143d Anniversary of Declaration of Independence to Echo Victory Over Germans

PARADE TO START FESTIVITY

Tomorrow will be the 143d anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

The recent signing of the peace treaty bringing the World War to a victorious conclusion for the nation born in Independence Hall July 4, 1776, gives particular significance to the observance this year and a fitting celebration has been arranged.

The main entertainment in this city will be under the supervision of the special Fourth of July committee of Council, with John H. Baizley as chairman.

The official celebration will begin with a parade through the central section of the city tomorrow morning, ending at Independence Hall where a program suited to the victory anniversary is scheduled.

Religious Services Arranged

In recognition of the guiding Providence that brought the war just ended to its happy conclusion, Council's committee has arranged, for the first time, a religious service as part of the observance. The service will be conducted in the Old Pine Street Presbyterian Church at half past 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The main feature of the celebration at Independence Square will be a patriotic address by Congressman James W. Good, of Iowa, famed for his power of speech and the manner in which he backed the war.

The formal program will open with music by the Municipal Band, led by Edward Britton. John H. Baizley will then briefly introduce Judge John M. Patterson, chairman of the meeting, who will take charge of the program. The Rev. Dr. Carter Helm Jones will offer a blessing.

A prominent place on the program has been given to the public school pupils. Donald Norris Schaffer, of the West Philadelphia High School, and the Boys, will have the honor of reading the Declaration of Independence.

"THERE AIN'T NO FIREWORKS, SKINNY; LET'S GO FISHIN'"

"Hully Gee, What They Have Got to Sell Ain't Very Good, and, Anyway, They Cost Too Much"

Will the roman candle splutter as in happy days gone by? Will the penny chasers jump around the city tomorrow morning, ending at Independence Hall where a program suited to the victory anniversary is scheduled.

Howard George, one of the most extensive dealers in fireworks in Frankford, says the demand is slow. Fireworks, like fireworks, are footless. You are a big show for a while, but it takes more than a big show to make folks happy after the biggest show that was ever staged—the one overseas.

So even Jim and Bill and Skinny are a bit desultory about their pre-Fourth celebrations. "We've fed up even on victory," says George. "We've had so much about a world made safe for democracy it seems, that we are waiting to see it roll around in our direction, so we can step off and see what it's like."

Also, there's a direct connection between prohibition and fireworks. A Germantown dealer says a man who has been drinking will come in and buy $3 or $4 worth, just for the sake of more excitement. A sober one thinks of the unpaid grocery bill.

It is admitted that the supply from the wholesalers is limited and the quality of most Chinese-made products is inferior, because they put all their best explosives into the kind of stuff the general like to play with. The cheaper stuff, in accordance with the spirit of the age, is commanding just as high or higher prices, however. Firecrackers that used to be five cents are now eight; most prices are up from 30 to 40 per cent. There are no big crackers.

The thirteenth days of patriotism are over, Skinny. Let's go fishin'!

FRANKFORD TO HAVE SAFE AND SANE 4TH

All-Day Celebration Prepared for Bridesburg—Many Parades in Northeast

While there will not be the usual community celebration in Frankford this year, there will be many in the towns in the vicinity.

At a recent meeting of the Frankford Business Men's and Taxpayers' Association, the plan for the safe and sane Fourth, it was decided that, in view of numerous drives that have been supported by the Frankford people, it would be unwise to appeal for their subscriptions for a big celebration this year. There will be, however, many displays of fireworks.

The residents of Bridesburg have planned an all-day celebration beginning with a parade of returned soldiers, church, fraternal organizations and school children in the morning in Bridesburg Park and in the evening there will be moving pictures and band concerts.

Following the custom of years, the residents of Holmesburg will assemble in Pennypack Park for their celebration, which will consist of a program of sports, drills and patriotic exercises will be given by the school children. A band will be on hand all day and a committee of women will have charge of the dispensing of sandwiches, ice cream, etc., at a nominal cost. The proceeds of the association will make the night having in charge the erection of the memorial monument.

The afternoon will be given over to games and sports events including moving pictures, dances and feature work by school children.

Robert M. Griffith, president of the civil service commission, will act as chairman of park exercises. Miss Kathryn Lewis, of the A. K. McClellan school, will read the Declaration of Independence. Franklin Spencer Edmonds will make the principal address.

HOG ISLAND VACATION

The Camden and Gloucester shipyards will close this afternoon until Monday, so that the 20,000 workers may have a vacation over the Fourth of July.

Most of the other manufacturing plants in Camden and Gloucester will close until Monday.

For the first time in its history the Hog Island shipyard will have a double holiday this week-end over tomorrow and Saturday.

There will be no celebration of Independence Day at the plant, the management having released all its employees until Monday morning.

Saturday this week will be the first Saturday in months that Hog Island will not launch a ship. Next week several vessels of the "A" type of 725 tons each will be launched.

The new athletic field and gymnasium at Yorkshin Village, which cost $70,000, will be dedicated and opened to the public for the first time. The village is located in the lower end of Camden and just east of Gloucester. There have been 1550 houses built there and the public has not been permitted to visit that section since work started a year ago.

The government has spent $9,000,000 on construction of the homes for workers at the New York Shipyard, and the New York Shipbuilding Corporation has built a gymnasium and athletic field for the use of its 16,000 employees.

The athletic field and gymnasium are located on the road leading from Gloucester to West Collingswood, and the public will be allowed to enter from either end. There will be all kinds of track and athletic events, two baseball games morning and evening between the New York Shipyard team and Hatteras of the Delaware River Shipyard League; a tennis tournament in the morning at 10:30 between the Moorestown, Merchantville, Haddonfield, Riverton and Woodbury teams, of the West Jersey Tennis League. There will be races for children in the afternoon. In the evening there will be moving pictures and fireworks.
