Taylor Surprises Golf Field by Winning Gold Medal

North Hills Junior Tops Golfers in Qualifying Round

Over His Home Course With Fine Card of Seventy-Eight

By PETER PUTTER
THERE is a long-legged, red-topped youngster at North Hills named Taylor. He was christened Bradford Irving Taylor and just recently he celebrated his majority. He stands several inches more than six feet and there is not an ounce of fat on him.

MISS THAYER PLAYS SEMIFINAL MATCH

Meets Miss Townsend and Winner Qualifies to Oppose Miss Cassell

GOTHAM STAR IS FAVORITE

Miss Mollie Thayer and Miss Anne Townsend, of this city, will meet today in a semifinal round match of the women's championship law tennis tournament of Pennsylvania and eastern states on the classic turf courts of the Merion Cricket Club.

Miss Cassell, of New York, and endeavoring to keep the title within this city's limits.

Miss Cassell, by continuing her uninterrupted march to the title yesterday, won her way into the final round by eliminating Mrs. C. W. Adams in straight sets.

The semifinals in the upper half of the draw have played some fine tennis this week, but as yet haven't shown enough tennis ability to down Miss Cassell, and the gent in the white flannels isn't alone in his prediction that the New Yorker will take the championship and trophy back to the big town.

It is also likely that Miss Cassell may also take two and possibly three of the championships back to New York, thus leaving this city with nothing but the glory of having staged the tourney.

In the mixed doubles, paired with Miss Phyllis Walsh, of this city, Miss Cassell is in the final, and she and Wallace Johnson look like the best of the mixed doubles teams.

Amateur Baseball Notes

The Corley C. C., a first-class traveling team, has open dates for any first-class home team. Frank Quinn, 308 Jackson street.

The Holy Name C. C., an eighteen-nineteen-year-old nine, has July open for home teams. J. McCool, 2280 Cedar street.

The Delmar A. A. has July 4 open for some first-class home team offering a guarantee. Alfred Carter, 2310 South Chadwick street.

The Hancock Reserves want games with such teams as Willowood, Ocean City, Egg Harbor and Cape May. Art Strauss, care of Hancock Club, 259 East Girard avenue.

Kaywood C. C. would like to sign up a good, fast outfielder and first-class pitcher. John Shields, 2833 Wharton street.

JOCKEY SUSPENDED

Keating, Steeplechase Rider, Is Set Down Until July 15

New York, June 6.—Action taken by the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association at Belmont Park yesterday will keep Steeplechase Rider W. Keating out of the saddle until July 15 next.

The stewards of the Belmont meeting had suspended Keating for not following riding instructions, presumably on Rhomb, which he rode Wednesday. Later the case was brought up before the meeting of the N. S. and H. A. and the suspension continued until the date mentioned.

Scraps About Scrappers
THE Cambria A. C. open-air club opens its 1919 season tonight. Promoter Johnny Buras has arranged a good card for the inaugural attraction, which features Battling Murray, the Italian lightweight, and Jack Wolpert, the Lancaster entry.

Murray, a flyweight headliner and a challenger of Wilde, failing to clinch a match with the English boy, has decided to concentrate upon home talent, clean up the field, then renew his drive for the title.

The semi-wind-up brings together Johnny Maloney, former amateur champion, and Young Johnny Buck. The other bouts follow: Andy Burns vs. Tommy Hogan, Willie McCloskey vs. Andy McMahon and Johnny Morgan vs. Kid Diamond.

By EDWIN J. POLLOCK
It was a great day for presents at the Shibe stadium yesterday. Following is a list of some of the gifts, the recipients and the donors:

Plural horseshoe to Harry Davis from the members of the Thirty-eighth Ward Republican Club, of which Mr. Davis is president.

Ball game to C. Mack from the members of the Cleveland Club, of which Mr. Mack is N.Y.T. president.

Beautiful headsets to Ray Chapman from Harry Seibold, a member of the Athletics club.

Black-and-blue shoulder to Johnny Enzmann from Jangling Johnson, also a member of the Athletics club.

Five base hits to Mack percentage from Lawton Witt, alias Whitey Witt, of Down East.

Davis Returns
The game included the return of Harry Davis to Shibe Park to aid Mack as base-line coach and general assistant.

THE eleven safeties of Messrs. Bagby, Enzmann and Uhle went for fifteen bases.

Jing Johnson twirled only a fraction over three innings, and got credit for the win. He wobbled in the fourth, and Scott Perry went in. Perry, however, was not in shape, and after working for less than an inning was convinced that he had not recovered from his wrenched back, which he suffered in the Boston series. Harry Seibold finished the engagement.

MARSTON HAS HARD MATCH
Merion Star Meets Gardiner White at Bridgeport Today

Bridgeport, Conn., June 6.—Maxwell Marston, Baltusrol, and Gardiner White, Nassau, will meet at the top of the Nassau in the third round of the match play today in the Metropolitan golf championship, the most important bracketing so far.

OTHER SPORTS ON PAGE 20

Sam Gross, the prominent fight official, writes that there will be an important boxing show at Hamilton on June 14. Steve Leonard and immediately after the battle for Leonard when he meets the champion, Henry's manager, Mr. J. J. Dillon now is closer to the lightweight limit than many believe.

Leonard will be here next week for a brief visit. He has a little assignment in Montreal on Monday night with Canadian fighters and immediately after the battle will hasten to this city. According to Dillon, Henry's manager, Mr. J. J. Dillon now is closer to the lightweight limit than many believe.

James F. Daugherty, the Baron of Leiper Park, now has his headquarters at Camp Dempsy, on the outskirts of Toledo. The Baron writes that he and his friend, Casper Sharpley, are accompanying Dempsy in his long jaunts on the road every morning.

The Pennsylvania A. C. will feature Joe T. Williams to stage his next show on the night of June 25. Willie Mike and four singles, scored three runs and drove in two others. Whitey certainly swings a mean and wicked bat.

Eleven Hits
It was the top of the Mack batting order that did the clouting in the 10-6 triumph, the first win in the last six starts. There were eleven Mack bingles altogether, and aside from the five made by Witt, two each were dominated by Grover, Roth and Walker.

Kid Williams is virtually through with the ring game. He admitted as much at Shibe Park Wednesday night. The one-time bantam terror says it would require too much effort to work back into condition, and inferred that the boxing game, with him as one of the actors, did not appeal to him any more.

"AMALIE" AUTOMOBILE LUBRICANTS

We believe, after thorough scientific and practical investigations and trials, that "Amalie" products are the very best and render a maximum of efficiency, and as such, confidently recommend them.

Why We Recommend "1-2-3"

"Amalie" 1-2-3 Non-Carbon Motor Oil is obtained by straight reduction and filtration from 100 per cent straight Pennsylvania crude oil. The high flash and fire tests make perfect lubrication possible at a degree of heat at which other oils burn up and evaporate.

"Amalie" products are specified and used by manufacturers of the highest types of Motor Cars, Motor Trucks and Tractors because, after exhaustive laboratory and practical tests, they know that by using "Amalie" Products their motors will give owners the most efficient and economical service.

"Amalie" Automobile Lubricants are made by L. Sonneborn Sons, Inc., 262 Pearl street, New York city, manufacturers of accurately and scientifically refined lubricants for every service.

Have You Tried 1-2-3 in Your Motor? Give it a test, buy a 5-gal. can of "Amalie" 1-2-3. Clean out your motor and put in "Amalie" 1-2-3. You can actually FEEL the difference and you will know that besides a smooth, perfect-running motor you are saving gasoline. You will know this on your first trip with 1-2-3.
