

AMERICAN PROTEST ON POGROMS URGED

Representatives Before Congressional Committee Say Poland Should Be Rebuked

AIMS OF WAR DEFEATED

Washington, June 3.—Reports thus far received of the alleged massacres of Jews in Poland and other countries of eastern Europe justify a rebuke to the governments of those countries by the United States Congress. Representatives Siegel, La Guardia and Goldfogel, all of New York, declared yesterday at a hearing before the House foreign affairs committee on resolutions relating to the alleged ill treatment.

The Polish Government in turn was defended against the pogrom charges by Representative Kleczka, of Wisconsin, who asserted the reports of massacres were of "German origin, designed to show that Poland was incapable of self-government." The Poles in this country, he asserted, courted an investigation of their native land.

Frank L. Phillips, assistant secretary of state, appeared before the committee to present a report received by the State Department from Hugh Gibson, the new American minister to Poland. The report said house-to-house fighting occurred in Vilna May 5, but that German press accounts of it were said to be exaggerated. Further reports from Minister Gibson will be given the committee today by Secretary Phillips.

Resolutions Bringing Hearing

Three resolutions, one by each of the three New York representatives, led to the hearing. Representative Siegel in his resolution proposed that the State Department request President Wilson to inform the Peace Conference that American sentiment deprecates the alleged outrages.

Representative La Guardia's resolution provides that the American peace delegation inform the nations in which the acts are said to have occurred that they would be denied the friendship of the United States should the acts be continued.

The President is called upon by Representative Goldfogel's measure to take steps to stop any ill treatment of Jews.

Unrebuked, Says Siegel

"We did not go into this war to help set up governments that will tolerate open murder," Mr. Siegel told the committee, after reading numerous newspaper reports of the alleged pogroms in Poland, Rumania and Galicia. "Were these acts committed by lawless bands or authorized by the government?" Mr. Siegel was asked. "They are being committed by the established military authority," he answered, "and the government has not said a single word that any one has been punished for these acts."

BUZZARDS OF WORLD AT PARIS, SAYS RYAN

Educate Nation to Dangers of League, Philadelphian Asks Irish Here

FEARS BRITISH DOMINATION

New York, June 3.—Declaring that the "buzzards of the world are gathered at Paris," Michael J. Ryan, of Philadelphia, returned delegate of the "Irish race in America" to the Peace Conference, sounded a call to the millions of Irishmen in the country to "educate our fellow Americans" to the "danger" in the United States "binding herself to England in the league of nations."

Mr. Ryan was addressing a meeting here of the victory fund committee of the Friends of Irish Freedom last night, having returned ahead of Frank P. Walsh and former Governor Edward P. Dunne, of Illinois, to report on the failure of Irish-Americans to obtain admittance to the Peace Conference of representatives of the "Irish republic."

"The world is being partitioned off," Mr. Ryan declared. "The league of nations covenant is an iniquitous thing for America. Today the danger is appalling for this country to stand by England if Australia wishes—and she will wish—if the great Dominion to the north of us wishes—and she will wish—to sever the bonds which bind her to England. People in New York know as much about the drafting of the league of nations as all but six persons in all France. The covenant of the league was dictated by five men."

The statement of open covenants openly arrived at has fallen into the discard. The fourteen points not only have been blunted, but have altogether disappeared.

The league of nations, in my humble judgment, is devised for the preservation forever of the British empire.

"As it stands today, as an American, I do not believe this great nation should tie itself up with nations and peoples with which it has nothing to do, and I should never consent to giving up my boys to die in a war in which this country has no interest."

"I pray the covenant of the league of nations shall be defeated by this government. Let us educate our fellow Americans—let there be no binding of us to England."

Asserting that "if England would but withdraw her army of 141,000 soldiers," Ireland was prepared to govern herself properly, Mr. Ryan suggested that there could be "no finer thing" than to have healthy New Yorkers buy ships from the United States Shipping Board and send them to the "Irish Republic" with supplies, bringing the vessels back with products of Ireland "and help open up trade with the new republic."

Pershing Declares Report of Eighty Americans Being Missing Untrue

Washington, June 3.—(By A. P.)—Recent press dispatches quoting German newspapers and reporting that eighty men were missing as a result of an explosion in an American expeditionary force munition dump near Coblenz, were declared to be untrue by General Pershing in a report made to the War Department.

The incident referred to apparently was a fire which occurred on May 28 in German ammunition dumps between Cologne and Coblenz. No casualties were caused, General Pershing reported.

Notables at Bacon Funeral

New York, June 3.—A throng of distinguished men paid tribute to Colonel Robert Bacon yesterday when the funeral of the former secretary of state and ambassador to France took place with simple ceremonies in Grace Episcopal Church.

CITY THEATRE TO CLOSE

Northampton Municipal Theatre Will Discontinue When Season Ends

Northampton, Mass., June 3.—(By A. P.)—Following the refusal of the Common Council to pay a deficit of $6144, incurred during the influenza epidemic last year, the board of trustees of the Academy of Music, Northampton's municipal theatre, has decided to discontinue the Northampton players after this season. A public mass-meeting will be held to decide upon the future of the academy.

The Council's action was followed by the resignation from the trustees' board of Frank Lyman, son of E. R. Lyman, donor of the academy. He and his sister, Mrs. A. T. White, organized the players and financed the scheme for several years.

"CADDIE," THE PRIDE OF THE FIFTH REGIMENT MARINES AND THE FIRST AUTOMOBILE TO BE LANDED WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES OVERSEAS. IT WILL BE ON EXHIBITION ALL THIS WEEK AT 142 NORTH BROAD STREET

Thirty-seven pieces of German shrapnel

Wherever the Fifth Marines went, there the "U. S. 1126" went, too. The regiment changed commanding officers three times, but the car remained with the regiment, being used successively by Brigadier Generals Charles A. Doyen (now deceased), W. C. Neville and Logan Feland, who were commanders of the regiment in turn.

struck "Caddie," the pride of the Fifth Regiment Marines, during the intense fighting near the town of Bouresches in the Chateau Thierry sector last June, but its badly lacerated body did not deter it from mixing in all the fighting from then to Armistice Day, nor from going up into Germany with the Army of Occupation.

Despite the ninety thousand miles "Caddie" traveled while overseas and the valiant service rendered to the Marines, its day of rest and retirement has not come. It is now on duty in Philadelphia attracting attention to the need for men in the U. S. Marine Corps, whose motto, "Semper Fidelis," it has exemplified to the letter.

All of which means that the Cadillac touring car, 1917 model, bearing the registry "U. S. 1126" and proudly displaying three service chevrons, a wound stripe and the honored scars of battle, has been shipped back to the United States after being in continuous service in the thickest of the fighting, and is now being used for exhibition purposes by Marine Corps recruiters in Philadelphia.

"U. S. 1126" was the first automobile to be landed with the American forces, going over with the Fifth Regiment of Marines in the De Kalb and arriving June 28, 1917. It was returned to this country recently on the same transport that carried Brigadier General Logan Feland, commander of the Fifth Marine Regiment, who is extremely proud of the car and its performance.

General Feland explained that the "U. S. 1126," while in France, responded to every roll call, never was A. W. O. L.* and never went to sick bay† except for one day, when a German shell landed a few yards away and thirty-seven shell fragments struck the car from stem to stern. The shell damaged only the body, and the next day the Cadillac was again in service, transporting the regimental commander to all parts of the battle line. No attempt was made to repair the damage, and the car today represents an inspiring reminder of the dangers through which the Fifth Marines' officers and men passed.

Philadelphia recruiters now using the car have asked permission to inscribe on its sides the motto of the Corps: "Ever Faithful."

"Caddie" will be on exhibition all this week in the showroom of the Automobile Sales Corporation, 142 North Broad Street. A representative from the United States Marine Corps Recruiting Headquarters, 1409 Arch Street, will be in attendance.
