

URGENT PAN-AMERICAN CONGRESS ADVOCATES CRAFT TRIPLE TIE OF NC-4

Atlantic City, June 2.—The Aero Club of America and the Aerial League of America, at the second Pan-American Aeronautic Congress here, have adopted a resolution calling on the United States to produce a mammoth airplane, with 10,000 square feet of wing surface and capable of flight across the Atlantic without stop. These airplanes would be used for military purposes and for aerial mail.

LA PRESENTAZIONE HA AVUTO LUOGO STAMANE NELLA STORICO PALAZZO A ST. GERMAIN

Published and Distributed Under PERMIT NO. 341, BY ORDER OF THE PRESIDENT, A. S. BURLESON, Postmaster General.

St. Germain, 2 giugno.—La riunione per la consegna dei termini del trattato alla Delegazione Austriaca è stata aperta alle ore 12.15, per attendere l'arrivo del Presidente Wilson, che fu l'ultimo dei delegati che entrarono nella sala alle ore 12.14.

Il Primo Ministro di Francia, Clemenceau, presidente della Conferenza della Pace, nelle sue istruzioni alla Delegazione Austriaca, disse che nessuna concessione politica era richiesta e che le osservazioni ai termini presentati per l'Austria dovevano essere fatte per iscritto, durante il massimo periodo di 15 giorni.

Clemenceau ha finito di parlare alle ore 12.29. Il suo discorso fu tradotto in inglese, italiano e tedesco, ed il trattato fu consegnato ai delegati austriaci alle ore 12.30.

Il cancelliere Renner, alzatosi, parlando in francese, così ha replicato: "Mi rivolgo nel vostro senso di giustizia e spirito pratico che non domanderà di veder schiacciati. Siamo disposti a riconoscere le nostre responsabilità ed accettare la nostra porzione in proporzione con le altre grandi Potenze. La nostra rivoluzione fu pacifica e senza azione militare. Fu una rivoluzione semplicemente sociale e per quanto possibile politica e regionale, e non politica e nazionale."

Quando il cancelliere Renner si alzò per parlare, un'urina che trovandosi nella stanza, contenente delegati austriaci, apparve in abito da mattino, mentre gli Alleati indossavano abiti da passaggio.

La Signora Diaz, moglie del generalissimo italiano, fu l'unica donna che abbia assistito alla consegna dei termini di pace alla Delegazione Austriaca.

La seduta fu tolta alle ore 1.14 pom.

Parigi, 20 maggio (ritardato).—Andrea Ossolinak, rappresentante ufficiale del Consiglio Nazionale di Fiume, che lascio Parigi quando la Delegazione Italiana si ritirò dalla Conferenza della Pace, è tornato oggi con un mandato del Consiglio di Fiume il quale protesta contro qualsiasi dichiarazione di resa, al punto che i delegati austriaci apparvero in abito da mattino, mentre gli Alleati indossavano abiti da passaggio.
