

ROSES GOLF MATCH BUT NOT HIS NERVE

Sharwood Shows Superb Courage in Losing Final to Frank Newton

WINNER GETS BREAKS

By SPICK HALL. IT REQUIRES as much, if not more, gameness for a golfer to play steadily when he appears to be defeated as it does for a football player to keep plugging away with a broken collar bone, or an orsman to continue the grind to the finish after he is physically through.

Late yesterday afternoon Sydney E. Sharwood, of the Merion Cricket Club, demonstrated by one shot that he is not only a great mechanical golfer, but that if he ever gets into a match where gameness counts for anything, he is going to be the victor.

In the first place all the breaks of the game were with Newton. Without attempting to take away any of the credit from Newton it must be admitted that fortune was beaming upon him when he sank a twenty-foot putt on the fourteenth green and a twelve-footer

U. S. and French Leaders to See Foreign Games

Paris, June 19.—President Wilson, General John J. Pershing, President Poincare and Premier Clemenceau will participate in the ceremonies incident to the opening of the interallied games in the Pershing stadium, near here, on June 22. The program for the games shows that the athletic events will extend over two weeks.

There will be seven events in the swimming program. At his own request Lieutenant Norman Ross, who holds the world's championship at several distances, will be entered in all swimming events. This Pacific coast swimmer has just arrived from America.

Sharwood was three down when his approach shot on the fifteenth green fell about six feet from the pin. Newton's approach was splendid; his ball rolling within three feet of the hole.

When Sharwood looked the situation over he found that Newton had paid him a dead weight. If he lost the hole the match was over. He must win it to have even a fighting chance, and he did win the hole by one of the finest shots ever pulled off at Huntington Valley, to say nothing of displaying a nerve of chilled steel.

One of the few stars who will not appear at Wilmington is George W. Hoffman of Bala. His own club is in the throes of a tournament, and he played in the qualifying round yesterday afternoon, after he had been beaten in the semifinals at Huntington Valley by Sharwood.
