NIG CLARKE JOINS PHILS IN CHICAGO

Veteran Catcher, Late of Marine Corps, Relieves Cady in Fifth-Inning

COOMBS LOSES AGAIN

Chicago, Ill., June 11.—Mansner Jack Coombs springing a surprise when he sent a new catcher into the game to relieve Cady in the fifth inning yesterday. The announcer said it was Clarke and investigation proved that it was none other than the veteran Nig Clarke who was a rival of George Stone for batting honors in the American League when the St. Louis star was at the height of his fame. It seems Nig has been in the marine corps for two years and has just come back for baseball service.

The veteran certainly has his arm with him as accurately and as strong as ever. He can throw to bases and field like the best of them. In the sixth Max Flack tried to steal second. Clarke threw him out by foot and the ball came as straight as an arrow to St. Louis. He fielded a snortless punt by Barber in the seventh in lightning style and in the same round in his only chance at bat laid down a bunt in front of the plate and beat it into fine style. If his work yesterday is a fair sample, he is as good as ever and should be helpful.

Coombs Gets New Pitcher

A new pitcher was added to the Phil list in Murray, a college star from Notre Dame. He was started in the first of the series. Coombs is striking up material as he goes along and will have several newcomers to introduce when the team gets home.

Fred Mitchell tried some more of his well-known strategy to keep the Cubs hitting yesterday and got away with it again, taking the second battle 7 to 2. He is loosing his flock of infielders up on their toes by scolding them frequently. If he goes on one day and make good another man gets the job the next day. Mitchell apparently figuring they can't do twice in a row. Kidwell was hitting well at third and Lear at first. Out they came Deal and Meekle went back. Both are slugging now. Meekle got a triple and a single yesterday and Deal a double and a single.

McCabe cleaned the bases with a double Tuesday. Out he came and went. Kidwell. Pete killed a couple of hits by fence fielding, but no hits. He probably will be out tomorrow. Mann fell down miserably and Barber got his job yesterday. Barber made two singles.

Woody Is Knucked Out

Woodward started the game for the Phils and was knucked out in three rounds for a total of five runs and six hits. Barber, Deal and Pick accumulated doubles and Meekle a triple. He was left too late. George Smith came back for civilization and started the Cubs for three innings. Whitted batted for him and Gene Packard started in the seventh and was whaled for two more.

At this juncture a terrific thunder storm swept up behind the stand without anybody noticing it coming and emptied itself suddenly upon the populace, drenching players, field and spectators alike, so the game had to be suspended.

Chicago Chatter

Pink scored on a scintilla, well after the game. Woodward's effort hit the front corner of the rubber and homered ten feet over Cady's head to the stands.

Deal made a fine stab of a triple but Meekle in the ensuing round sent a promising Cub batting errors. Pink had a triple and Barber a double and Deal one when Meekle stood the slaughter.

Cub pitchers say they can't stop Cravath. They don't know what to do to him that he can't hit. Alexander says the Cub pitchers have tried everything. The Cub batter of Douglas's best performance was a triple in the second and another for a double in the third. The triple went to the right field that stops center field.

There was a debate over the double credited to Deal in the second. Williams credited the ball after a hard run and he got off balance to catch it even try to throw to second. He got into it third, but he was too late to get Deal's, who had been missed. As Deal kept going round-base of the three and Williams couldn't try for him, the double seemed legitimate enough, although officially scored a single.

Bingles and Bungles

Lefty Williams of the White Sox, trimmed the million-dollar Boston Red Sox, thereby killing off the golden goose that had grown eggs.

Hitting in the New York-Chicago battles on or free on desks after July 1. Each team got three. The Reds won 2 to 1.

The Cardinals reviewed an entire division of pitchers, ran out of replacements, and yielded to the Braves, 6 to 4.

An eight-inning let-up by Cady for Pittsburgh hand another, returning to Brooklyn, 3 to 2.

The Senators wore their plating clothes, and three pitchers couldn't prevent Cleveland from taking a 4 to 3 licking.

The New York Yanks fell upon Leonard for a third of seven runs, beating Detroit that much to none.

Meekle's Philadelphia got a lighter hold on the rubber and takes when St. Louis continued them 4 to 2.

Walter Hagen Wins Open Golf Honors

The Oakley professional began a streak of phenomenal putting which brought him within one stroke of Hagen at the fifteenth. He dropped long putts at the eleventh, twelfth and fourteenth. They lasted the fifteenth.

Brady took five at the sixteenth when his second was trapped, giving Hagen a two-stroke lead going to the seventeenth. Both played the hole badly. Brady in four to Hagen's five.

Hagen came to the home hole with a one-stroke lead and won the title when he holwed it in four.

A question over penalties developed and play was suspended for a time when United States Golf Association officials decided at the eleventh hole that Hagen was subject to a two-stroke penalty for moving a loose impediment on the fairly less than an inch from his ball. Hagen maintained that Brady had moved a stone which was close to his ball going to the ninth.

The officials stopped the match to measure Brady's lift and then decided not to penalize either player.

A slight breeze was stirring when the players teed off at the first hole. A large gallery watched the play.

The play by holes follows:

First hole, 357 yards, par 4; Brady 4, Hagen 5.

Hagen sliced his tee shot into the woods and his second was just over the brook. Brady went down the middle and approached thirty feet from the pin. Hagen's third left him a four-foot putt, which he missed. Brady's putt fell three feet short, but he sank on the next shot.

Second hole, 293 yards, par 4; Brady 6, Hagen 4.

Brady put his drive into the woods and was stayed by trees for his second. He played safe. Hagen was on in two, overran his putt, but sank his fourth. Brady hushed his third and was on in four, but took two more strokes for the hole.

Third hole, 375 yards, par 4; Brady 4, Hagen 4.

Hagen outdribe Brady by thirty yards. Both hit fine seconds to the green. Brady narrowly missed holing out in three.

Fourth hole, 293 yards, par 4; Brady 5, Hagen 6.

Hagen drove into the rough and his second topped a bunker beside the green. Brady's second was trapped, but he was well out on the third. Hagen's third ran over the green into a trap. His fourth was just on and he took six. Brady's fourth hit the cup, but would not sink.

Fifth hole, 558 yards, par 5; Brady 5, Hagen 5.

Both hit well into the wind and were on in three. Their long putts overran and each took five.

Sixth hole, 150 yards, par 3; Brady 4, Hagen 2.

Hagen hit a pretty mashie to within four feet of the pin and holod out in two. Brady's tee shot was fifteen feet from the hole. He overran his putt and missed a short third.

Seventh hole, 394 yards, par 4; Brady 4, Hagen 4.

Hagen outbit Brady by fifteen yards. Both shot their balls on the green. They ran long putts close and had easy birdies.

Eighth hole, 203 yards, par 3; Brady 4, Hagen 4.

Hagen drove to the far edge and

WALTER HAGEN
 Oakland Hills pro, who defeated Mike Brady for the national open golf championship.

Brady fell short. The local player's chip shot stopped three feet beyond the pin, while Hagen overran his putt by two feet. Each missed and took four.

Ninth hole, 299 yards, par 4; Brady, 5; Hagen, 4.

Brady looked into a sand trap and was well out but short of the hilltop green. He pitched on and took two putts. Hagen was on in two and down in two putts.

Divide the Tenth
 Tenth hole, 491 yards, par 5; Brady, 6; Hagen, 5.

Both drives were down the middle. Hagen's next was not well hit. His mashie was on. Brady hit a fine wood, but his third was too strong and his putt weak. He was down in it to Hagen's five.

Eleventh hole, 442 yards, par 5; Brady 3; Hagen 4.

Brady hit a long second to the green and sank his putt for a 3; Hagen required four.

Twelfth hole, 385 yards, par 4; Brady 3; Hagen 4. Both drove down the middle and were on in two. Brady sank a long putt for a three. Hagen took two putts.

Thirteenth hole, 190 yards, par 3; Brady 4, Hagen 4.

Fourteenth hole, 550 yards, par 5; Brady 4; Hagen 5. Both were on with regulation drives, brassies and approaches. Brady sank his third long putt for a four and narrowed Hagen's margin. Brady's putt when the latter required two putts.

Even on Fifteenth
 Fifteenth hole, 311 yards, par 4; Brady 4; Hagen 4.

Brady looked into the rough and played for over the green. Hagen's approach was seven feet from the pin. Brady recovered to within seven feet from the pin. Hagen putted first and missed, then Brady sank.

Sixteenth hole, 409 yards, par 4; Brady 5; Hagen 4.

Brady's second just reached the green. Brady put his mashie into a deep trap at the right and his out was short. Hagen's putt was too strong and left him five feet away. Brady nearly sank his putt, but was down from the edge in five. Hagen made a four.

Seventeenth hole, 255 yards, par 3; Brady 4; Hagen 5. Hagen sliced into the woods and Brady looked to the rough. Both played over into traps. Brady's third was dead. Hagen had a long putt and took 5. Brady was down in 4.

Eighteenth hole, 100 yards, par 3; Hagen 4; Brady 4. Hagen topped his tee shot, but the ball rolled just beyond the rough. Brady was down the middle. Hagen and Brady were both short in two. Hagen's chip left him a two-foot putt. Brady hid his head. Hagen then sank his putt for the championship.

Row Four Miles
 Yale Oarsmen Have Good Work-Out on Thames
 Gales Ferry, Conn., June 12.—The Yale crews found the water smooth when they went on the Thames late yesterday for their second period of practice. Coach Abbott sent the varsity shell down the river for two miles and then back. A twenty-six stroke was used nearly all of the distance. No time was taken.

PHILA. GOLFERS MADE SHAWNEE FAVORITES

Styles, George Hoffer and Sid Sharwood Leading at Start of Qualifying Round

LINKS ARE IN GREAT SHAPE

By SPICK HALL.

Shawnee-on-Delaware, Pa., June 12.—In spite of the big field of metropolitan cranks who tricked out of the Buckwood Inn this morning to tee off in the annual tournament for the Buckwood golf trophy, Philadelphia's representatives on the links were favorites, even after several of the Quaker City experts had speed their opening shots.

Their stock for ultimate victory did not wane largely because of the names of Eddie Styles, Old York Road; Geo. Hoffer, Bala; Sid Sharwood, Merion, and Jimmy Gray, Cricket Club, appeared to uphold the going honors of Bill Penn's pet city.

When the first pair teed off this morning a light mist hung over the upper reaches of the Delaware river and spread over the valley. Under this canopy of humid haze began the march in the qualifying round and the battle for the trophy in medal play.

Some time before the final pair had been called up to the initial tee the sun had split through the haze and in a short time it had dissolved and left the perfect fairways and well-groomed greens in perfect condition for the G.P.'s biggest sporting event of the year.

Every summer the battle for the Buckwood trophy virtually resolves itself into a tilt between the New Yorkers and Philadelphians. So it is this year. Yesterday, last night and this morning there was really more speculation as to which city would win the coveted trophy than there was discussion on the prospects for the chances of any individual.

Hoffer Plays
 Among those upon whom the Philadelphians are basing their hopes for victory is George Hoffer. After the excellent play of Charney Hoffer, Philmont, in the open trophy contest yesterday, his brother George is looked upon by many as better than a long shot to play against the field.

It is true that Hoffer and Styles were beaten here yesterday in a practice match against two of New York's cranks, E. L. Bloodgood, Cherry Valley, and C. Van Clief, Nassau, but that does not alter the fact that both Philadelphians were decidedly off their game and are certain to do better work today and the following two days than they did yesterday.

Only the preliminaries were scheduled for today. Tomorrow the first and second rounds will be run off, while the semi-finals and finals will be cleaned up Saturday in time for all the contestants to catch a late train for New York or Philadelphia.

Delaware Final Today
 Miss Townsend, of Merion, Meets Mrs. J. S. Taylor
 Wilmington, June 12.—The final of the women's championship for the state of Delaware will be played at the Wilmington Country Club this afternoon between Miss Anne Townsend, of the Merion Cricket Club, and Mrs. J. Saunders Taylor, of the Wilmington Club. Mr. Peter Wright will referee.

Wesleyan Loses to Yale
 New Haven, June 12.—Yale won on the diamond here yesterday from Wesleyan, 6 to 3.

Sir Barton Likely to Win $100,000 This Year

New York, June 12.—If no ill luck befalls Sir Barton he is likely to seriously threaten Colin's great record for earnings, the last of the $100,000 three-year-olds. Yesterday's victory in the Belmont stakes netted Commander Ross $11,000. Victories in the Derby, Preakness and Withers had already accounted for $33,000—making a grand total for the year of $64,500 for Sir Barton.

WILLARD DRAWS LINE ON SPARRING PARTS

Refuses to Box With Negroes and Others Because of Personal Reasons

SO CHAMP IS HANDICAPPED

Toledo, O., June 12.—Jess Willard is suffering a shortage of sparring partners.

There are numerous glove wielders of a dark shade, probably all of them willing to stand up and swap wallops with Jess for a compensation, but he draws the color line. Likewise there are a few good heavyweights willing to do the same thing, but Jess either bears them a personal grudge or figures them not worth while.

As a result of this condition Willard is not getting into the best of condition, while Jack Dempsey, using the two negroes, Bill Tate and Jamaica Kid, is in the very best of shape right now, ready to step into the ring and fight the fight of his life on a moment's notice.

Dempsey did no sparring yesterday, because of the bad slash he received over his eye, but he went around his open air ring at shadow boxing with shell speed as to draw the favorable comment of the spectators. His eye really looks bad.

Willard boxed six rounds yesterday, three each with Walter Monahan and Jack Hoppel. He started to box with Soldier Stanton, the youth he almost knocked out a short time ago and then changed his mind.

Here is REAL Endorsement of an Auto Lock

THE Underwriters' Laboratory has formally approved the F. O. B. Auto Lock. Their endorsement is given only after exhaustive tests, and for good reasons. Having approved the F. O. B. Auto Lock they authorize a 15% reduction in theft insurance premiums for cars so equipped.

That is, you save 15% on your theft insurance with an F. O. B. on your car. You do more; you save your car. With high prices and a good car hard to buy, you want to keep yours. Insurance won't help you; the F. O. B. will.

F.O.B. COMBINATION AUTO LOCK

Houdini and Jimmy Valentine together couldn't move your car with an F. O. B. holding it. It locks the wheels in a straight line; but not with a key. No! With a safe combination. F. O. B. Can't be picked. Skeleton keys won't work. The only way to move an F. O. B. locked car is, blast! You, an owner, know the combination. Turn the knob like a safe door: 5-8-7. Then shove the starter and your car moves off.

Startling Statistics About Organized Theft

Do you know that for every hour on the clock, day in and day out through the year, four automobiles are stolen? That each day at sunset 96 more automobiles have passed from their owners' hands—by theft!—That in Philadelphia alone 900 automobiles have been stolen in the last 8 months—more than three every day? Of the stolen cars less than 14% were recovered.

How about your car!
