

EACH HOLE AT THE RIVERTON GOLF CLUB IS A VERITABLE VERDUN FOR LOCAL GOLFERS

RIVERTON LINKS FINE FOR DUB AND EXPERT

Finals and Semifinal in Annual Class Golf Tournament Will Be Completed by Nightfall

12 PLAYERS ARE LEFT

By SPICK HALL. A GOLFER who craves hazards should go up to Riverton. At the Riverton Golf Club this craving is sure to be satisfied.

This condition is helpful to the dub and the expert alike. In the first place, the unskilled player always has a chance even against the best opponent.

On the other hand, the good player's game will improve over the Riverton links, because he has to take far more care in making each shot than he does on the average course.

Low Scores Rare

Low scores at Riverton are rare birds. The par for the course is 71, yet the best that has ever been done over it was done by Duncan Cutbert, the club professional, before he went to war, a 76.

Speaking of the Riverton course, Cutbert said yesterday: "You have to watch every one of your shots, and if you don't, you're in trouble right away. You may go along all right nearly every hole, but one bad shot means that you make an 8 where you should have made a 4, and your medal score is gone then and there."

John T. Dorrance, vice president of the Riverton Club, who took a personally conducted tour over the links with us, stated that he expected the course to be in wonderful shape within another year. "We have been going to now," he remarked, "but it's going to be better. This is only our second season west of the woods, and it is hard to get the turf in shape. Our fairways and greens will greatly improve by a little more. It is hard to get good turf in Jersey anyway, but we are going to have it."

Regular Rural Scenery

There are seven holes, the first, second, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth, sixteenth, seventeenth, eighteenth, on the east side of the woods, that is the side on which the clubhouse is located. These have been played on for a long while and are in fine shape. Formerly the Riverton Club had only nine holes and they were laid over the course where these seven are now situated. On the other side of the woods, from the third to thirteenth, the ground is ideal for golf. It rises from the woods toward the west in such a way that hazards almost make themselves.

Going from the second green to the third tee, the players have to go through a narrow stretch of woods, which is

Scraps About Scappers

Boxing at the shore tomorrow night. Following Monday night's fight, the riveter scene shifts to the shore. Frankie Brown and Vernon Brown clash in the main fray before a crowd of 1,000 at the Atlantic City Sporting Club tomorrow evening. Frankie will come from the shore to the top one night last winter when he dropped Johnny Kilbane for the three count.

Willie Coulon and Victor Ritchie will clash in a return battle in the three semi-final bouts one week ago. Don Cutch is tutoring Coulon, in the other bouts Leo Rowlands faces Jim Hooker and Marty (Nick) Hayes engages Jimmy Parker.

Renascence will have a chance to grab some of the "big" money in a fight with Johnny Mealy, the boy who dropped Willie Lewis for the world title. Ward, the Elizabeth, N. J., entry, in the main event at the Casino, opposite the Friday night. Ward has won his last two battles at the Casino.

Johnny Moran is booked to meet Kid Diamond in the Casino semi-final. Young Diamond and Artie Campbell clash in the main event. Ray of Malley, former prizefighter, will exhibit against Johnny Dusan in the second semi-final. The contest brings together Mike Gibbons, of Port Richmond, and Young Pinky.

Bill Mactech, the former Penn ball player, who has just returned from overseas, was the guest of Eddie Pollock at Shibe Park. Mactech was hit by "Lefty" and "Righty" from the start. He picked four of the five innings. His hope went wrong on Lovinsky and Greb.

John S. Smith, chairman of the New Jersey boxing commission, motored up from Atlantic City to attend the meeting of the commission and promoter Glasman who saw a number of times discussing the boxing outlook.

"What Shibe Park crowd was a great tribute to boxing and Harry Edwards, president of the Olympia A. A., I have seen in the past. In fact, I never saw a crowd like this attend a show. The game has been played and I would be surprised to find it our leading sport before long."

Billy Purcell and Joe Cervino, the brace of winners, had the aid of Dr. G. O. Malar. The doctor was the official ball player and saw that there was no repetition of the Toledo disaster.

James F. Dougherty, the baron of Lehighville, and personal friend of Jack Dempsey, attended the big promotion. He had visions of a crowd the equal of Glasgow at the night of July 28 when Johnny Kilbane faced Joe Fox.

Al Clark was as much impressed with the record-breaking crowd as he was with the show. He had a ringside seat, but he was not in the ring. He was expecting an outbreak from the stands and was sure the spectators were on the job and all was well.

Fredy German, the Port Richmond leaman who missed the Willard-Dempsey fight by 500 entries, followed Joe Dusan's tip and made a clean-up on Dempsey. This important information was disclosed at a private meeting at the German, C. restaurant.

Al Thompson, the betting marine, expects to return to some in Chicago in a few days. Thompson says a baronet exhibition at the Thompson Hotel, London, will be expected to give all the lightweights a lesson in the art of boxing.

E. H. Hedley Gives Warner Little Taste of Defeat

Francis Warner, secretary of the Philadelphia Golf Association, was up at Riverton yesterday to see that the class tournament was conducted according to Hoyle and other well-known masters. He decided he would like to play a few rounds, so he picked on E. H. Hedley, Stenton, who had won his match from W. K. Woolman by default.

Mr. Warner picked on the wrong man. In spite of the fact that he was five down to Hedley at the finish of the eighteen holes.

Here is the card: Hedley—Out... 5 6 6 4 7 5 6 7 5—50 In... 6 6 6 5 7 6 4 6—51—101 Warner—Out... 5 6 6 5 8 6 8 4 7—55 In... 5 7 7 7 6 6 3 7—53—108

Besides the matches at Riverton today, the Lumberland were booked to take each other on over the east course of the Merion Cricket Club at Haverford.

refreshingly rural. In spite of its well-kept appearance it looks like real country, far from the maddening crowd. This stretch of woods gives the whole course an atmosphere that is lacking on most courses, where the impression is one of being in a vast, well-groomed hothouse.

Coming back from the west side of the course, the approach to the thirteenth green is unique. The green is situated back in the woods about 200 yards, with an approaching fairway something like 100 yards wide. As you walk in toward the green, with woods at either side and in front, you are reminded of your recent journey across the Delaware to Camden as the ferry boat worms its way into the narrow slip on the Jersey side.

On the whole, the Riverton course is one of which the club members should well be proud and one which will make any golfer go at top speed to cover with a moderately low score. Incidentally the club is building a new, spacious locked room under an equally spacious and pleasing veranda. When this is finished not only will the accommodations be ideal, but the clubhouse will be one of the most picturesque in this vicinity.

BARNES LEADS WITH 218 FOR 54 HOLES

Mike Brady Runs Second in Shawnee Open Tourney With 219 Score

HOFFNER TRAILS WITH 229

Shawnee Country Club, Shawnee-on-Delaware, Pa., July 16.—Keeping up their steady play in the third round of the open golf tournament at the Shawnee Country Club today, Mike Barnes, of Sunset Hill, and Jim Brady, of Oakley, continued to show the way to the other professionals. In accordance with custom the contestants were paired over again last night, and that left Barnes and Brady bracketed.

The gallery watched every shot of the western open champion and the Massachusetts favorite, and as was the case yesterday morning, Barnes proved the steadiest at the start. He began with five straight fours, whereas Brady dropped a stroke at the first hole. He got that back a little later, however, with a "bird" three at No. 2. Both reached the turn in thirty-six.

At one stretch in the early part of the season the Mackmen went thirty-five frames without scoring a run. That was the beginning of the first swing of the western towns, when two games were won out of eleven.

Walter Johnson Leads Walter Johnson, Bob Shawkey and Carl Weisman each has blanked the Mackmen twice this season and the trick has been accomplished once by Eddie Cleto, Sam Jones, Bert Gallia, Jack Quinn and Shocker.

Walter Johnson tops the league in the number of shutouts. He has five to his credit, two over the A's, two over the Yankees and one over the Indians. Sam Jones, Jack Quinn and Shocker each have four blank victories to their credit.

Tom Rogers is the only Mackman who has pitched a shutout ball this year. In his first appearance as a member of the A's he blanked the White Sox in Chicago with four hits. This was only a few days after the A's took the worst shutout beating of the year, when the Browns handed them an 11-0 trimming with Weisman pitching. The Mackmen got eight hits, but threw chances on the bases away.

The Phils, on the other hand, have been blanked only six times and just once has a rival club been shut out by the Baker laborers.

"Met" Championships Awarded New York, July 16.—The championship committee of the Metropolitan Association has awarded the senior title to meet to the Chamber of Commerce of Jersey City, to be held at the new Pershing Athletic Field, at Jersey City, on August 23.

SIX BLANKS FOR PHILS

BY EDWIN J. POLLOCK THE exhibition of the A's may be exemplified of how not to play baseball under the big tent, but the brown derby and other prizes of worth must be contributed to the men of Mack for perfection in one department. They know how to lose better than any other club in the circuit.

When the A's lose they usually lose right and leave no question as to the correct newspaper decision. When they go after a verdict they get it. All of which is verified by the fact that the Mackmen have been blanked more often than any aggregation under Johnson's jurisdiction.

Eleven times this season the Mackmen have completed a game without scoring a run, and only once has the opposition been kept from the scoring station in nine innings.

BINGLES AND BUNGLES

There were twenty-six hits for forty-one bases in St. Louis yesterday. It may be added that that is NOTER counting.

The day before he left to join the Casey Frank Woodward picked his best game of the season—for the Norristown Professionals. He gave Hilldale only five hits.

Atlanta took an eighteen inning game from Birmingham, 6-2. The Crackers didn't crack.

Wonder if the ghost of Harry Baker, Collins and McInnis fitted across Connie Mack's brain yesterday when his A's clubbed out a victory by scoring four in the ninth?

The Phil catching department not only changes masks but faces, too. The son was started with Adams, Cady and Probert and is now with Adams, Clarke and Traggesser.

Today is the last of the Reds and tomorrow the beginning of the Cards. Most persons see the cards and red together.

Walter Johnson shut out the Indians yesterday. Seven clubs would like to look out Walter.

Answer to query: No, Paquette is not the name of a new soft drink. It belongs to the new Phil recruit.

The signing of Terry Turner didn't make Whitey Witt covered at all. Whitey would rather play the outfield than the infield any day.

Pick Burns bought a corner in Connie Mack's baseball heart when he doubted in the ninth and sent the winning runs over the wire.

The Phils are determined to knock the "1" out of Eddie.

Eddie Cletoe trimmed the world's champion yesterday. A man is only as old as he pitches.

It's the open season for managers to re-learn. Rottle Zetter yesterday turned in his powers to the Toledo club. Roger Bresnahan succeeded him temporarily.

Hess-Bright at S. & C. Hereinright, champions of the Manufacturers' League, in the attraction at Straw-bridge & Clothier held last Saturday. Monte Cross, the veteran stock player, will officiate as umpire at the game.
