All Ready to Start the New Week Right at Wanamaker's

The Pre-eminence of That Old Flag of Ours Which George Washington and Betsy Ross created in a humble home on Arch street, in this city, is more and more apparent every day.

It is the Chief Fact of This Hour the World Over

In later years, that flag of ours has been recognized and given an equal place beside the flags of other nations, being the representative of a new empire; but it was to many only the picturesque flag of a young and growing nation. A new day has dawned, a new glory has come and a mighty baptism of power has fallen upon the American flag.

To the soldier and sailor boys, it is evidently a living thing.

You saw that yourself, did you not, when the returning men proudly filed past you with the colors, their bright eyes shining as they gazed upon the flag that they had glorified on the field of battle?

It seemed as if they were thinking and saying softly:

"That Old Sweetheart of Mine"

Don't you believe that in the long, lonely hours in shell holes and dugouts, these men wept over and kissed the dear old thing that they were living for and ready to die for?

The American colors and its field of stars are now more than a mere symbol.

That starry flag is today the greatest constellation in the skies of all the nations on the globe.

The American Flag

It is bigger than any territory, more powerful than any political party, and its principles link it to a religion of duty and life broader than any creed.

To love it and be for what it stands is next to the love of God.

[Signed]

Paris Blouses

A BATISTE at $15 has hand hemstitching; a voile at $37.50 has broad collar with real filet; another batiste at $22.50 has fine tucks and Valenciennes edgings on its short Tuxedo collar; and one at $27.50 has a solidly tucked collar and squares of drawn work which are marvels of hand work.

These are just a few among the lovely things in the French Room. The collection is at its finest just now and prices run from $15 to $85.

(Third Floor, Chestnut)

Inspired by This Month of Roses the Newest Hats Are Flower Trimmed

AND with roses, of course, in most instances!

There are lovely hemp hats in the new broad-brimmed shapes, wreathed with roses. There are delicate, lacy hair hats with rich-hued blossoms to lend added charm. There are creamy Leghorns with flowers and soft frills of pale crepe. There are dainty pink silk hats, some with straw facings and flowers for trimming.

(Second Floor, Chestnut)

They are hats to wear to garden parties, to June weddings and receptions—hats in which to look one's prettiest, for they are youthful and gay and lovely, every one.

Prices start at $20.

Women's Silk Scarf-Wraps Just Here From England

Silk scarfs and wraps are very scarce today, especially the imported kinds. Women who want such things for shore and mountain wear and who have been disappointed by the lack of variety in town will be glad to know of this importation.

Large crepe de chine scarf-wraps with fringed ends and in a beautiful range of colors, $15 each.

Fine elastic silk scarfs in pretty colors at $20.

At $8 and $10 is a little group of elastic silk scarfs that would be nearly double these prices but for the fact that they are slightly imperfect.

(First Floor, Market)

Women's New Brogue Oxfords in Light Tan Calfskin

These are extremely smart shoes with long wing tips, long vamp, military heels and much performance and saw-tooth punching.

They are in that good light shade of tan calfskin which was so scarce earlier in the season and has recently been so much in demand by women of fashion.

Price $13.

Cool White Stuffs for the Coming Weather

Here are the cottons for Summer blouses, for children's clothes, for women's frocks and separate skirts.

Plain white voiles are 20c to $1.50 a yard.

Novelty voiles, 35c to $1.75 a yard.

Tricolette Novelty Dresses for Women—$50 to $120

CHARMING affairs in lovely colorings—the new Chartreuse, which is a curious greenish-golden-gray, as its name would suggest, the lovely rose and flesh tones, the silvery grays, steels and tans, the white, and pale and deeper blues. Also there are the stronger hues like navy and henna and black.

Some chat dresses have skirts and panel waistcoats of white, with coats of pink or corn color; certain chemise dresses have long panels of heavy embroidery; others have organdie collars. The Chinese coat is in evidence and so is a new cut-up blouse. One of the prettiest features is the use of two tones of the same color—for instance, a Chinese coat of Chartreuse has border and collar of a deeper shade.

Prices are $50 to $120.

N.B. Some of these tricolettes are Paulettes.

The Charm of Summer Loveliness in Young Women's New Afternoon and Evening Gowns

ONE of the prettiest new frocks is of white crepe Georgette with a collar crossed in surplice fashion and made of white moire ribbon, and the skirt is flounced and finished with these same moire bands. It is $35.

But there are any number of new crepe gowns in white or flesh pink—some lace trimmed, some quite simple with tucks and pleats, some with round necks and the new draped sleeves.

Just as new are the evening gowns—quite a few of dotted net in white or deep blue or black, some of vivid hues, like that charming one of watermelon pink, and some of soft satins in lovely colors.

$25 to $58.50—and 14 to 20 year sizes.

(Second Floor, Chestnut)

Certain Coats and Capes Never Reduced Until Now

We have at last decided to lessen the prices, and it is an especially good opportunity for women who are fortunate enough to get these beautiful garments.

They are odds and ends of fine velours, some with duvetyne collars, tailored covert cloths and tricotines, herring bone and tweeds. There are a few in dark colors, but the majority are the fashionable medium shades. Mostly fancy silk linings, the rest plain silks or satins.

These are such staple coats that women can wear them on many occasions during the Summer and the first thing in the Fall. They are now $47.50 to $65.

(First Floor, Central)

"Misers' Bags" Are Having a Vogue

"Miser's bag" is the name applied to that style of long, double-ended knitted bag which our grandmothers carried and which have periodically returned to fashion.

The newest variation has only one compartment and slips over the wrist with a ring below. It is made of crocheted silk and ornamented with cut steel beads and fringe. Some are plain black with steel beads, and others have blue or red bands crocheted across them. The price is $28.50.

Large double-end "miser bags" at $45.

(Main Floor, Chestnut)

Fine Corsets—Exclusive Parisiennes

They are the last word of perfection in corset making, and they ought to be—the materials are of the finest and prettiest, all carefully tested, so that they will keep their shape; the trimmings are specially designed; the models are the result of much patient consideration.

Some particularly cool sorts recently unpacked are—

A pink silk tricot with very few bones and those stripped with satin, $21.

A pink dotted batiste with low top and long skirt, $12.50.

A plain pink batiste well boned, with girdele top, $10.50.

A riding corset of pink dotted batiste. Short skirt, insert of elastic at waist extending over hips, light boning, $10.

Prices $1.25, $1.75 and $2.

(Third Floor, Chestnut)

10,000 Yards Printed Voile Special at 38c a Yard

THIS is such a large shipment of these popular voiles that it contains about 40 styles and many of the larger foulard patterns that are so desirable.

(West Aisle)

There are also the smaller checks and figures and the color range is very good, indeed.

Women's Oil Silk Raincoats Have Come At Last

THERE never was such a pretty and altogether satisfactory raincoat devised before, and how women do like them!

Not the least of their virtues is that they have almost no weight and one can fold them up in a very small space to take motoring, boating or on a trip to the shore.

Two new styles of coats; one has a raglan shoulder, at $20, the other a set-in sleeve with larger armhole and collar, at $22.50.

Also this year there is a very pretty cape style, quite long and with a vest. It is moderately priced at $25.

By the way, all these prices are just about what they were last year.

(First Floor, Central)

More Pink Nightgowns

have come into the Store of Undermaulins and particularly cool and pretty they are, with shirrings and casings, and in some instances delicately colored hand embroidery.

Prices $1.25, $1.75 and $2.

It Is Good Business to Buy Dinner Sets in This June China Sale

Even since the Sale began, French dinner sets have gone up and there is little or no likelihood of any reduction in costs for a long time.

We do not want to scare anybody into buying—we are merely keeping people informed as to conditions. It may be that people already realize these conditions and probably that is why we are selling dinner sets in such great quantities.

At any rate, we are selling them. We don't believe we have ever sold so many to newly married couples.

But no matter how many we sell, we always seem to have an abundance of others.

The selections are fine, the wares are of standard quality and the prices lower than they are likely to be for a long time on such large assortments.

French china dinner sets special at $32.50 to $175.
English semi-porcelain dinner sets special at $25 to $100.
American semi-porcelain dinner sets special at $10 to $40.
Japanese china dinner sets special at $35 to $75.

Fine cut glass—thousands of pieces—at $1 to $400 a piece, regularly one-third to one-half more.
