ASCO.

"ALICE."

To the Editor of the Woman's Page:

Dear Madam-I have read with inerest the various letters printed on the subject of the servant girl and the eightbour day now being agitated. May I take the chair for a few moments on the

We have daylight-saving for business urposes. Now we are asked to have laylight, eight-hour homes so servants may be relieved of duty at 5 p. m.

This means a six-hour business day, if business people live in their homes ong enough daily to get two meals. Homes must necessarily have service hours that overlap business hours.

But already the six-hour laboring day s agitated, and no doubt the laboring woman's demands will keep pace with those of the laboring man. So it looks as though an even eight-hour day for the helper of the home with "mother" on the job all the time, will not solve the servant question after all.

The home is a twenty-four-hour intitution. Can it be condensed into an eight-hour, daytime working proposition. If Solomon or Brigham Young were living they might help to solve the problem through their extensive experiences with "householders." But in this day of monogamy and of the slogan of "one wife for one man," which means one pair of hands for all of the work of the home, the eight-hour working day in the home is indeed complex. Nature herself defiantly ignores it.

Nature Ignores It

Take, for instance, the stork. He ust will come at his own good time. When he pleases he will drop his preclous burden into the home, whether the union labor hours are over for the servant or not. What is mother to do by these hours of maternity and the later years of childnursing and rearing. with the long croupy nights.

But you say, the trained nurse to Yes, for a few weeks, but ever she must have more meals and work done for her, perhaps, than mother and the baby. Then nature does let father and the children and other dependents of the house get ill after the union labor day. Of course, mother could begin her shift, but she has already been on her shift before any one else started.

Man's Problem

The servant problem is really a man'

The erroneous opinion prevails it is for the madame of the house, when it is really for the master of the house.

The whole question of eight-hour working day in the home resolves itself

Will man and his children reduce their demands to actual needs? Then further reduce their needs to meet actual conditions created by the eight-hour, daytime worker?. If men and children can do this, and if business conditions can be adjusted, then the question has been largely solved.

It is a man's problem !

and their father, too, is certainly not hours of labor.

dependent upon a servant for her actual . The working woman cannot add to can go to a hotel. You know how I had seen service at the border and which should hate to stay alone at a New was among the first to be dispatched needs. Nor would you ever see her at the dignity of her labor through short York hotel, however, and you know, overseas. He fought in all the battles and their father, too, is certainly not hours of labor. found in the neat, cozy home of any clean, economical, lone woman. What one man has such a home?

The eight-hour day is therefore up to the man and his children.

Is a man willing to do without a home shorter hours with more pay, they genlife? Or will he reduce the demands of himself and his brood? Then will he Marriage means a life-working contract further reduce their manifold supposed eds to actual needs, and perhaps lend a belping hand in emergency. Mother Cuts the Pie

Although this servant problem is for the lords of creation," it is likely that lam with the apartment house, community kitchen and other "life-saving" devices. For this human animal that if a woman likes a man. poets call "mother" simply cannot keep

The Eight-Hour Plan in Reader's Eyes

If Solomon were living he might not have a hard time with the eight-hour day for servants. But in this which means one pair of hands for all the work of the house, the eighthour working day in the home is in-

The eight-hour working day will mean a six-hour business day, for homes must necessarily have service hours that overlap business hours.

The servant girl problem is man's roblem. Any woman who brings children into the world and cares for them, is certainly not dependent a servant for her actual needs. Nor would you ever see her at any time of life standing in line in front of the Sunday Breakfast Associadoors awaiting its benefactions

Notwithstanding servants know more of the infelicities of marriage than any other class of workers and demand shorter hours with more pay they generally are most eager for up with the demands of these days of progressive civilization.

The following pre-war figures show that the servant problem is not so farreaching after all as many persons suppose. The homes with even one servant have been reduced to some 5 per cent of the total number of homes.

Enlisted men learned during their military service many things home work, so they will be more helpful and considerate than ever before They will insist that their sons, as well as daughters, be taught to wait on themselves and their mother, which is right. Many men will de housework because it is better paying, with its three meals and lodging, than an occupation.

Mother Does All the Work

Investigating the United States reorts on occupations and apportioning all the servants and cooks listed, it is found that in 931/2 per cent of American homes no servants are employed.

Of nearly 17,000,000 families in the United States only 1,000,000 can afford to keep servants. This is a conservative estimate, since some fortunate (or unfortunate) housewives employ or more servants. Probably where live well-to-do families who are able to keep a servant, in ninety-five homes mothers do all the housework. Yet under this United States census law mother is not classed among the workers, but swells the list of dependents.

Will Shorter Hours Dignify Labor The woman worker in the home who oes everything there is to do, and bears the children beside, has the longest sentiment had not been far wrong. The urs and the most respect. The dignity of labor in the home eems to demand long hours—not short

The woman who would leave her husband without meals, or his children un-cared for after union labor hours, would be called cruel, criminal or crazy, and be Almost any woman can take care of dealt with accordingly by the neighbors, herself, if she can drag herself out of the church, the humane society, the po And the woman who brings chil- lice and the divorce courts. She would iren into the world and cares for them find no dignity attached to her short any time of life standing in line in hours, but through her responsibility. York hotel, however, and you know, overseas. front of the Sunday Breakfast Associative thing front of the Sunday Breakfast Associative thing doors awaiting its benefactions of food. Further proof of this independence of women of servants may be work of their helpers.

Hours, but through her responsibility, too, that mother happens to be out-of-in which his company participated. In the Argonne forest he was wounded in the left eye and sent to a hospital. The work of their helpers.

The work of the Sunday Breakfast Associative thing hours, but through her responsibility, too, that mother happens to be out-of-in which his company participated. In the Argonne forest he was wounded in the left eye and sent to a hospital. The work of their helpers.

Shorter Hours or Husbands?

Notwithstanding servants know mor of the infelicities of married life than any other class of workers, and demand erally are most eager for marriage. without wages to cook, wash, iron, scrub, nurse day and night, stay at home, rear children and with all of the responsibilities of home and mother-

The servant will leave the home of the woman will have to adjust it conveniences, with its "days off," respect of her employers, and good wages "Mother" has been able to cut the ple so there will be a piece for each hungry child and father, too (even though she must go without), so it is likely she will solve the servant problem with the apartment house. com-

Employment "hours" do not count

A widower left through the death of suppose I shall be forced into marriage writing and self-recommendations through sheer desperation, for I cannot parcel my children out among relatives

His experience seems to be sustained up against it. by advertising for a general housework his wife with a bunch of children said advertising for a "working housekeeper in his bitterness, "I can get a thous- for a widower" and being overwhelmed in his bitterness, "I can get a thous-and wives, but not a single, respectable, with answers from all classes of women, caretaker for my home and children! I as shown by their pink stationery and The homes that have shifts of servants can meet the eight-hour demand, but Colonel Woods Gives Instance of the homes of one servant certainly are Self-help seems to be the only

"We can't do it!" Ruth exclaimed.

it," Scott returned. "She is my sister,

"But we have no room for her."

"We can put her up on the daven-

Ruth had known that the davenport

"But, Scott." Ruth wailed this out.

"it will be awful in this tiny place.

"That's just it. I'd gladly do that "I don't see what she's coming on

In the next installment-What fright

Flowers for the Table

No table is complete without flowers

be it the breakfast, luncheon, tea or dinner table. Even field flowers gathered from the roadside are quite acceptable if they are nicely arranged.

Violets, mingled with their own green

clover buttercups, goldenrod and asters flowers for the table to be had for the

BACK FROM THE DEAD

Family Happy Surprise

dead for months, Edward D. Klemmer, twenty-eight years old, of 946 Button

wood street, happily surprised his parents last night when he walked in upon with the National Guard at the time of the Mexican trouble. After serving on the border he returned to Reading for a short stay with his family, and when the United States entered the war with

FAN-TA-Si SKIRTS at the best retail shops

FAN-TA-Si is "A MIGEL SILK"

The young man enlisted at Pittsburgh

Reading. Pa., June 9 .- Given up for picking from spring to fall.

the family while at supper.

Rita Whitmore?

girl and receiving no answers and then solution. And So They Were Married

By HAZEL DEYO BATCHELOR

FTER any argument or misunder-wanted immediately.
standing with Scott, Ruth always "I thought," the leter went on, "that standing with Scott, Ruth always and constrained the next if you and Ruth could put me up for a had that duliness about them that al- any more trouble than necessary. Let ways indicates something that has hap- me know immediately, will you? I

Then remembrance rushes over the consciousness and it is difficult to proceed. The morning after the argument about cards Ruth awakened now were all thoughts and memories of just that way. She did not remember out of bed, leaned down to tuck the covers about Scott so that he might and to do a certain amount of enter- ably. get a little more sleep before it was taining for her, but to have Alice in time to wake him, and was just about to kiss him softly on the top of his to have to have her constantly around would be intolerable Memory in this case helped to start

When Ruth finally woke Scott her one was devoid of anything but remote friendliness. Any husband who knows that inflection in his wife's voice knows that it presages a difficult time. Women bear grudges far longer than would be inevitable. Women remember purposely; they like to suffer. At breakfast Ruth made no effort to talk, and as the morning paper We'll have no privacy at all. I'd rather had not arrived, things were rather pay her hotel bill, no matter how much strained between them. When the mail finally arrived there was a sigh of relief from both of them. Scott seized but Alice is a coward, and simply won't the paper and retired behind it, while stay at a hotel alone." Ruth went leisurely through the let-There seemed to be quite a lot of mail this morning.

Two bills, a letter from a college I simply couldn't face it. girl from out West, an Invitation to an evening affair, and a letter for Scott. The straight, angular writing was ununmistakable. It was from his sister. Ruth had not seen Alice since the posed divorce suit which had all died down. her with a queer feeling of presentiment in her heart. "Scott," her speaking to him was un avoidable.

Ruth had no "A letter for you." intention of relenting to the extent of bouquets of dogwood, mountain laurel friendly conversation. Her remark was and wild azalea, daisies, red and pink strictly to the point. "Ob, from Alice," he exclaimed.

picking it up and slitting the envelope with that peculiarly destructive quality that most men have. There was a silence while Scott read and Ruth observed over the rim of her coffee cup. Finally he put the letter down and looked across at Ruth. His letter had contained something unpleasant. "Anything wrong?" she queried, with forced politeness, trying to keep the very expression told Ruth that her pre-genuine interest out of her voice. For answer Scott handed her

It was short and to the point. "Dear Scott-I don't suppose that you and Ruth are going to like these arrangements very well, and of course, if they inconvenience, you too much, I to rejoin the company with which he can go to a hotel. You know how I had seen service at the border and which roundabout way like this, leading up to That was the last heard of him until his

FROM WAITER AT $12 TO $5000 A YEAR JOB

Army Benefits and Why Ex-Soldiers Are Wanted

Washington, June 9 .- (By A. P.)-'I know a young man who was a waiter in a small town restaurant in North Ninth street, and Hamilton E. pre-war days for $12 a week and tips." Ford, 1821 South Sixteenth street, telesays Colonel Arthur Woods, assistant secretary of war. "He had been in START THIS STORY TODAY perfectly frank and stating what she secretary of war. "He had been in get an appointment at an officers' training school. war as a second lieutenant. He came Her first waking thoughts week or two, that I would try not to be back a captain, with a medal and a citation.

" 'Nothing doing,' he laughed, when pened, but that cannot be recalled just must arrange my plans. Yours always, the boss offered him his old job back in the restaurant, with the promise of a head waiter position in a few months Ruth dropped the leter by her plate and stared across at Scott. Forgotten I am a $5000 a year man now.

"So he is. The other day the young last night. This news was tragic. It captain got his $5000 job with a big was bad enough to have Alice in New concern which has a large number of men to handle, and he fits in admir

" 'See if you can get us a discharged this tiny apartment spooping around, army officer for the job "As industrial conditions improve, this seems to be the general run of letters to the army employment centers from large employers who are look-"I don't see how we can get out of ing for competent employes. Such little stories as these and figures show that the average honorably discharged officer has no difficulty whatsoever in placing himself again in civil life."

Up to date, according to a statement by Colonel Woods, there have been about 104,000 officers mustered out of service who are now back in civil Of these 8000 have applied for assistance in securing employment.

MEDICAL ROW DENIED

Report of Lack of Harmony at West Phila. Hospital Declared Untrue for anyway. She knows I don't like Friction between the medical and surher and she hates me. It seems as if gical staffs of the West Philadelphia Hospital is not the reason for the withholding of the $20,000 appropriation for that institution by the committee of legislature according to Dr William

McKenzie, chief of staff at the hospital There have been reports recently of internal dissension among the various departments, and the state appropriation was held up "until the present management has been reorganized in such a manner that the hospital will be properly conducted."

"In all probability there will be a leaves, arbutus in flat dishes, spreading nweting of the board of trustees this evening." said Doctor McKenzie, the whole matter will be laid before them." Dr. James B. Buckley, house physician, also denied that there was -as the season change there are lovely any lack of harmonye among the members of the staff.

CANTRELL & COCHRANE THE STANDARD

GingerAle OF TWO CONTINENTS Order by the dozen

for use at home

CAND REDORATE TO SEED THE

"FAN-TA-SI" has triumphed in being the only real silk novelty that this season's fashions

No Sports wardrobe is complete without a Fan-ta-si skirt.

The skirts illustrated may be had at the Wanamaker Store.

have reflected.

FAN-TA-SI

"A MIGEL SILK"

Maker of
"Pierrette" for Sheerwear
"Fan-Ta-Si" for Sportswear
"Hindu" for Summerwear
"Moon-Glo" for Everywear

JOBS GIVEN SOLDIERS

Three Men Who Served in France Given Eelctrical Bureau Posts

Four returned veterans of the world war, three of whom saw active service 23, 1918, and sent to Fort Slocum. He given positions in the Electrical Bureau Camp, Washington, D. C., and ascontinuing the policy of Director William H. Wilson to place discharged soldiers and sailors wherever possible.

The men art Joseph Call, Jr., 1961

ASCO.

CO

Glenwood avenue, stenographer, and John T. Haines, 2439 North Fifteenth street, laborer.

Haines was wounded in action. He was inducted into the army on April on the battlefields of France, have been was later transferred to Universal of the Department of Public Safety, signed to 318th Medical Unit, Eightieth Division. He sailed for France on May 5, 1918, and was in action at Argonne phone operators; Horace H. Magee, was sent to Camp Meade and as 2624 Glenwood avenue, stepographer, to Hendquarters Company, 312th Artillery. He was transferred to Company A, Thirty-seventh Engineers, and sailed for France on May 8, 1918. He participated in the battles of the Meuse and the Argonne Forest.

Call enlisted on July 5, 1917, and was assigned to Truck Company F. 103d Supply Train, Twenty-eighth Forest and St. Mihiel sectors. He was Division. He was in action at Curiedischarged from the army on May 20. Vesle, in the Meuse-Argonne sector and the Thincourt sector. He was

ASCO.

Popularity is Always a Mark of Quality, Fair Prices and Entire Satisfaction

This fact will be brought home to you very forcibly every time you visit an American Store-the busy store tells the story.

The reason is patent, known to hundreds of thousands of the best housekeepers-our customers, that, our producer to consumer plan of merchandising is a reality, nothing visionary or theoretical about it, just the perfecting of one of those elements of human endeavor that reaches out towards the ideal.

Are we serving you? If not, you are missing much in money-saving possibilities.

Kream Krisp 116 1 ez 30° Best Flour Bag 90°

A special price on this remarkable lard bestitute. The best you ever used for all kinds of baking and frying.

Your choice of Hecker's, Gold Medal, Ceresota or any mill brand in stock.

This is the Weather for Iced Tea and Coffee

Our Best Coffee 37 to Our Best Teas 45th

Full, heavy body. Wonderful cup quality, Better than some teas being sold at a delightful aroma.

Gold Seal carton 50° Strictly Fresh E Fresh laid, big, full and meaty. Selected for their extra size.

Louella Butter "Louella" is without question the best insuring its reaching you with all the sweetness of the churn.

165° Richland Ib COC Butter

Fresh creamery prints, quality second only to our famous Louella.

Smiles, asstd. flavors, pkg. 4c Motor Mints.....pkg. 5c Sil-O-Ett Mints can 30c Almond Choc. Bars. . cake 6c Peanut Butter, tumbler . . 12c Uneeda Biscuits....pkg. 8c Blue Label Ketchup. . bot. 18c

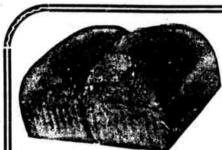

Hershey's Cocoa ... can 9c-17c

Wash-Day Needs Laundry Soap 6 cakes 25c Ritter's Pork & Beans, can 11c Fels Naptha Soap . . cake 6c Borden's Ev.Milk, tall can 15c Choice Tomatoes.can 11c-16c Sweet Sugar Corn...can 14c Golden Pumpkin..big can 10c Best Pink Salmon, ½ lb. can 10c Best White Beans...lb. 10c "Asco" Ammonia...bot. 8c "Asco" Bluing....bot. 5c Clothes Pins....24 for 5c

Fly Paper (2 double sheets), Se Window Screens, each 50c-55c

Window Screens, each 50c-55c
National Oats ... pkg. 8c
N. B. C. Tokens ... lb. 25c
Choice Broken Rice ... lb. 9c
W. D. Vinegar ... bot. 12c
Salad Dressing ... bot. 14c
Orange Marm'de, big jar 28c
Marshm'w Whip, pkg.12c-17c
Liffy Jell ... pkg. 11c Jiffy Jell. pkg. 11c "Asco" Bak. Powd. can 9c-17c "Asco" Ginger Ale, bot. 12½c "Asco" Root Beer, bot. 121/20 "Asco" Sarsaparilla,bot.12½c Fine New Cheese...lb. 39c Mason Jars...doz. 80c-85c

900

Serve "Victor"—Always Four Kinds—One Quality

Victor Pan Victor Rye Victor Hearth Cloal

Victor Raisin Bread loaf 10c Peppered full of delicious California raisins.

Baked in Our Own Ovens-Sold Only in Our 1200 Stores

These Prices in All Our 150 Meat Markets

Finest Quality Native Beef or Chuck Roast 16 28c Rolled or Roast 16 28c Lean Soup Beef ib 17c

Wether Mutton		Country Veal
Shoulders 1b. 22c Neck 1b. 18c	Rack Chops	Shoulders b 25c Neck b 23c
5		~

Delicacies Ready to Serve

Sliced) 1/4-lb | Cooked) 1/4-lb | Baked) 1/4-lb | Sliced) 1/4-lb Lebanon 12c Luncheon 17c Meat 15c Corned Bologna 12c Roll 17c Loaf 15c Beef 15c

SUMMER HALF HOLIDAY

Our Stores Close Every Wednesday at 1 P. M. During June, July and August Our Stores Close Every Weanesday at 11. In.

We earnestly solicit the co-operation of our customers, asking that you will please try to trade as early in the day as possible and in this way enable us to give you better AMERICAN STORES CO.

Everywhere in Philadelphia and Throughout Pennsylvania. New Jersey, Maryland and Delaware

ASCO.

A complexion powder of exquis-itely delicate odor and texture which holds its charm throughout the day, imparting to the skin that delicate softness and refinement so much admired. Nadine Pace Powder is cooling, re-eshing and harmless, a positive pro-ection against wind, tan, sun-burn and sturn of discolorations. Leaves the kin soft and smooth as rose petals. This exquisite preparation, Nodine, beautifies millions of complexions today. Price refunded if not entirely pleased. Sold in Green Boxes Only.
At leading toilet counters. If they haven't it, by mail 60c.
NATIONAL TOILET COMPANY Flesh Pink Brunette White

Exquisite

Nadine Face Powder