

President Wilson at St. Germain : A. E. F. Holds Relay : Paris Modes : City Speechmakers

PRESIDENT WILSON arriving at the palace of St. Germain, where the Austrian delegation received the peace terms imposed by the Allies. At the President's right is Admiral T. Cary Grayson.

WIDE-BRIM SUMMER hat and a bag to match. The hat is lined with rose, and rose, too, is the lining of the bag.

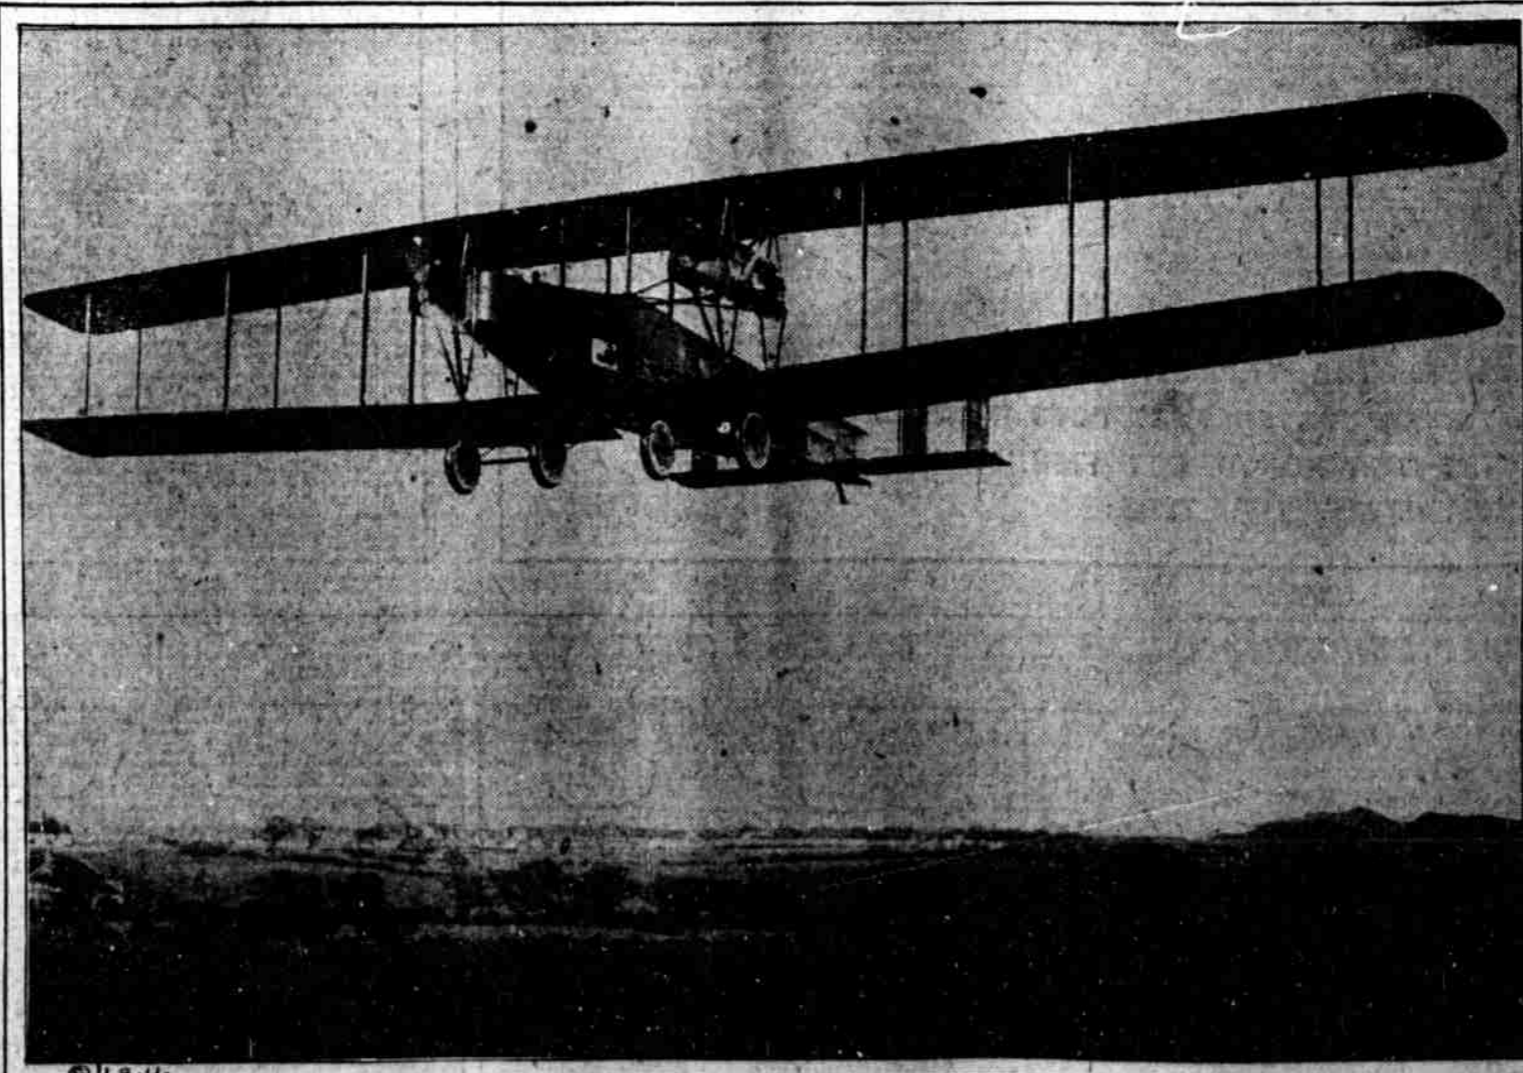

SERGEANT LYNCH, laurel-crowned, winner of the A. E. F. relay race, Chateau Thierry to Paris.

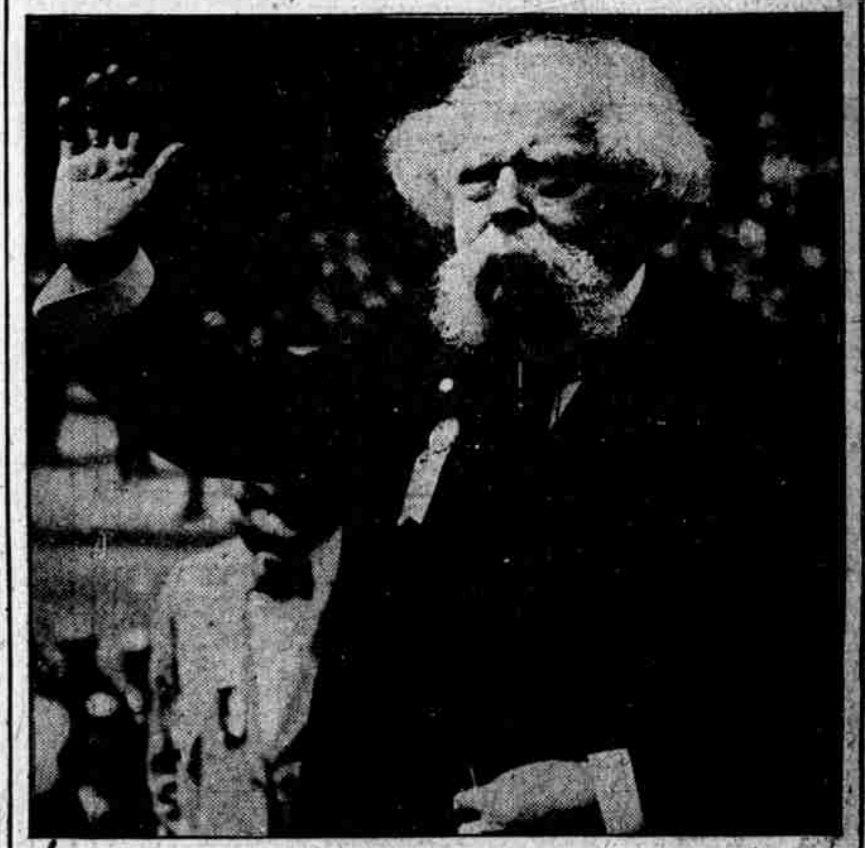

THE FINISH of the Chateau Thierry-to-Paris relay race. The event was run from the battlefield to the Place de la Concorde, Paris, a distance of about fifty miles. Many well-known runners serving with the A. E. F. competed. The relay run was under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus. Above is Sergeant William B. Kennedy finishing second.

ONE of the latest creations of the French modistes, seen at the Longchamps race track, near Paris.

THE GIANT Handley-Page bombing machine, with a wing spread of 127 feet, commanded by Vice Admiral Mark Kerr, tuning up at Harbor Grace, Newfoundland, for the transatlantic flight.

EDWARD J. CATTELL, city statistician, speaker at the Flag Day exercises at Independence Hall.

JUDGE J. WILLIS MARTIN, addressing the Boy Scouts at the flag presentation ceremonies at the Washington Monument, near Green street entrance to Fairmount Park