with the organization of the Point Pleasant Fishing Club, the revival of interest in the Point Pleasant Golf Club and with numerous projects underway for the creation of additional charms to enhance the resort's popularity as a watering place, the town has taken a new lense on life and is imbued with a desire to expand. A healthy sign is the forthcoming reorganization of the Board of Trade and the launching of many projects for the improvement of the borough.

Fishing Club Tale is "Fishy" The story of the organization and growth of the Fishing Club is perhaps the most phenomenal "fish tale" ever the most phenomenal "fish tale" ever spun. It is less than a year since two enthusiastic but not overly lucky nimrods dangled their line in the surfand wished that they had a fishing club in Point Pleasant. Since then the club has enrolled a membership which will probably exceed the 1000 mark when the charter membership rolls are closed on August 1, it has built a 400-foot fishing pier to which an extension of 300 feet more is being built now, it has provided comfortable lounging quarters for its members on the beach front and has arranged for the use of one of the resort's hotels for the accommodation of all members desiring to remain there for stays of short or long duration. The 300-foot desiring to remain there for stays of short or long duration. The 300-foot extension to the pier was made possible

Big Social Season Planned

Boating, bathing and fishing are to mentioned in connection with the myriad outdoor sports which are ateneting the attention of the young and active members of the summer colony already here, and while these activities tre speeding forward nuder a full head of steam plans are being formulated for the most interesting season of so-cial activities ever held here. Many of the important events are to be held for various worthy charities, and these affairs have always proven the most successful numbers in Point Pleasant,

As usual, the big hotels will be the mecca for the social leaders, and many of the importan events will find their ottages and hotels have been opened in large numbers and the summer program of sports is well under way despite the arly date upon which the activities have started. The next two weeks will see expected to develop many novel and interesting diversions both for the outdoors and the indoors.

Point Pleasant is eagely awaiting the completion of the inland waterway connecting Barnegat Bay and the Manasquan river. The stare board of commerce and navigation has recently contracted for another section of this waterway and every day the big deedges are working nearer to the northern goal. The canal will run only a short distance to the west of the resert a very popular rendevous for motor and sail-boat enthusiasts. But Point Pleas.

Although the official calendary of tourments have not been usinged in the cale of the important events will find their settings there. The Carrollton will open within a few days under distinctly new management. Christian Daft, of Woodhaven, L. L. will conduct the weell-known hotel.
