THE WAR ROMANCE OF THE SALVATION ARMY

Commander Evangeline Booth and Grace Livingston Hill

A stirring heart-touching romance get it, begin it, you'll read every word and wish there was more. "The narrative is simple and direct, what the Salvation Army service meant to the soldier boys, the appeal inherent in its unstinting personal service straight from the heart, undaunted by difficulties and utterly regardless of danger or death. And consequently THE BOOK HAS A FASCINATION PECULIARLY ITS OWN."—NEW YORK TIMES.

"Inner history of the war made public. England in uproar over sensational disclosures in Viscount French's book."-Press Dispatch.

"1914," The Memoirs of

MARSHAL VISCOUNT FRENCH

Introduction by Marechal Foch

The complete, uncensored and authoritative account by Viscount French of the operations of the British armies under his command during 1914, including the retreat from Mons, the battles of the Marne and Aisne, the siege of Antwerp, and the first Battle of Ypres.

Here at last are the real facts from which the final history of the war will be written. America will be stirred as was England by the startling disclosures of this first war book by a commanding general of the Allies. Frontispiece and maps, $6.00 net.

The new interest in Russia and Russian processes of thought is doubtless responsible for the decision of the publishers to issue a new and revised edi-tion of Marie Bashkirtseff's famous journal, which was the literary sensa-tion of the year when it first appeared. The edition now offered is a retranslation, with additions from the original manuscript, which did not appear in the earlier American editions.
