lution can be delayed no longer; class war is on and cannot cease but with a complete victory for the international proletariat." The pamphlet, one of a large number scattered about, was signed "The Anarchistic Fighters" and undoubtedly was intended as a signal to show the reign of terrorism was on. Although apparently intended to do greater . damage, the latest bomb explosions from the standpoint of loss of life appeared to have been but little successful than those of May 1. Fatalities resulting as reported today were confined to the plotter himself at the Palmer home and to New York, where one or possibly three persons wer killed. In that case, as here, the body or bodies were so badly scattered it was impossible to determine just how many rpses were involved.

Intended Victims Escaped

In several cases, however, families of public officials and the public officials themselves experiwhether the explosion of the bomb planted in the lower portion of Attorney General Palmer's residence was intended as the first of the series of ex-plosions, or whether it had been timed bomb-placer himself being blown to bits to occur at approximately the same in-stant as the others, but exploded prematurely, could not be decided by agents of the Department of Justice and police of the various cities who began at once a nation-wide search for the culprits.

Circular Gives Clue

What may turn out to be the chief clue leading to identification and capture of the anarchists was obtained in this city, where an empty suit case, discovered near the entrance to Mr. 'almer's home, was found to contain hand bill signed, "The Anarchistic fighters.

Coming on the heels of the nation wide May Day plot, secret service officials could only interpret explosion following explosion as an organized outmonth.

The explosion here shattered windows swarthy man, with dark hair and of for a block on each side of the Palmer slender build. He wore a collar of a planted in the basement.

When reports began to pour in of similar outrages in other parts of the country, Major Pullman, superintendent and other prominent officials.

Secret service agents studied intently reports received here from other cities, and when it was found that the nand bills found in Washington corresponded textually with others picked up in Boston, their first opinions that the plots were connected were confirmed, they might be picked up in other cities.
