By the Associated Press Berlin, June 10.—The national conat Weimar today marks the first meeting of the faction of Philipp Scheidemann, the chancellor, since it became the government party. The session promises to supply the acid test to the integrity of the party in view of the chronic unrest within the party's ranks. Notwithstanding the existence of the disaffected elements, the leaders are not disaffected elements, the leaders are not afraid of any serious break at Weimar. While none of the insurgents openly threatens to join the Independents moral encouragement in their campaign against the government.
