EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, TUESDAY, JUNE 17, 1919

CLEMENCEAU INDICTS TEUTONS FOR CRIMES sible for concluding the war have had it wishes union with France or the con-tic deflected for the sake of a convenient the treaty."

Covering Note Declares Judgment of World Will Be Passed on War Guilty. Rebukes Germany for False Proposals .

"Tiger" Explains Justice of Allied Exactions and Insists Enemies Must Atone for Offenses Against Humanity

By the Associated Press

Paris, June 17 .- The covering letter rom M. Clemenceau, president of the Peace Conference, to Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, president of the German delegation, in answer to the Teuton counter-proposals, follows :

"The Allied and associated po have given the most earnest considera-tion to the observation of the German tion to the observation of the German delegates on the draft treaty of peace. The reply protests against the peace on the ground that it conflicts with the terms upon which the armistice of Noterms upon which the armistice of No-vember 11, 1918, was signed and that it is a peace of violence and not a peace of justice. The protest of the German delegation shows that they fail understand the position in which Germany stands today. They seem to think that Germany has only to 'make sucrifices in order to attain perce." ° #8 Allied a feel it necessary to begin their reply by a clear statement of the judgment of the world, which has been forged by virtually the whole of civilized man-kind.

War Greatest Crime

"In the view of the Allied and as sociated powers, the war which began on August 1, 1914, was the greatest rime against humanity and freedom of crime against humanity and interest in the test of test of the test of true to the Prussian tradition, strong for were not satisfied with the growing pros-perity and influence to which Germany alone shall decide whether justice and perity and influence to which Germany and shall reign in the affairs of men. was entitled and which all other nations peace shall reign in the affairs of men. were willing to accord her, they required whether right as America conceives it that they should be able to dictate and or dominion as she conceives it shall tyrannize over a subservient Europe, as determine the destinies of mankind, they dictated and tyrannized over a subservient Germany.

trine that might was right in interna- world and vacu-trine that might was right in interna- world and vacu-tional affairs. They never ceased to ex- down in the dust." pand German armaments by land and sea and to propagate the falsehood that it was necessary because Germany's ighbors were jealous of her prosperity and power. "She sought to sow hostility and suspicion, instead of friendship, be-tween nations. The Germans developed a system of espionage and livered by Pre-mier Lloyd George, of Great Britain; many has promised to concede. "The German counter-propose mier Orlando, of Italy, in which it was specifically declared that when victory peace. They provide that great system of espionage and intrigue was won compromise as to peace terms throngh which they were enabled to stir up international rebellion and even to make secret offensive. Preparations whereby they might, when the mouse came, strike them down with greater extrainty and ease. They kept Europe ha a ferment by threats of violence, and when they found that their neigh-bors were resolved to resist their and their predominance in Europe by force. ""As soon as their preparations were could not be localized and which was bound to unchain a general war. ""In order to make doubly sure, they refused every attempt at conciliation the world war was inevitable, for which they had plotted and for which dial to unchain a general war. ""In order to make doubly sure, they refused every attempt at conciliation the world war was inevitable, for which they had plotted and for which adjusted they had plotted and for which due they had plotted and for which due they had plotted and for which adjusted they have adjusted and propered. ""The responsibility, however." through which they were enabled to stir was impossible and just punishment international rebellion and even to should be meted out, and continues: he secret offensive. Preparations "Justice, therefore, is the only pe

"Reparation Is Essence of Justice"-Clemenceau

Paris, June 17 .- Georges Clemenceau, president of the Peace Con-ference, in his reply to the German connter-proposals, says: "Justice, therefore, is the only ossible basis for the settlement of the accounts of this terrible war lustice is what the German delega tion asks for and says that Ger many has been promised. But i must be justice for all. There must be justice for the dead and for the wounded, and for those who have been made orthans and bereaved that Europe might be free from Prussian despotism. "There must be justice for the copies who now stagger under war debts, which exceed thirty billions that liberty might be saved. There must be justice for those million whose homes and lands, ships an roperty. German savagery has poliated and destroyed. "That is why the allied and asso-iated powers have insisted, as a ardinal feature of the treaty, that Germany must undertake to make reparation to the very utmost of her wer, for reparation for wrongs inflicted is of the essence justice.

believe that they will be false to thou who have given their all to save the irredum of the world if they consent to treat war on any other basis than as a wrime against humanity and right. as to treat war on any other basis than are as a wime against humanity and right. and associated powers therefore sociated powers was made perfectly This attitude of the Allied and asclear to Germany during the war by their principal statesmen. It was de-fined hy President Wilson in his speech of April 6, 1918, and explicitly and enterprically accepted by the German.

le as a principle covering the peace thet everything that we say, my felcountrymen, everything that we 10.00 benceforth plan and accomplish, ring true to this researce, till the majesty and might of our concerted power shall true to the Prussian tradition, strove for what we honor and hold dear. Germany a position of dominance in Europe. They what we honor and hold dear. Germany wave not satisfied with the growing pros.

possible from us; Force, force to the "In order to attain their ends they utmost, force without atint or limit, used every channel through which to educate their own subjects in the doc-trine that might was right in interna-trine that might was right in internaworld and east every selfish dominion

- Just Punishment Promised Germany, because in no other way was M. Clemenceau in the letter also it possible to provide for that 'free and secure access to the sea' which Gerquotes from speeches delivered by Pre-is attached to this letter.

to the sea.

ertain

"Accordingly the Allied and associated powers have provided for the re-ent state, with 'free and secure access indubitably Polish populations' have been accorded to Poland. All territories inhabited by German majorities, save for a few isolated towns and for forcibly expropriated and situated in the midst of indubitably Polish terri-

Danzig Free City

"Danzig has been constituted as free city, so that the inhabitants will be autonomous, and do not come under

Polish state. Poland has been given economic rights in Danzig. the city itself has been severed from lonies established on land recently have been left to Germany.

All 'territories inhabited by constitution of Poland as an independ-

"The German counter-proposals en tirely conflict with the agreed basis of peace. They provide that great ma-jorities of indisputably Polish population shall be kept under German rule. They deny secure access to the sea to a uation of over 20,000,000 people.

uenth the reign of law, even if there is to be early reconciliation and appears-ment, it will be because those respon-have complete freedom to decide whether to be early reconciliation and appeare-ment, it will be because those respon-sible for concluding the war have had

People Supported War

M. Clemenceau takes up various ter nitorial settlements, including the Ger-man colonies, which he says the Allied powers are satisfied are strongly op-"It is said that the German revolution ought to make a difference, and that the German people are not respon-sible for the policy of the rulers whom they have thrown from power. The man colonies, which he says the Allied powers are satisfied are strongly op-posed to being again brought under Ger-many's sway. The Allied powers, therefore, are not prepared to modify their territorial proposals, except in certain respects Inid down. Allied and associated powers recognize and welcome the change. It represents a great hope for peace and a new Eu-ropean order in the future.

With regard to the economic and financial clauses, M. Clemenceau says: "There is no intention on the part of the Allied and associated powers to

"But it cannot affect the settlement of the war itself. The German revo-lution was stayed until the German armies had been defeated in the field and all hope of profiting by a war of conquest had vanished. Throughout the war, as before the war, the German people and their representatives sup-to the war loans, obeyed every order. Allied and associated powers to the Allied and associated powers international trade and commerce. Provided that she abides by the treaty of peace and pro-gressive and exclusive traditions which have been apparent in her business, no ported the war loans, obeyed every order. Allied and associated powers intend less than in her political methods, the Allied and associated powers intend that Germany shall have fair treatment ported the war, voted credits, subscribed less than in her political methods, the to the war loans, obeyed every order, however savage, of their government. That Germany shall have fair treatment They shared the responsibility for the policy of the government, for at any sale of goods, subject to those temporary with the same enthusiasm with which they welcomed the outbreak of the war. They cannot now pretend, having changed their rulers after the war was lost, that it is justice that they should excape the consequences of their deeds. The Allied and associated powers escape the consequences of their deeds. "The Allied and associated powers therefore believe that the peace they have proposed is fundamentally a peace of justice. They are no less certain that it is a have proposed is fundamentally a peace they of justice. They are no less certain that it is a peace of right on the terms agreed. There can be no doubt as to the intentions of the Allied and as-sociated powers to base the settlement of Europe on the principle of freeing oppressed peoples and redrawing na-tional boundaries as far as possible, in accordance with the will of the peoples concerned, while giving to each the fa-ollities to be a supersonal to the second With regard to reparation proposals M. Clemenceau says while the Allied powers are not prepared to modify them, they recognize that, with the German delegation, the advantage of arriving independent national as soon as possible at the fixed and definite sum which shall be payable by Germany. They are willing to accord made clean to Germany all necessary and reason able facilities to enable her to survey dress to Congress of January 8, 1018, but in the principles of settlement enunciated in his subsequent addresses. the devastated and damaged regions and to make proposals thereafter, within four months of the signing of the treaty, for a settlement of the claims. which was the agreed basis of A memorandum on this point

The Allied and associated powers have given careful consideration to the request of the German delegation that German admitted to the league of nations as of the conditions of peace, but that the Allies are unable to accede to this request. It adds that the German revolution was postponed to the last moment of the war, and that there is no guarantee that it represents a perma-nent change, and that it is impossible in the present temper of international gent consideration can be accord the world to sit down immediately in one familiar with Logiciations of any immediately in one Wherever the will of the people is in equal association with those by whom doubt a plebiscite has been provided for. they have been so grievously wronged."

The appropriation bills will be rushed It is added that the Allied and asthrough, the House will adjourn and sociated powers believe if the German Governor Sproul will be relegated people prove that they intend to ful autonomous, and do not come under ish rule or form any part of the the work of cutting the appropriations the that they have abandoned forever those to be available funds. From a purely, iven aggressive and estranging policies which superficial view. I am not so sure that and caused the war "and have now become the verb "slaughter" should now be from a people with whom it is possible to substituted for "cuting" in reference live in neighborly good fellowship, the memories of these past years will speedily fade, and it will be possible to these measures. Constituents Are Feared at an early date to complete the league The present situation is pointed out of nations by the admission of Ger- as an impressive argument in favor of the pending bill to increase the salary of members from $1500 to $2500.

Blockade Legal

to the denun-lockade of the M. Clemenceau refers to the Germany of the blockade The cost of living in Harrisburg dur ing a session has more than doubled It declares that the blockade in recent years. There are no passes, as in the glorious days of old, and Allies always has been a legal and recognized method of war. It adds that if the method of war. It adds that if the Allies imposed a blockade of exceptional railroad fares are a big item in the severity on Germany it was "because of the criminal character of the war initiated by Germany and of the barexpense account of legislators who come from remote sections of the state. Many find it cheaper to go home over the barous methods adopted by her in week-end, even to considerable distances, than to remain in Harrisburg. prosecuting it.

"In conclusion, the Allied and asso- I am convinced that nothing but th ciated powers must make it clear that this letter and the memorandum at-tached constitute their last word. They fear of their constituents, as was always the case in the past, has withheld the present House from rushing the have examined German observations and counter-proposals with carnest attensalary increase to a finish, which it still is likely to do. twishes to remain a part of Germany, tion and care. They have, in conse-they are willing that the question of quence, made important modifications within the next ten years the pres-whether upper Silesia will form part of in the draft treaty, but in its principle ent session of the Legislature, in point of length, will be regarded as a short they stand by it. "They believe "They believe that it is not only a just settlement of the great war, but that it provides the basis upon which the peoples of Europe can live together in friendship and equality."

eight hours) that they are prepared to sign the treaty as now amended. If they declare within the period that they are prepared to sign the treaty as it stands, arrangements will be made for the immediate signature of the peace at Versailles. In default of such a dediration this commence ation conburgh, came down to Harrisburg one Monday evening with a bill in his in-side pocket which provided for an en-tirely new office for that city. On Wednesday night he returned home with a law, signed, sealed and a matter peace at Versailles. In default of such a degaration this communcation con-stitutes the modification provided for in Article XI of the convention of the 16th of February, 1919, prolonging the armistice signed on the 11th of No-vember, 1918, and again prolonged by the agreement of the 13th of December, 1918, and the 16th of January, 1919, and the said armistice will then termi-nte and the Allied and associated pow-ers will take such steps as they think needful to force their terms." Pittsburgh were aware of the fact.

ipon observations covering a period None of the Americans was injured. more than twenty years, that greater care and deliberation must be given to of the railroad guarded by the Japanese. the matter of lawmaking in the fu- who sent re-enforcements to the scene ture. Coming Legislatures must get on the following day. longer than at any time in the past. Sessions protracted into midsummer The annual commencement of the cadet girls of the John Wanamaker are not only probable but confidently may be anticipated. A commonwealth so potential, with industries and interests so vast, shauld have lawmaking O'Harra, M. A., will deliver an address bodies whose deliberations are not and award the diplomas to the gradulimited to a time schedule or a matter ates. Following the impressive ceremony of a few weeks more or less.

ASCOT'S GLORIES REVIVED

British Royalty Attends Race Meet as in Days of Yore London, June 17.- (By A. P.)-Another pre-war royal function was revived today with a /visit of King George, Queen Mary, the Prince of Wales and Princess Mary to the Ascot races, where they headed the semistate procession in a four-horse carriage with postilions and outriders. The "Royal Ascot" is a designation of this week's racing on the prettiest course in England, and is the opening

Many Financially on Thin Ice

Yet scores of members should be charitably absolved for their display of anxiety to get away. Financially they are skating on thin ice. Their salaries have been spent and they are losing money daily by remaining in Harrisburg. I believe that a proposition to extend the session a week beyond the date set for adjournment would precipitate a riot in the House. Try our combination There are but eight working days box, large bottle of Liquid left, including Saturday. A mass of appropriation bills must be acted upon In the mad rush to get through it is gent consideration can be accorded cach familiar with Legislature pro month and gums.

At your dealer's

and can of Powder -AFTER clean Free Its refreshing taste and odor are an index of its purity and its effective cleansing of the teeth. Jozodom

FIRE ON U. S. HOSPITAL REDS WIN AT STOCKHOLM

merican Cars on Train Which is Independent Socialist Cong Attacked by Reds

Adopts Bolshevik Polloy with a law, signed, scaled and a matter of official record, creating the office of delinquent tax collector for Pittsburgh. The new official, selected in advance, mail cars, near Spassk, north of Vladi-ternationale of Moscow' and adopted vostok, last Wednesday night. They recolutions favoring Bolshevik meas-recolutions favoring folshevik meas-recolutions favoring of production Vladivostok, June 17 .- (By A. P.) ures,, such as the placing of production the rails. Shots were fired into al control in the hands of laborers, and, It is Governor Sproul's idea, based the cars and one Russian was killed. to effect a revolution, that workers must be armed and the bourgeoisie un-The attack occurred on the section armed The parliamentary members vainly protested and warned against any attempt at a proletarian dictatorship. It is expected that the humanitarian wing of the party will secede.

Cadet Exercises Tonight

Hoover Remains in aPris commercial Institute will be held in the Paris, June 17.—Paris heard with surprise reports from England that Herbert C. Hoover, director general of the inter-Allied relief work, had salled for the United States. Mr. Hoover was at his desk in his office here yesterday as usual. Wanamaker store tonight. Mrs. I. H. in University Hall an exhibition drill will be given by the cadets as usual.

There are 200 Hats in this group, divided about equally amongst the two prices. They are practically all different. Swagger modes for the younger women and quieter styles for matrons.

Shown for the First Time!

Tats of Georgette Crepe and Crepe and Straw com-Hats of Georgette Crepe and Crepe and trimmed in ways diverse and charming. Hats you'll fall in love withand prices to please you!

=We Accept Purchasing Agents' Orders=

You'll Find ly Glasses

would meet and deliberate a day or two, and then adjourn till the following Monday night. Thus the weeks slipped by. The House lacked an appreciation of the value of time. Besides, there has been little or no effort to make up the time lost in the early days of the session. The desire among members of the House up to the present time to get away from Harrisburg has become acute. The magnet of getting their local appropriation bills through failed acute. to hold many of them. The spectacle presented last Thurs day of lack of a quorum, with sergeantat-arms scurrying over the state, and telegraph wires burdened with messages recalling absent members to their duties was a visible culmination of the session's carelessness and indifference. Th last five months have been distinguished

1919 Legislature

ontinued From Page One

Defended by McCain

German by an amount of dawdling, inexcusable adjournment, and waste of time almost unprecedented.

event of the social season in England. It is usually the signal for the display of the latest creations in dresses. and after a lapse of five years through the war, today's spectacle exceeded any-thing previously known in the matter of hats, dresses and general brilliancy.

among the nations they were adequately equipped and prepared. "Germany's responsibility, however, is not confined to having planned and started the war. She is no less re-sponsible for the savage and inhuman manner in which it was conducted. Though Germany was herself the guar-anty of Belgium, Germany violated the rules after a solemn promise to respect the neutrality of this unoffending peo-ble. "That is why they insist that those individuals who are most clearly re-sponsible for German aggression and for those acts of barbarism and inhumanity duct of the war must be handed over to justice, which has not been meted out to them at home. "That, too, is why Germany must

Though Germany was berself the gunder the worked response of their action. They were first this sole object of thering and hear discusses and the machinery of neighboring the soles of their action. They were first this net before the sole object of their action. They were first this net before the sole object of their action. They were first this net before the sole object of their action. They were first this net before the sole action the deliberate and calculated purpose of reining and long distance the sole object of their action is and the action the deliberate and calculated purpose because the sole object of the the sole object of the sole object of the institutes. They were first that beers of their action is and the action the deliberate and calculated purpose bers the sole object of their action is and the action the deliberate and calculated purpose bers at their action the deliberate and calculated purpose bers at their action the deliberate and calculated purpose bers of their action is and long distance the sole object of the is noted the sole object of the the begine of the is not during beling the own industries to select of their action is and long distance the sole object of their action is and long distance the appalling suffering it entailed. They bers of everything she could make use of the appalling the moreal of the submatric of the submatric striking at their women and children. "They commenced the submarine emmaaign, with its piratical challenge to international law and its destruc-tion of great numbers of innocent pas-sengers and sailors in mid-ocean, far from succor, at the mercy of the winds submarine crews. They drove thou-sands of men and women and children with brutal savagery into slavery in foreign lands; they allowed barburities to be practiced against their prisoners of war, from which the most uncivilized war, from which the most uncivilized people would have recoiled. Conduct Unexampled "The conduct of Germany is almost mexampled in human history. The errible responsibility which lies at her oors can be seen by the fact that not as than seven million dead lie buried Europe, while more than twenty mil-n others carry upon them the less than seven million dead lie buried in Europe, while more than twenty mil-lion others carry upon them the evi-dence of wounds and suffering, because Germany saw fit to gratify her lust for tyranny by resort to war. "The Allied and Associated powers

Platinum Watches for Men

These fashionable watches are made round and in fancy shapes, all in very thin models.

A watch with excellent Waltham movement in ultra-thin platinum case-$450.

S. Kind & Sons, 1110 Chestnut St. DIAMOND MERCHANTS-JEWELERS-SILVERSMITHS

memories

many thereto.

proposed by the powers is to continue for m-powers is to continue for m-ears. This arrangement the gen-The clause adds that the treaty creates will remain in session much longer than the machinery for the peaceful adjust- at present. A most careful considera teen years. This arrangement they the machinery for the peaceful adjust-considered necessary, both to the gen-real scheme for reparation and in order that France may have immediate and that France may have immediate and struction of her northern coal mines. The district has been transferred not to French sovereignty but to the const tailed by organized opinion of machinery for the peaceful adjust-tailed by organized opinion of machinery for the peaceful adjust-tailed by organized opinion of machinery to the peaceful adjust-tailed by organized opinion of machinery to the peaceful adjust-tailed by organized opinion of machinery to the peaceful adjust-tailed by organized opinion of machinery to the peaceful adjust-tailed by organized opinion of machinery to the peaceful adjust-tailed by organized opinion of machinery to the to the constant tailed by organized opinion of machinery to the to the constant of the to the term of the to the term of term of the term of the term of term of the term of term of the term of ter

Yc. enjoy good sodas most when they are served in clean, sanitary Lily Glasses.

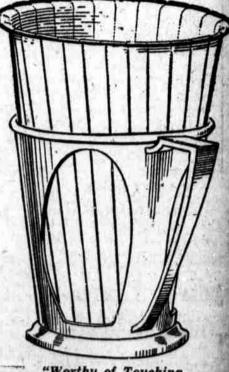

Service that includes the use of snowywhite, sterile paper Lily Glasses is Quality Service. You can be sure that the soda fountain proprietor who is thoughtful enough to provide Lily Glasses for your greater comfort and safety is certain to serve the best sodas for your greater enjoyment.

The Lily Glass that is placed before you has never been used before-it is as fresh and clean as science can make it.

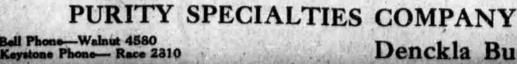

Soda tastes better in Lily Glasses-

For your health's sake-

Patronize the soda fountains where only Lily Glasses are used.

"Worthy of Touching Your Lips"

Denckla Building

F.O.B F. O. B. MANUFACTURING COMPANY 902-4 Real Estate Trust Bldg., Philadelphia City Sales Office and Service Station 2035 Market Street

B. holding them.

blast!

The Auto -balked at L

His skeleton keys, his bent wires and practiced technique all fall flat before the F. O. B. combination Auto Lock. Let him pry and tinker, fume and curse; let him hitch on a tow line-your car stands fast. The wheels won't steer with an F. O.

The only way to move an F. O. B. locked car is,

Gives a reduction of 15% on your Theft

and Insurance Policy"

The vault combination defies his skill.