Good News for People Who Want to Make the Most of Summer

The Only Hope of the Troubled World at This Time

is to go straight on in everything that intensifies Americanism.

It has some enemies who will show their teeth in wild acts of hostility which, when the finals are played, will only add to their own ruination.

The prayer of humanity is for all that is unfolded

By the American Flag

Nothing else will satisfy the multitudes all over the world who have longed for this hour, and been wounded in body and soul while waiting for the dawning of these days.

It is hard for pride and power to submit, but there is one who will "speak peace unto the people" and who bids them not to return unto folly.

Give us plain and pure patriotism of the George Washington type.

[Signed]

*John Wanamaker
Chairman*

This Is Good News! Finest Satin Wraps Reduced

Without any question they are the most beautiful afternoon and evening wraps that have been brought out for Spring and Summer and, for women who go out a great deal, they are a necessity.

Black, blue, taupe and gray are the colors of the satins, but no two are alike. All are very handsomely lined and some have collars of mole or squirrel, others hand embroidery or elaborate machine work.

One lovely model is of black satin with a band of white and gold embroidery around the bottom and over the shoulders. It is $175.

Another in Copenhagen blue satin has a high turnover collar of squirrel and is embroidered down the sides with silver beads. This one is $225.

There are a number of others, all the way from $75 to $250.

(First Floor, Central)

Such Fine Tub Skirts as Women Are Asking for

There are some beautiful models here for tomorrow.

The materials are the best white cotton gabardines, tricootines and the very scarce linens, all being previously shrunken.

You will notice many radical changes in the styles; for example, loose yokes, pointed over the hips, new "gun" pockets, inverted pleats at the sides with rows of buttons from the waist to the hem, huge pearl buttons set on "up-and-down" buttonholes and the material running through the buttons, also rows of tiny buttons, used as trimming.

The prices are $9.75 to $15.

(First Floor, Central)

"I Didn't Think There Were So Many Styles of Dresses for Girls!"

There are many short-waisted dresses, dresses with round necks and frilly collars and cuffs; short-sleeved frocks and frocks with no sleeves at all, embroidered dresses and ever so many more.

The cottons are unusually pretty and of such qualities as mothers themselves would select—fine dimities and swisses, voiles, batistes, lawns and ginghams, in many colors and plain white, trimmed with color.

$6 to $22.50—and 6 to 14 year sizes.

And for junior girls who wear 15 and 17 year sizes, there are some charming new party and better dresses, of crepe Georgette in white or flesh, or of cool, airy net, in white. $16.50 to $50.

(Second Floor, Chestnut)

Women's Combination Suits "Seconds" at Special Prices

$280 suits that represent a mill's clearaway of its summer "seconds" at a fourth to a third less than first-grade goods would be.

40c for white ribbed cotton suits; low neck, sleeveless and lace legs.

50c for a better grade with both lace and plain legs.

60c for low neck, lace leg cotton suits in extra sizes.

(West Aisle)

Books New From the Press

"The Mason-Wasps," by J. Henri Fabre, translated by Alexander Teixeira de Mattos. In it are brought together all the essays by "the insects' Homer" treating of those wasps who actually build homes or nests. $1.75.

"The Way of the Eagle," by Major Charles J. Biddle, of the French and U. S. Air Services. $2.50.

"The Winning Clue," by James Hay, Jr. A story for jaded readers of mystery tales. $1.50.

"Trailing the Bolsheviks. Twelve Thousand Miles With the Allies in Siberia," by Carl W. Ackerman. A study made at first hand of humanity running wild. $2.

"You Never Saw Such a Girl," by George Weston. A gay bit of a story with which to while away a half hour. $1.35.

"1914," by Field Marshal Viscount French, with an introduction by Marechal Foch. One of the first of the memoirs of indisputably permanent value to emerge from the conflict and unquestionably the most important war book of the year. $6.

(Main Floor, Thirteenth)

Creamy Net Blouses

One with a long turn-over collar edged with many rows of narrow lace, and one with a straight panel front of Valenciennes insertion and tiny net puffings. The first is $6.75 and the second $7.50.

(Third Floor, Central)

A Brand-New Sports Oxford for Women

Made of heavy tan grained calfskin with indicated wing tips, much perforation and saw-tooth punching. Composition soles and rubber heels.

The last is a shapely one and the whole effect is one of style and sturdiness. $10 is an unusually low price for such a shoe.

(First Floor, Market)

Letitia Corsets

A topless mode of pink dotted batiste, with light boning. Price $8.

Another topless of soft pink tricot with two elastic bands—the whole very comfortable. $9.

A strong corset, heavily boned, for tall, full figures. The skirt is long, with elastic gussets in the front, and the bust is low. $9.

A pink brocade with medium bust and inserts of elastic in the skirt. The boning is good. $10.

Also one for average figures. It is of pink and white broche, low bust, with long skirt and double hose supporters in front. $10.

(Third Floor, Chestnut)

Little Girls' Kimonos From Far-Off Japan

Of pretty blue crepe, they are liberally sprinkled with white colored blossoms, and then made up in simple, comfortable style. 8 to 12 year sizes—$1.75.

(Third Floor, Chestnut)

Dressing Cases for Vacationists

It is so convenient to have a complete battery of your own toilet articles when you are away.

Men's dressing cases of black leather with black fittings and black or tan leather linings, $7.50 to $37.50.

Women's dressing cases of black leather with white celluloid fittings and colored moire silk linings, $18 to $40.

(Main Floor, Chestnut)

The Fourth of July Candy Box for $2

holds four pounds of delicious and pure candies, including old-fashioned cream mint, yellow-jack, assorted chocolates and chocolate marshmallows, snapping bonbons and a giant cracker filled with gum drops. It is attractively boxed, and tied with red, white and blue ribbons—$2 complete.

(Down Stairs Store, Chestnut)

The Relationship Between a Man's Clothes and His Comfort

is obvious enough—there is no need to dwell upon it.

Our men's Summer suits stand for all the comfort and all the fashion and all the satisfaction that any man of sense and judgment can desire. This is true of the regular Summer suits of cool, airy chevots and worsteds and also of the tropical suits of Palm Beach, mohair and breezewave fabrics.

Suits of both of these kinds will be found here at their best in materials and making—we are not in the clothing business to be satisfied with selling something short of the finest clothing to be had.

All our Summer suits are Summer suits in the best sense of the word. We could get other kinds to sell if we would sell them, which we would not. We could not get better kinds to sell for the prices at which we offer these, because better cannot be had.

Palm Beach, mohair and breezewave suits, $18 to $35. Cool chevot and worsted suits, $32 to $65.

(Third Floor, Market)

Glistening New Combs for Her Coiffure

Some of the newest combs are set with sparkling, imitation sapphires, massed in effective designs. There are carved effects and bowknot designs and prices start at $2.50 for a small comb and go on up to $20 for a large, beautiful bowknot.

Combs set with rhinestones—these too in new shapes and designs, are $1.25 to $33.

And there are fascinating new pins and barrettes to go with the combs, starting at $1.25 each.

(Jewelry Store, Chestnut and Thirteenth)

Yes, We Have Long White Gloves and Short White Gloves

—and there are many requests for both these days, for June is a great month for weddings and commencements and receptions, and all these call for white gloves.

All are of white glace, daintily made, and in all fashionable lengths from the short gloves at $2.50 to the long gloves at $5 a pair.

(Main Floor, Central)

England Has Sent Women Some New Silk Scarfs

Just in time for seashore wear are these dainty, elastic silk scarfs in about eighty combinations of colors.

These scarfs are scarce and if we had not been on the spot last Winter, where they were manufactured, it is doubtful if we would have had any.

Prices $12 and $13.50.

(First Floor, Market)

36-Inch Voile Flouncings Special $1 a Yard

They come in exquisite tints of pale pink, light blue, Copenhagen, old rose, maize, lavender and tan and the embroidery is done in white, but sometimes a deeper shade than the material is used also.

These flouncings have been here only a short time, but already we have had to re-order them several times for women who want something they can make up quickly and easily into cool frocks.

(First Floor, Chestnut)

The Children's Barber Shop Is a Cool, Clean Place—

where many small girls and little brothers come every little while to have their hair cut.

The assistants are experts for children and the shop is light and clean and cool.

(Third Floor, Chestnut)

The Favorite White Petticoats

First, petticoats of white tub silk with double panels front and back, elastic in top and tiny self ruffles, $5.

Then, double panel petticoats of white cotton, some very prettily finished with perfectly flat embroidery. Prices of these are $1 to $3.50.

Then, Philippine hand-embroidered petticoats at $4.50 to $8.50.

(Third Floor, Central)

The Lost Trench Coats Are Found—We Will Sell Them at $30

(In the London Shop)

For some months a little lot of men's trench coats have been lost in transit. The other day they turned up, and because of their lateness we are going to put them on sale at $30 each, which is less than they have ever sold for and just half of what they were before the Armistice.

These coats are made of a wonderfully durable, hard-twill fabric in khaki color. They make excellent raincoats and are unsurpassed as motor coats. The detachable fleece lining that comes with them will turn them into fine storm coats next Fall and Winter.

(The Gallery, Chestnut)

Men's New House Gowns of Silk Poplin

Light in weight, cool and requiring little space in a traveling bag, these make splendid summer gowns.

They are in a good variety of dark colors in figured and dotted designs.

Price $20.

(Main Floor, Market)

Men's Initial Handkerchiefs Unusual at $4 a Dozen

because the linen is good and so are the embroidered letters. They are snowy and fresh—and many men are looking for just such handkerchiefs.

(West Aisle)

Nearly Two Thousand Umbrellas in a Special Sale—$2 to $5 Each

Attractive, well-made new umbrellas—all in good styles—and all at prices that are unusual these days.

$2 each for umbrellas with fine cotton covers with silk-tape edge, paragon frames; sizes for women, men and children. Women's handles are of plain and carved mission woods, with colored bakelite tops and rings, others with silk loop cords; other handles are of plain and carved woods.

$4 each for silk-and-cotton umbrellas with silk edge; fine sample handles—these only for women. Light and dark woods trimmed with amber and bakelite tops and rings, some with silver caps and handles.

If You Need an Odd Piece of Furniture Now Is Your Opportunity

We are holding one of the most unusual disposals of odd furniture in the history of this furniture business, a disposal comprising several hundred pieces, no two of them alike and all at reductions of one-third, one-half and more.

The pieces are so reliable and the prices so low that anybody who can find room for another piece of furniture has now a golden opportunity that should be seized at once, because these goods are too unusual to remain long here. They are goods of our own regular tried and proven kind, with nothing experimental about them. The price reductions are in many cases more than they seem, because the former prices were less than prevailing market rates.

The collection is made up of serving-tables and dining-room chairs at half-price, china closets at one-third less than regular; toilet tables, beds, bedroom chairs and smooches at half; arts and crafts and mission-style pieces at reductions of one-third and some wicker pieces at the same savings.

Please remember that there is only one piece of a kind, these being some of the dining-room pieces—

A Piano Will Enliven Your Summer Home

Even the joys of a Summer resort are not unending. We cannot live on them for months, any more than we could live on cake and lemonade.

Anyone who has ever spent a season at such a place knows how important it is to have all the advantages of a real home to be really happy.

And that means

Music

Music is so much a part of the lives of most of us that we must have a certain amount of it. We do not know how much we depend upon it for inspiration and cheer until we are not able to have it when we will.

If you want to make sure that your Summer is complete, send a piano, or a player-piano, or a reproducing piano to your cottage. You will never hear the oft-repeated question, "Well, what shall we do this evening?"

Chickering
Schomacker
Emerson
Lindeman

Knabe
Haines Bros.
Marshall and Wendell
J. C. Campbell

These are the famous makes of pianos we sell, and they are to be found in Wanamaker's only in Philadelphia. Over fifty styles of instruments at prices ranging from $325 for a J. C. Campbell upright piano to $3350 for a superb Knabe grand reproducing piano. And any one purchasable on convenient terms.

The June Sale of China and Glassware Goes on Apace

This sale, now in its final week, goes ahead as only a sale can go that has the right goods behind it and plenty of them. It is a large enough and varied enough and helpful enough sale to go ahead without exaggerations. The merchandise in it is the kind that will stand investigation.

The dinner sets are standard dinner sets in the number of pieces and in the composition of each set.

They are first-selection wares in character, shape and decorations. The glassware is of fine grade; much of the cut crystal in this sale is of the highest and most brilliant quality obtainable. All of it is standard. There were never so many distinctive and beautiful cuttings. On the whole, it is the best and lowest-priced lot of cut glass shown in Philadelphia for many years.

But time is running short, no matter how plentiful opportunities may be. The sale ends with June. While it continues you can buy French, English, American and Japanese dinner sets at savings of 20 per cent, cut glass at savings of 25 to 50 per cent and other glassware at relatively large savings.

Cool Porch Screens

Now that the sun is at its height there may be a hue and cry after porch screens at any moment. Some of the best screens in the Oriental Store are known as the Vador of the Ventilator type, and made of broad strips of linenwood with weatherproof color and metal pulleys. Colors are brown, brown-and-tan and green.
