GIRARD TRUST IN

Letters of Administration Are Granted to Bank and Former Sheriff Gilfillan

FEAR ESTATE MIGHT SUFFER

Preparatory to the opening of a legal Wellshman Bartol, contestants to the me now." will agreed that letters of administration be granted to the Girard Trust Company and former Sheriff Joseph Gilfilan. The letters were granted by Register Sheehan after security in the amount of $1,000,000 had been entered by the trust company.

The move was made because of the fear that the estate might suffer during the course of the litigation, which it is feared will be drawn out over a possible period of years. It will result from the wider." peculiar provisions of the will, by which great portion of the Bartol estate is iven to the Franklin Institute in this city for the establishment of an insti-tution for electrical research work.

Mr. Bartel, who was one of the original members of the Committee of One Hundred, and active in the reorganiza-tion of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway Company, amassed his for-tune in sugar refining and investments For a number of years he resided in Nice, France, but made frequent trips to this country. He died at the Union League on December 17 last year. The will, which was offered for probate in this city, early in Jan-uary, was confronted by a caveat which had been filed by two daughters, Mrs. James M. Farr, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and the Baroness Kalheren de Mon-clos, Paris, France, protesting against the probate of any paper alleging to be the will of their father.

Under the provisions of this instru-ment, the two sisters and a brother, Henry G. Bartol, would receive only about $5000 each from an estate of $100,000 located in France.

Our most intimate friend, the one we fly to when worn out mentally and physically; the one that never minds how much we stretch and yawn in its presence; the one that rests, stimulates and invigorates us is—our bed, equipped with a Hair Mattress and Box Springs from the H. D. Dougherty Faultless Bedding Co., 1632 Chestnut Street. At no time in the history of man has there been a more comfortable, sani-tary, or durable form of bedding. Feather mattresses may have seemed so, but were most unhealthy, lacking one of the conspicuous qualities of horsehair—resiliency, which allows air to penetrate every fiber, repelling impurities, preventing the retention of moisture and odors so prevalent in other kinds of mattresses in warm weather, and insuring cool slumbers.

Now they are more sensible, but if some continue to swelter there isn't much sympathy floating around, for every child knows all they need do is to get into tropical garments and realize what summer comfort means. and at Jacob Reed's Sons, 1424-26 Chestnut Street, there are many tropical-weight coat-and-trouser suits of genuine Palm Beach Cloth, Summer Worsteds, Ereezeweave, Aerpore, Mohair, Linen or Silk.

WEATHERPROOF Rugs for decorating porches are a positive essential in a climate such as ours, as no laws can make us an absolutely "dry" country, and dragging the floor coverings indoors at every change of weather is decidedly inconvenient. However, if Japanese Fiber Rugs are used all worriment ceases, as they are intended for the purpose and are durability itself. At Fritz & La Rue, 1124 Chestnut Street, they carry a most comprehensive stock of the genuine product, all of the best quality. There are round, oval, or square rugs, in the natural shade, or enlivened by colors, and the weaves and sizes are quite as varied. As for the names: Samara, Kobe, Yama, Tatsuta, and Alpha Tea, they are suggestive of the land of the Carry Blossom, stately Samurai, and dainty little ladles.
