After all, it's the "making" of anything that makes it what it is.

Cool Crashes

Men's Suits are no exception.

We tell you, of course, from time to time what fabrics we have, what colors, what shades, what patterns -and we like to tell you those things because we believe you will find them the largest, most varied assortments in town.

I But the real thing that we wish to emphasize is what has happened to those materials when we get through with them.

¶ We put our whole heart and soul into making them into Suits that will show up different from any and all others.

We examine every stitch of that cloth all over again. We shrink it once more for good measure. We cut it suit by suit, we fashion it and finish it with the best skilled workmanship that human hands can perform.

¶ And when it's finished we go over it inch by inch to make sure that every thread is in its place, every button properly sewn on, every buttonhole a masterpiece.

When you buy it you may rest assured that you have a dependable, well-made, handsome Suit of Clothes!
