DR. SHAW, LEADER IN SUFFRAGE, DIES

Succumbs to Pneumonia Contracted on Lecture Tour for League of Nations

71 YEARS OLD: WON D. S. M.

Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, honorary president of the National Woman's Suffrage Association, one of the foremost woman orators of the day and a lender of women in politics, theology, medicine and sociology, is dead.

Death, which came at her home at Moylan, near this city, at 7 o'clock lest night, closed a career of seventy one years which in many respects parallels that of Abraham Lincoln in its rise from poverty and privation to intellectual feadership. The death was caused by pneumonia contracted on a lecture tour while she was campaigning for the league of nations.
