed, Burns to Grover, and Hannah scored. Fester was hit by a pitched ball. Fester stole second and took third on Perkin's wild throw. Peck walked. Baker rolled to Burns. Three runs, three hits, one error.

Walker was thrown out by Baker. Dugan fanned. Thomas was tossed out by Shawkey. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Perkins fanned. Seibold also fanned. Witt walked. Grover fanned. No hits, no runs, no errors.

Fourth Inning. Rodie doubled to right. Hannah forced Rodie, Seibold to Thomas. Shawkey fouled to Burns. Grover muffed Fester's fly, Hannah taking third and Fester second. Peck walked, filling the bases. Baker flied to Walker. No runs, one hit, one error.

MONTGOMERY CO. HAS TRIPLE TIE

Disston, Ambler and Souderton Are All on Even Terms for First Place

SAWMAKERS SHOW UP WELL

One-run victories are the order of affairs in the Montgomery County Baseball League this season, and two more of Saturday's games were decided by a single tally, while another was by two runs. Incidentally, the Disston team is one of three clubs tied for first place, sharing the position with Souderton and Ambler.

"Things are not breaking for us just right," said Manager Dick Sude before the Decoration Day double-header. "We are shy pitching. I don't mean to say our pitchers have not the stuff, but they are not in shape."

Well, Sude's ball tossers won both games, and on Saturday captured their third straight by scoring one in the eighth and two in the ninth. Disston has been the only club to defeat Souderton, so if the Sawmakers can keep in the lead while the pitching staff is crippled, their chance of causing much trouble to Montgomery county clubs in the future are exceedingly bright.

MORE GOLF EVENTS IN JUNE THAN THE MONTH HAS DAYS

First Begins Thursday and Tourney After Tourney Follows Without Interruption Until 31st of July

By PETER PUTTER

JUNE is a mad, mad month. In the last month of the local golf clubs have spent hundreds of dollars filling the bunkers and traps with nice white sand. This month most of it is going out with the aid of ruffles. More tournaments are scheduled for this month than ever before in the history of local golf. There are only thirty days in the month, but thirty-one days will be taken up with golf tournaments, and none of these will be played on a Sunday, and there are five Sabbaths in the month.

One tournament follows on the heels of another, and in one week there are four tournaments in this little burg. And this does not take into account the Saturday tournaments which most of the thirty-two clubs in the local district play.

There is one tournament this week, three next week, four the following week, and the month ends with the amateur championship, when there is no conflicting tournament. Just how the local golfers are going to play in even the majority of these is a mystery, for it cannot be done, even if the golfers neglect business.
