COLD STORAGE BILL, MUCH AMENDED, TO PASS, SAYS M'CAIN

Many of Objectionable Features of Original Draft of Measure to Be Removed

TWO "JOKERS" CAUGHT; MAY GET 12-MONTH CLAUSE

Colonel Sees Greater Protection for Public and More Liberal Chance for Dealers

By GEORGE NOX M'CAIN

Special Correspondent Evening Public Ledger Harrisburg, June 16.—The cold storage bill will become a law this week.

As originally presented in the Senate it was not only a cold-storage bill but a cold-blooded proposition.

In its final garb the bill will present a different appearance. It will be amended in accordance with up-to-date knowledge of food refrigeration, and it will make certain concessions to the cold storage people.

When perfected along these lines I understand that it will have the full endorsement of Dr. Rasmussen, secretary of agriculture, which it now lacks.

Millions of dollars are invested in the business and it will be but a few years before additional millions are invested.

Under the measure as originally offered it would have been possible for conscienceless dealers to have stored in those warehouses by the side of edible commodities partly decomposed or putrescent food wholly unfit for human consumption.

The knavish plan was made that the stuff could be disposed of for fertilizer. The transparency of the subterfuge is self-apparent; storage charges alone would make it the highest priced fertilizer in the world, and not worth the price.

When dressed poultry reaches a certain stage of unfitness for food it becomes slimy and viscous. It can be kept for quite a while, and if frozen its unwholesomeness is not apparent. It has the appearance of and readily sells for good cold-storage food.

"No article of food intended for human consumption shall be placed, received or kept in any cold-storage warehouse if knowingly diseased, tainted, etc."

"Knowingly" is the joker. The joker was concealed in the word "knowingly," which would have permitted an autocratic load of decaying food to be driven through its provision.

Neither did the measure prohibit the sale of outworn or unwholesome food. There were several other choice samples of phrase-juggling which were dispensed in an amendment of four brief lines, imperative and unmistakable as to their meaning which now appear in the bill, namely:

"It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to place in any cold-storage warehouse, to keep therein or to sell, offer or expose for sale any diseased, tainted or otherwise unwholesome food."

The present law enacted in 1913 provides that beef may be kept in cold storage for four months; pork, sheep and lamb six months; veal three months; dressed and drawn fowl five months; undrawn ten months; eggs eight months; and butter and fish nine months.

The new bill proposed a fixed term of twelve months for all foods. Well and good; but not content with asking this extension the makers secreted another Senegambian in the ensuing section:

"Provided, however, that upon application of the director of the Bureau of Foods may grant permission to extend the period of storage (beyond twelve months) if the goods in question are found to be in condition for further storage," etc.

Dangers Led to Recall It would be possible under this section, which still remains in the bill.

Can't Have Treaty Now, Wilson Tells Senate

Washington, June 16.—(By A. P.)—President Wilson, responding to the Senate resolution asking for the complete text of the peace treaty, advised the Senate through the State Department today that he did not consider it in the public interest to transmit the treaty text at this time because it was incomplete and many delicate points were under negotiation.

CORTLEYOU SOUGHT AS DETECTIVE HEAD

Rotan, Under Reorganization, Offers Post of Bureau Chief to Postal Inspector

ASKS SECRET SERVICE PLAN

James T. Cortleyou, former chief postal inspector in this city, has been asked to accept the post of chief of detectives in the reorganization of the district attorney, Rotan's, office.

District Attorney Rotan appeared before the finance committee, of Councils, this afternoon and announced that the organization of his new special force of detectives will be started immediately.

Moves to block the reorganization at this time were side-stepped by Mr. Rotan, although he agreed to delay the appointment of the four assistant attorneys now allowed by law.

The Daix bill, recently passed by the Legislature, provided for sixteen detectives and the four assistants in the district attorney's office.

With Banking Concern Mr. Cortleyou is now engaged with a banking concern at a salary which is said to be more than double that scheduled for the chief of the District Attorney's new force.

Mr. Rotan and Mr. Cortleyou are now in conference at City Hall.

When the district attorney appeared before the finance committee, Joseph P. Gaffney, chairman, first suggested that he delay the organization until after the summer months, in view of the fact that only once court sits during that time.

A suggestion that some of the present employees of the district attorney's office be "promoted" in the re-organization, also made by Chairman Gaffney, will be considered, Mr. Rotan said.

"I desire to pattern my new force after the secret service," the district attorney said. "Many of my present men are more like clerks."

Mr. Rotan's office are Vare men. So is Mr. Gaffney.

Ask for $30,000 The district attorney left Councils' chamber to confer in his office "with a man selected as chief of detectives at a salary of $40,000."

CHARTER WILL PASS TODAY OR TOMORROW, DECLARES PENROSE

Speedy Passage of All Philadelphia Measures Also Predicted by Senator

Harrisburg, June 16.—Philadelphia legislation now pending in the Assembly, including the Woodward charter bill and the Daix-Brady registration ripper, Senator Penrose said this afternoon, would be put through the Legislature tonight or tomorrow without further amendment of any consequence.

The senator reached Harrisburg late last night after a speaking trip through central Pennsylvania. He expects to leave here Wednesday for Washington.

"I hope to have all the Philadelphia bills pass the Legislature tonight or tomorrow," he said. "It is well understood that the bills are not to be amended further."

Some minor amendments to the charter bill will be presented in the Senate tonight to clarify the legal side of the measure. Then it will be sent to a conference committee to adopt these amendments.

Senator Vare announced Saturday that no further opposition would be offered to the bill. Slight amendments are also expected to be made to the Daix-Brady measure, which is now in a conference committee, five of the six members of which are Vare men.

Senator Penrose is the only anti-Vare member of the Senate.

FOES OF LEAGUE TO TRAIL WILSON AROUND 'CIRCLE'

Will Try to Neutralize Effect of Executive's Direct Appeal

BORAH AND JOHNSON MAY BE CHIEF DEBATERS

Many Cities Try to Obtain President for July Fourth

APRECIATION FROM PARIS

Senators Walsh and Robinson Are Thanked for Defending Covenant

By the Associated Press Washington, June 16.—President Wilson on his return home will tour the country speaking in support of the league of nations.

Secretary Tumulty has completed a tentative itinerary for the trip.

Announcement that the President would tour the country served to revive rumors at the capital that opponents of the league of nations might force the Senate into three-day recesses so they could go to the country at the same time.

Regardless of whether the recess plan is adopted, opponents expect to send out speakers to answer the President.

Senators Borah, Republican of Idaho, and Johnson, Republican of California, were among those mentioned as likely to be selected.

The President today cabled his appreciation of recent addresses of Senators Walsh, of Montana, and Robinson, of Arkansas, supporting the league.

Names of the cities to be visited by the President in his "swing around the circle" were not made public.

He invited him to speak on July 4, it was said at the White House today, and a particularly pressing invitation came from St. Louis.

Replying to an invitation from Senator Swanson that he attend a celebration at Richmond on July 30, President Wilson cabled his thanks and said he did not know how this would coincide with the itinerary arranged by Secretary Tumulty, but that his visit there should not interfere with the country's understanding of the peace treaty and the league covenant.

BUGS WERE NOT INVITED But They Hold "Convention" Every Night, So Citizen Seeks Aid of Law

In view of the city ordinance which provides for the elimination of nuisances and also for the preservation of public health, Harry Wolf, 3711 North Sixth street, will institute legal proceedings to enforce the removal of a brigade of mysterious-looking bugs from his front step.

They come, uninvited, every night and hold a convention, says Mr. Wolf. They are attracted, he says, by a light in front of a nearby tailor shop.

Mr. Wolf applied to Magistrate Carson today to see what he could do about it. He was advised to see a lawyer. He will.

BEEF PRICES DROP

Six and Eight Cents Lower Today, Vegetables, Too, Decline

There was a drop of six to eight cents a pound in the price of beef today. A decrease in the price of other meats is expected to follow later.

Pot roasts were twenty-two instead of twenty-eight cents a pound. Pan roasts were twenty-seven cents instead of thirty-five and other kinds of beef were similarly affected.

The reduction is due to many causes. A representative of Ritterhouse Brothers, who conducts a chain of stores in West Philadelphia and in the suburbs, said the drop in beef prices was due to the fact that less beef was being sent to the soldiers in camp.

There was also a decrease in the cost of vegetables. New potatoes dropped from thirty to twenty cents a quarter.

GUARD REAL GUY, SURF 'NUF

He Didn't Make 'Em "Cut Out That Stuff"

They sat on a bench in Washington Square, unaware that other folks were there.

She wore a waist with a faint pink check, her careless arm enwrapped his neck.

"No vampin' here," said a guard, quite rough. "So youse two please cut out that stuff."

"In two hours more we'll both be wed," the pretty maiden coyly said.

"Then," said the guard, "your game's quite fair."

And they spooned on the bench in Washington Square.

LEFTY WILLIAMS IN BOX AGAINST A'S

Former Shipyard Southpaw Pitches for White Sox at Shibe Park

Shibe Park, June 15.—"Lefty" Williams, who did considerable pitching in the Shipyard League last summer, faced the dizzy A's for "Kid" Gleason and the White Sox in the second of the series here this afternoon.

Harry Seibold was Mack's hurling selection. Harry has been flinging good ball of late. "Cy" Perkins did the catching.

Fred Thomas, the A's veteran third sacker, injured his left hand in fielding practice prior to the contest and the game was delayed until Doctor Ebling wrapped the mitt in tape.

Fred has had a lot of tough luck with his hand this season. With the exception of the early days of the campaign, Fred has been wearing some sort of a black and blue decoration on his talons all season.

First Inning Leibold singled to left. Collins sacrificed, Seibold to Burns. With the hit and run sign out, Weaver missed the ball and Leibold was caught going to third, Perkins to Thomas. Weaver tripled down the right field foul line. Jackson scored Weaver on a single to center. Jackson stole second. Gandill bled to Walker. One run, three hits, no errors.

Witt was thrown out by Weaver. Thomas bled to Leibold. Roth lined to Jackson. No runs, no hits, no errors.

WOODWARD VS. ADAMS IN PITTSBURGH GAME

Sicking Takes Pierce's Place in Coombs's Line-Up—Harry Is Spiked

Forbes Field, Pittsburgh, Pa., June 16.—The members of the Philadelphia team were in better physical shape when they took the field this afternoon than they have been on the western trip.

The day of rest yesterday helped some of them to get rid of the stiffness in their joints, and in the practice period today they exhibited the old-time vim and snap that characterized them last year.

Manager Coombs had his mind made up to pitch young Woodward in the streak that he would break the losing streak that has followed them on this trip and he was sent in to buck up against the twirling of Adams for the Pirates.

Pierce was unable to play on account of being spiked on Saturday and Sicking went to short in his place.

AUTO AFIRE; MAN BURNED

Machine Blazes in Garage—Attendant Now in Hospital

Clarence Keyser, sixty-eight years old, is in the Episcopal hospital today suffering from burns about the hands and face received when an automobile caught fire in a garage at 2701 Kensington avenue.

The automobile is owned by Henry E. Strathmann, a coal man, of 2434 North Sixth street. It is thought Keyser attempted to move the automobile and in some manner the machine caught fire.

DROP CIVILIAN RULE OF LEFT BANK OF RHINE

Revised Terms Will Be Given to Teutons at 6 P. M.—Special Train Ready

FOE MUST SIGN RECEIPT TO MARK 5-DAY LIMIT

Envoys Expected to Hasten to Weimer Upon Receiving Document

MAY SEEK MORE TIME

Expected to Base Plea on Fact of Getting Only One Copy of Terms

Versailles, June 16.—(By A. P.)—The Allied reply to the German counter-proposals was delivered by Paul Dutasta, general secretary of the Peace Conference, to Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, head of the German peace delegation, at 6:49 o'clock this evening.

This is a postponement from 4 o'clock, the hour originally set. The revised treaty will be delivered with the reply.

The provision for civil control of the territory on the left bank of the Rhine which had been tentatively agreed upon was eliminated from the third draft of the terms.

The German plenipotentiaries will sign a receipt for the treaty, writing up at the exact time from which the five days' limit within which they must sign or reject the document will date.

Paul Dutasta, secretary of the Peace Conference, will take the revised treaty personally to Versailles to hand it to the Germans.

The Allies have promised Germany to deliver within one month a list of persons whom they intend to try for the responsibility for the war and violation of the laws of war.

Editors and printers worked throughout the night and this forenoon in a feverish effort to complete the reply. At 5 o'clock this morning corrections were still being made, but it was stated that the delivery of the document this afternoon was assured.

DELIVERY NOT IN TREATY FORM

The delivery, however, it developed later this morning, will not be in printed form. It was found that there was not time to complete the printing of the revised document. Therefore Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau will be handed one copy of the original treaty with the changes written in red ink. With this will be handed the German plenipotentiary ninety-nine other copies of the treaty, upon which they can make the corrections themselves from the first.

It is expected generally that the Germans will ask for an extension of time in which to reply to the final peace conditions. The request probably will be based on the fact that the Teutons are allowed only one revised copy of the treaty.

This copy is printed in French and English. It must be translated and printed before it is given to the National Assembly at Weimar, where several copies will be made.

U. S. OMITTS LIQUOR TAX

Drops Saloon and Brewery Levy, Indicating Early "Dry" Nation

Evidence that the federal authorities feel confident the country is to become bone-dry on July 1 is found today in the fact that the internal revenue department has omitted the usual special tax assessments of $25 a year on breweries and saloons.

Under ordinary circumstances this tax would already have been levied. With the failure of the government to collect it goes almost the last hope of the liquor interests of modification of the dry legislation.

This also is the last day for the payment of income taxes, both individual and corporate. Collector Ephraim Lederer has sent out 60,000 bills, and today there were only 9000 whose accounts with Uncle Sam had not been settled.

It is expected that all but 4000 of these bills will be paid before the office closes at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Collector Lederer said the department will be severe in its punishment of willful delinquents. Instead of suing merely for the back-quarter's payment, the government will levy for the entire amount of the unpaid taxes, he said.

SEA-CONQUERING FLIERS GIVEN HERO LAURELS BY ENGLAND AND AMERICA

Nations Join in Singing Praises of Intrepid Vimy Airmen

AVIATORS TELL STORY OF PERILOUS JOURNEY

Cat and Dog Passengers in Ice-Covered Craft That Broke Record

London, June 16.—London celebrated today the achievement of the two British airmen who yesterday completed the first non-stop transatlantic flight, meanwhile preparing for a formal reception to the air victors, Captain John Alcock and Lieutenant Arthur W. Brown.

Formal examination of the Vickers-Vimy bombing type airplane in which the two men flew 1900 miles, or 1680 nautical miles, in sixteen hours and twelve minutes, from St. Johns, Newfoundland, to Clifden, near Galway, Ireland, has been completed by aero club officials, who found the seals intact on the marked parts of the airplane, thus officially establishing the authenticity of the flight.

Meanwhile the aviators, tired but happy, are on their way to London and may reach here tomorrow. Both are well, but Lieutenant Brown, the navigator of the plane, suffered bruises on the nose and face when the machine landed in a bog. The airplane was badly damaged and may have to be dismantled.

Dog and Cat Were Passengers Features of the trip were the carrying of the first aerial mail across the Atlantic and the transportation of two mascots, a dog and a cat.

Enthusiasm over the success of the trip, it is commented, has not been accompanied by any minimizing of the great dangers the aviators encountered. Once the airmen said they barely escaped being plunged into the sea when the machine went into a flat spin.

Early in the flight the half gale in which they took off from St. John's tore off the propeller that drove the wireless dynamo and made radio communication impossible. At the same time, Lieutenant Brown said, a stray wire had broken, but of this he did not speak to his companion until they landed. Captain Alcock said he would have turned back had he known this.

Bad weather, accompanied by fog, permitted only three observations for laying the course, while sheet stopped the working of the petrol indicator.

Ice-covered in Hall and Snow Captain Alcock, describing his experiences while flying at an altitude of 11,000 feet, said:

"It was hailing and snowing. The machine became covered with ice by 6 o'clock in the morning and remained so until an hour before we landed. My radiator shutter and water temperature indicator were covered with ice four or five hours. Lieutenant Brown con-

Dash Across Open Plain—Line Crossed to Stop Firing Into El Paso

No Clash With Mexican Republic, Says Baker

Washington, June 16.—(By A. P.)—There can be no misunderstanding between the governments of the United States and Mexico regarding the movement of troops across the border at El Paso, Secretary Baker said today. He said there is a distinct understanding between the governments for such action. Mr. Baker issued this formal statement:

"There is no possibility of a misunderstanding between the republic of Mexico and the United States with regard to the protection of life on the American side. In many instances previously it has been necessary for the American forces to cross the border to disperse bandit forces. The sole purpose of the American soldier is to protect life on the American side."

By the Associated Press El Paso, Tex., June 16.—United States troops early today, after a dash into Mexico to stop the indiscriminate firing across the border, routed the rebel forces of Francisco Villa at Juarez in a general engagement. Cavalry, assisted by artillery fire, at the latest reports, was pursuing the Villistas some miles from the Mexican cities.

The American infantry troops, which occupied Juarez, have been withdrawn from Mexico in accordance with orders by General De Resey Cabell, commander of the southern department, who arrived from Antonio early today and crossed the international bridge for a conference with General Francisco Gonzales, supreme commander of the Juarez federal troops. At 10:45 a. m. the Twenty-fourth infantry (negro) started marching across the international bridge from Juarez and by 11 o'clock the entire command was back on American soil after having spent exactly eleven hours on Mexican soil.

Cavalry Pursues Rebels At 11 o'clock the entire Second cavalry brigade, composed of the Seventh and Fifth cavalry regiments under the command of Colonel S. R. H. Tompkins, could be seen plainly about eight miles south and west of Juarez in hot pursuit of the Villa forces which were engaged at 10 o'clock this morning in the vicinity of San Lorenzo, opposite Yaleta, Tex., it was stated at military headquarters.

At 11:20 the American cavalry appeared to be gaining rapidly on the Villa band, which was making a desperate effort to reach the mountains to the southwest of Juarez. The pursuit, which started six miles east of Juarez, had swung to the west and the columns could be seen in a cloud of dust to the southwest beyond Juarez.

Artillery in Action Artillery fire was poured against the Villa rebel forces beyond Juarez, with the Second Battalion of the Eighty-second Field Artillery firing sharpnel bursts which could be seen plainly from the river. The artillery fire aided in routing the Villistas in the heavy fighting near San Lorenzo.

At the conference between General Cabell and General Gonzales, General Cabell
