

THIS IS A BUSY WEEK FOR LOCAL GOLF AND TENNIS PLAYERS—OTHER NEWS OF SPORTS WORLD

COOMBS DOES NOT 'IF' PHILS AFTER DEFEAT

Game is Played on the Field, With No Alibi for Disappointing Box Score

PITCHERS IN POOR FORM

St. Louis, Mo., June 9.—Jack Coombs has lifted "if" from the managerial career. In playing over-defeats the expression: "If we would have done this—if we would have done that" is common.

"The only thing to the game is to play it and play it to the best of your knowledge," commented Colby Jack. "I don't believe in kicking the skin off the shins when the first guess misses. We had one play for the book along this style—it was in Friday's game with the Cardinals when we were one in front in the ninth inning with Stock on second and two out and Hornsby at the bat."

Wild Pitch "We had to decide on Hornsby—whether to walk him or let him hit. We figured it this way—Hornsby is a better hitter than Heathcote. A single by Hornsby would tie the score. Heathcote had to get a long drive to beat us. Before Heathcote had a chance to hit Herz made a wild pitch advancing the runners and a single by Heathcote sent in the two runs. We lost."

"Of course, we did not count on the wild pitch. We lost the game, and when the players went back to that question, 'Walk Hornsby or let him hit?' I ended the argument by telling them that the game was over. We took our chance and lost."

"Give me that same line-up and I'll do just what I did—I'll walk Hornsby and other good hitters in the ninth inning with a lead of one run, two out and a runner on second."

"It is just our tough luck to have our pitchers out of shape. They have some arms and really are not in trim. To get fifteen runs in three games and three defeats is out of the ordinary."

Card Fans Impressed Coombs impressed the St. Louis fans—even in defeat. He has had to shift pitchers in each game. Take Saturday's game when he had a 6-2 lead and then lost out, 8 to 7. The batters are holding up their end, but all the pitchers recover the journey in the West may be a rocky one. From here he goes to Chicago, where he will face such hit artists as Alexander, Douglas, Williams and Vaughn, Cravath, Luderus, and the Cardinals' slugging line.

In the wind-up of yesterday's 6-3 defeat Eppa Riley was introduced to the box score—same Eppa, fast one run working the eighth inning, but not because the Cardinals' slugging line. He retired Hornsby on a fly to Cravath and tossed out Heathcote. Miller walked, and the inning should have closed when Levan grounded to Pearce, but there was a fumble and Miller went to third. Coombs popped one in back of second for a stinky single, and Miller scored. Another week and Eppa will be ready.

CHANGE IN WORLD'S SERIES

First Two Teams in Majors May Share in Receipts This Year Boston, June 9.—The method of dividing the players' share of the world's series profits, undoubtedly will be changed again, according to a statement by President Ban Johnson, of the American League. He said the subject would be considered at a meeting of the national committee, to be held at Cincinnati, Thursday.

In a conference with President Heydler, of the National League, a few days ago, Johnson said, it was agreed that a change was desirable, and he said the new plan probably would allow the first two teams in each league to share in the receipts.

FROTHINGHAM ON TOP

Leads With an 81 in National Open Golf Championship at Newton Newton, Mass., June 9.—Only ten players had finished the first eighteen holes in the national open golf championship at noon, and the scores indicated that cards would run high.

The best course of the first ten in an 81, by George Frothingham, of Glen Cove. The course was heavy, giving the ball but little roll.

TEACHER SCORES IN A. E. F.

New York, June 9.—A. E. F. Teacher former Harvard sprinter star, was the individual scotch winner in the championship track games of the American expeditionary forces, held at Colonel Francis' headquarters, according to a cablegram received today at M. C. A. headquarters from Dr. George Fisher.

ELLIS WARD TO COACH FAIRMOUNT OARSMEN

ELLIS WARD, the veteran rowing enthusiast and former coach of the University of Pennsylvania, is back in the game. Mr. Ward has been obtained by the Fairmount Rowing Association as coach. His success attracted attention in collegiate rowing circles, and in the early nineties he became coach of the Penn crew.

A'S DISCOVER NEW WAY TO LOSE GAME

Jack Naylor Hurls in Good Shape, but Grooves Ball for Guy Morton

DROP BATTLE IN THE NINTH

The A's discovered a new way to lose a ball game in Cleveland yesterday. The new stunt is to groove the sphere for a pitcher in the ninth inning.

Two were on in the ninth, with the score tied at one, and Guy Morton, the Indian hurler, who bats about .175, was swinging his weapon over the plate. He was allowed to bat because Lee Fohl expected the game to go into extra innings.

Jack Naylor, who had been pitching sterling ball, served one up in the groove. Morton singled, and the 10,000 Cleveland fans went home to a warm dinner happy. The deciding figures were 2 to 1.

There was some consolation in the A's reverse. Naylor has proved that he is ready to take his regular turn in the box. Jack has been slow in getting into form. He showed a distinct inclination toward wildness in the early part of the season, and Mack was afraid to use him. Yesterday he gave only two bases on balls.

Naylor permitted eight hits, three of which came off Speaker's bat. The A's had six bingles, Bobby Roth and George Burns getting two each. Roth had a triple and a double.

PENN TO PLAY CORNELL

Many Classes to Parade in Costume Next Saturday

Announcement was made last night that thirty-one classes which will be back to celebrate their class reunions will parade to Franklin Field next Saturday afternoon to witness Pennsylvania's final home baseball game with Cornell.

The oldest class will be 1860, which will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of its graduation.

Many of the classes will be in costume, and the parade, which will be from the Dormitory Quadrangle to Franklin Field, will be the most picturesque on record.

40-MILE RACE TOMORROW

Madonna and Walldorff in Long Grind at Velodrome

Vincent Madonna will make his first appearance of the season in this city when he competes in the forty-mile motor-paced race at the Point Breeze Velodrome tomorrow night. Bobby Walldorff, winner of the first race of the season here, will be one of the starters.

Menus Bedell, veteran pace follower, will be in the race. Fred Weber, of Tampa, Fla., also will be one of the speeders.

Clarence Carman, the "Jinxed" rider of the season, is due to ride in Providence Friday night. He may be seen here on Saturday night.

UPPER DARBIE DEFEATED

West Philadelphia, P. C. defeated the Upper Darby team yesterday, in a fast game on Friday night. The match was heavy, giving the hitting of Milnor and Hayes; the hitting of Young and the pitching of Kuhl.

SCRAPS ABOUT SCRAPPERS

A DOUBLE wind-up will be staged at the Empire A. C. tonight. Willie Hannon and Young Robideau have the call in the first part of the twin bill, while Joe Welsh and Jack Lester clash in the second part.

Promoter Sam Gross, who was responsible for the change from Thursday to Monday night, expects the present arrangement to be more satisfactory.

Three other good bouts will complete the card.

Al Thompson, Jack Hagan's lightweight entry, will be one of the headlines in the weekly show at the Atlantic City Sporting Club Thursday night. Matchmaker Herman Taylor will send Eddie Moy, the hard-hitting Allentown lightweight, against Thompson. This means a take-out for Willis Spencer in the semifinal. The other bouts follow: Joe Dornier vs. Joe Staro and Otis Robinson vs. Sammy Robinson.

Low Tender, the new southpaw knockout king, will be an entertainer in Pennsylvania on Friday night. The match has been clinched by the Philadelphia promoter, who has booked Packer Hampey to meet Tender. Two other good bouts are on the same program.

Battling Letickey and Willis Mize will do a little battling on the outskirts of the Empire A. C. tonight before the Dempsey-Willard fray. The match has been clinched and now all that remains is the staking of the light heavyweight affair.

TILDEN TO DEFEND TITLES AT MERION

Germantown Star and Carl Fischer Will Face Strong Opposition in Doubles Event

WOMEN ARE PRACTICING

William E. Tilden, 24, of the Germantown Cricket Club, and Carl Fischer, of the Lower Merion School, will have to go some to keep their title as Pennsylvania state doubles champions this week in the state tourney at the Merion Cricket Club.

Last year Tilden and Fischer won the title after a series of grueling matches. This season, however, many of the stars who were unable to compete in this tourney for various reasons best accounted for by the war, will strive to dethrone Tilden and Fischer.

THIS TEAM IS FAST

Chief among those who are expected to give the present titleholders trouble are Wallace Johnson and Craig Biddle. Last month this team surprised the tennis world by giving Tilden and Richards, the sensational indoor and outdoor doubles champions, their first defeat.

Biddle and Johnson have been playing together for some time now and loom up as a formidable team for the national championship. Others who will force Tilden and Fischer are Percy Osborne and T. Smith, of Belfield, and the Edwards brothers.

Play in the singles event, of which Tilden also is the champion, will begin this afternoon at 3:45. Around fifty entries have been received. These include W. Halsey Wood, of the West Side Tennis Club, of New York; Craig Biddle, Wallace Johnson, Bill Rowland, Rodway Beck, Herman Dornheim, Dr. P. B. Hawk and Norman Swayne.

WILMINGTON TOURNAY

The women players the country over are now putting the finishing touches on their play in preparation for the national championships, which will be staged at the Philadelphia Country Club June 16.

This afternoon the tourney which determines the women's championship of the state of Delaware will begin on the sixteen turf courts of the Wilmington Country Club. Quite an attractive entry list has been received and the event will be closely contested.

The pairings for the Merion event follow: M. G. Miller, Jr., Penn. vs. Edmund Thayer, Philadelphia Cricket Club; Merion vs. DeLong, Penn. vs. E. G. Hoag, Merion; Fred Kitting, Philadelphia Country Club vs. Percy Vanneman, Jr., Wynwood; J. P. Twaddell, Merion, vs. Rodney Beck, Philadelphia Cricket Club; Stanley Rogers, Merion, vs. H. R. Nelson, Merion.

Louis S. De Long, Overbrook vs. A. D. Thayer, Philadelphia Cricket Club; Nelson Williamson, Wynwood, vs. Robert Schenk, Wynwood; Edna Biddle, Merion, vs. W. A. Lippincott, Philadelphia Cricket Club; R. A. March, Wynwood vs. Stanley W. Taylor, Philadelphia Cricket Club; J. C. Bell, Jr., Merion vs. Harvey Y. Lake, Philadelphia Cricket Club; Wallace F. Johnson, Merion, vs. W. D. Miller, Penn.

Rowland Evans, Merion, vs. H. W. Robinson, Merion; H. Dornheim, Belfield, vs. Thomas Smith, Belfield; J. Richards, Jr., Penn. vs. Martin Glynn, Philadelphia Cricket Club; Coleman S. Mills, Penn. vs. McKean Allen, Philadelphia Cricket Club; Samuel Swoille, Jr., Merion, vs. Percy Osborne, Belfield; W. E. Tilden, 24, Germantown, vs. Lawrence A. Brown, St. Elmo; T. D. Graetz, Merion, vs. J. G. Taylor, Penn.

Allen Evans, Jr., Merion, vs. Hugh S. Riddle, Atlantic City; J. S. Danton, Jr., Philadelphia Cricket Club, vs. R. C. Powell, Merion; Paul W. Gibbons, Plymouth, vs. W. P. Rowland, Merion; Carl Fischer, Wynwood, vs. T. H. Martin, Belfield; Halsey Wood, West Side, vs. J. D. Marten; Brooke Edwards, Merion, vs. T. W. Harz, Wilmington; Ed Roberts, Merion, vs. John K. Ewing, Merion; Carlton Shafer, Philadelphia Cricket Club, vs. Albert Cross, Wynwood; E. R. March, Wynwood vs. C. M. Harlan, Merion; E. M. Edwards, Merion, vs. Joseph J. Brown, Philadelphia Cricket Club; F. R. Hawk, Merion, vs. J. M. Vanneman, Jr., Wynwood; J. C. Crowdy; J. C. Willis, Belfield, vs. Roland Fenner, Penn. Lieutenant Commander Gatewood, Merion, vs. F. W. Pritchett, Merion.

BINGLES AND BUNGLES

Yesterday's hero—George Staler, the St. Louis star scored the first of four runs after doubling and drove in the second and won off Walter Johnson.

Guy Morton's single settled the Athletics in the ninth, 2 to 1.

The rain stopped the Reds after they pitched three innings with four runs, including a 4 to 1 defeat for the Brooklyn upstarts.

The mighty Alexander apparently is growing more so. He won from the Braves with nine runs to help him.

Frank Baker's home run was his first of the year, contributing to the Cubs' victory over the White Sox. Bob Shawkey pitched the hitless game.

Red Ames pitched his first game of the year, and turned back the Phillies, 6 to 3.

PHIL HARRISON, THE BOY WHO KNOCKED OUT DILON IN MEMPHIS A FEW WEEKS AGO, WILL TAKE ON CHUCK WIGGINS IN INDIANAPOLIS TONIGHT. Bud Christie, of Buffalo, another product of the Walsh-Lewis stable, engages Donnelly in the semi-final-up to the Harrison-Wiggins battle.

The second open-air show of the season at the Cambria A. C. will bring together Tim Dronoy, of Lancaster, and Whitey Fitzerald, who meet in the wind-up on Friday night. Kid Diamond and Walter Bentele clash in the semi-final. Other bouts follow: Pat O'Malley vs. Charles O'Sullivan; Rick Gardner vs. Jack Howie; and Johnny Duxan vs. Young Mack.

Battling Murray, following that hurried knock-out victory over Jack Wolpert at the Cambria last Friday night, now meets some real fighters. He wants to take on Joe Lynch if the rainy New York boy will make 116 pounds. This also applies to Herman if he will scale 116, indicts Murray.

Low Tender and George Chaney may meet again. Negotiations now are under way to have the stellar southpaw clash before a Baltimore crowd. Chaney surprised by the heavy knockout, has asked for another meeting.

Tom Gibbons and Billy Mize have been matched to battle ten rounds in Minneapolis on June 19.

Pete Herman who may meet Joe Burman in Baltimore in a championship bout on July 4 will have a workout in Newtown tonight. He meets Terry McHugh. Frank O'Connell and O'Brien will referee.

Billy Purrell, the efficient state timer, gave his self-second watch a workout on Franklin Field last Saturday. After the July 4 will have a workout in Newtown tonight. He meets Terry McHugh. Frank O'Connell and O'Brien will referee.

Tommy Walsh, the hustling promoter and manager, just has been directing his helpers in Memphis, Tenn. Walsh's watch is so well educated that it refused to run for the three minutes were up and he failed to click Raz in his effort to shatter the mile record.

HARRY DAVIS'S BASEBALL CLUB

THREE SPEEDBOYS SELECTED FOR ALL-STAR TENNIS TEAM

Gatson, Wood and Davis, of West Philadelphia High, Didn't Lose an Interscholastic League Match—Carl Fischer Is Star of the Season

HOW THE 1919 ALL-SCHOLASTIC TENNIS TEAMS WOULD LINE UP

First Team C. Fischer, Lower Merion, first singles; A. Morgan, Germantown High C. Watson, West Philadelphia, second singles; M. Miller, Penn Charter Wood, West Philadelphia, third singles; Kopp, Penn Charter Davis, West Philadelphia, fourth singles; Huff, Penn Charter Taylor and Wentz, Penn Charter, doubles; Bell and Green, West Phila.

By ROBERT T. PAUL

WEST PHILADELPHIA HIGH SCHOOL did not win the interscholastic tennis title this season, but it did outscore the championship Penn Charter team in regard to members being selected for the mythical all-scholastic league combination.

Three Speedboys, two Penn Charter and one Lower Merion star are honored with all-star selections. The Penn Charter selections are in the doubles, while the three West Philadelphia men are given berths in the singles.

It may seem somewhat of a surprise that not a single player of the Penn Charter championship team is selected, but such is the case. There could be no other way of picking the team, as not one of the men chosen lost a single match in the league games.

March Defeated Twice Roy March, the Penn Charter captain and first singles player, lost two matches, one to Charley Seltzer, of Frankford, and Andy Morgan, of Germantown High School. Milo Miller, who is given second singles on the second team, lost to Charley Watson, who lost to Charley Watson, playing second singles, Philadelphia, while Wood, of West Philadelphia, and Brooks Huff lost to Davis, also of West Philadelphia. These were the only reverses for Doctor Strong's proteges.

Carl Fischer, of Lower Merion, easily outclassed the other members of the Interscholastic League. In fact, he is one of the best junior players developed in this section for some time. This was demonstrated a short time ago, when he defeated Herman Dornheim and Rodney Beck, who have pre-

'Sandy McNiblick' Marries Demoiselle in Brussels

M. et Mme. Edmond Ramonoy ont l'honneur de vous faire part du mariage de Mlle. Sophie Allard, leur niece, avec le Lieutenant Percy Sanderson.

All of which means that Lieutenant Percy Sanderson, whose pen name as golf editor of the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER was "Sandy McNiblick," was married to Mlle. Sophie Allard, of Brussels, Belgium.

Lieutenant Sanderson has been with the American expeditionary forces for about two years.

The league pennant wasn't decided until virtually the last match of the season. West Philadelphia gave the Quakers a hard fight for the honors, losing out by only a small margin. In all, the players showed a decided improvement due to the fine coaching of Doctor Strong. William T. Tilden, Paul W. Gibbons and other seniors who found time to give some valuable points to the various teams.

Francis Quimet is said to be playing better than ever, and Brae Burn has been a familiar scene to him for years. Therefore, he will have a little advantage over the other amateurs. Charles (Chick) Evans, Jr., present titleholder, is also at the top of his game, but as much cannot be said of Jerome Travers, who has not been playing at all for a long time.

Travers, however, is one of those who plays brilliantly at times, whether or not he has had a club in his hands for months.

Man and Major Win New York, June 9.—Alec Man, Jr., and Eddie Major won the New Jersey state doubles title yesterday on the courts of the Municipal Athletic Club by defeating Harold A. Throckmorton and Lindsay Dunsen in the final round of the championship tournament, three sets to two, at 6-4, 2-6, 7-5, 3-6, 7-5.

Voshell Wins From Wright New York, June 9.—S. Howard Voshell, former Bronx county champion, won the invitation tennis tournament of the Westchester Country Club yesterday, defeating Dean C. Wright, former internationalist, in the final round of the singles, three sets to one, at 10-8, 6-3, 6-3.

Mayer Chosen Captain of Cornell Track Team

Ithaca, N. Y., June 9.—Kurt A. Mayer, of Brooklyn, regarded as one of the best intercollegiate middle distance runners, has been elected captain of the Cornell track team for next year. Mayer aided Cornell in winning the intercollegiate track championship at Cambridge a week ago by finishing first in the 440 and 880 yard runs.

T. C. McDermott, of Stoneham, Mass., was chosen captain of the cross-country team. McDermott finished third in the intercollegiate mile race, although returning to the university from overseas only a month ago.

NATIONAL OPEN GOLF DRAWS CLASSY FIELD

Evans, Travers, Quimet and Barnes Among Stars in Tourney Which Starts Today

PLAY ON BRAE BURN LINKS

New York, June 9.—In looking over the top-notchers entered for the national open golf championship tournament over the links of the Brae Burn Country Club, beginning today, it is difficult to pick out one player with any more of a chance than thirty others.

With past and present champions of every description listed to play, one of the most representative fields ever gathered will be seen in this tournament. Not long since a prominent amateur said:

"You can take the names of Jerome Travers, Francis Quimet, Charles Evans, Jr., Walter Hagen, Jim Barnes, Jack Hutchison, Mike Brady, Tom Kerrigan, Bob McDonald, Gil Nichols, Pat Doyle and a few others, mix them in a hat and pick one. That is as likely a way as any to guess who will lead with such a field of talent."

So far as choosing goes this is as good a solution as any, for most any one of the foregoing is as likely as not to win the title. There are few who believe that an amateur will "do the trick" this time, though when it is considered that out of the last four championships three have been won by "simon pures"—Most anything seems possible.

Francis Quimet is said to be playing better than ever, and Brae Burn has been a familiar scene to him for years. Therefore, he will have a little advantage over the other amateurs. Charles (Chick) Evans, Jr., present titleholder, is also at the top of his game, but as much cannot be said of Jerome Travers, who has not been playing at all for a long time.

Travers, however, is one of those who plays brilliantly at times, whether or not he has had a club in his hands for months.

JESS DOUBLES PRICE TO SEE HIM WORK OUT

Sunday's Crowd at Willard's Camp Nets Champ $1042 at Fifty Cents a Head

REFEREE STILL UNDECIDED

Toledo, O., June 9.—Jess Willard is scheduled to begin the second week of serious training today for his heavyweight championship contest with Jack Dempsey here July 4. The champion plans to increase his boxing until he has reached the twelve-round limit, the distance he is to travel against his youthful challenger.

Willard is gradually becoming acclimated and is finding it easier to breathe than when he started to work a week ago.

There was criticism heard in some quarters today because the champion doubled the price of admission yesterday to the persons who visited his training camp on the shores of Maumee bay. The champion charged fifty cents, instead of twenty-five cents, as on weekdays, and the only attendance was 2084, which netted $1042, more than enough to defray training expenses for a week.

Jack Kearns, manager of Dempsey, declined to take advantage of the Sunday throng and charged the customary twenty-five cents to see the challenger work out. There were 1000 paid admissions at the Dempsey camp.

Reports that Bill Brown, a New York referee, had been selected to referee the Independence Day contest were denied today.

Ship League Games Postponed All scheduled games of the Delaware River Shipyard League for yesterday were postponed on account of rain and wet grounds.
