FO' TWO CENTS

MISSUS JONES

AN OFFUH MAH

SUHVICES. DIS

FAMBLY AM SHO'

AWFUL FEEDERS

YESSUH. AH'LL

PLENTY LJOBS AN'

I DON'T HAVE TO

BE PUSED UPON

JES' QUIT !! DEYS

JAWN M'GRAW WILL SEE RED IF HIS GIANTS LOSE SERIES TO PAT MORAN'S CINCINNATI CLUB

LITERARY SOLITUDE, OR HOW TO ENJOY A RAINY AFTERNOON

Baseball Scribe Has Swell Chance to Murder Exclusive Interview While Deciding Bets and Listening to Chatter of Boxers and Ball Players Out of Work

> By ROBERT W. MAXWELL Sports Editor Evening Public Ledger

Time-Any damp, moist, murky, muddy, wet afternoon.

Place-Evening Public Ledger Sport Foundry.

BASEBALL SCRIBE (enters with a smile and a brilliant idea) - Game off. Joe? Swell stuff. Guess I'll sit down here while the place is quiet and dash off a couple of columns of breathless stuff so the dear old public will read the rids tomorrow. Pretty soft on these rainy days. Nothing to do but write about things you know nothing about.

Seizes typewriter, shifts gears, throws it in high speed and starts. "Manager Cravath, of the Phils, is worried over the outcome of the ball game last week. He reinstantly handed out some chatter which is regarded as highly confidential and asked that nothing be said about it However, we are in a position to tell the real reason for the present standing of the club--JOE otheroffice hoy is Jimmy Dougherty on the phone. Wants to talk to your

SCRIBE-Ain't there nobody here to talk to him? JOE-Nope: Jake Weinstein came to and took can all out to land;

SCRIRE (greats) Just my linek. Switch itin on the phone and I'll get an DOUGHERTY Hello, my box, how , the weather? Haw, how ' thightte be here. Goin' any place next Monday night's What are you don' halden' me? Didn't get your ficket yet? Something a wrong there. You know, I always take care of the boys. Must do that Machaethe mails by show Oughtta get at gext Saturday morning. Who's tightin'? What's tight? Another of them jokes? Why Johany Kubane, featherweight champage of the universe, is lighter Joey Fox, English champion, or somethin like that. It will be a stapendors affair, plenty of excitement and there should be a thrilling climat. I know this is true leause Jimmy Isaminger wrote it. Now, if you want to know what Promoter Dougherty thinks about it, let me state that Joe. Fox is goin' to get SCRIBE-He aughtta ges life.

DOUGHERTY A chance to see how good he is against a REM, feather weight and will give a swell exhibition. The right nomes off next Monship night an' you GOTTA be there. Kilbane is comin back strong and if he bents Fox he will challenge Tendler or anyhody than't say nothin' about it, but hav, would that match be? "Nother thing: shack Dempsey won") referee: Can't be here, be cause he wants to be a movie hero. Killbane will be fore, though, not that s enough. Gotta take care of the hors, now, and see that they get some tickers. MUST take care of the boys. Good by.

SCRIBE cresumes writing; "is due to the fact that only four games were played last week. Had seven or right been played the standing of the club would have been something to be proud of because-Enter Charles Weismuffler, with energy of WEIRMULLER Froglown oughtta was today in the mod. Swell price. SCRIBE: ignoring tine-"perhaps the Phils would have won seven or eight games instead of four. Cravath has a good ball club and can Enter Muggsy Taylor, well known matchmaker, promoter and syndicate,

TAYLOR—Well, well! Here's the old boy himself. Now we can have a nice quiet chat on some real stuff I have up my sleeve. Gotta swell show to spring next month. Awful good. Benny Leonard. Mike to Dowd. Ted Lewis. Patsy Cline, Johnny Dundee and Soldier Bartfield all on the same card. Pretty SCRIBE (sarenstically) How about Juck Dempey? Ain't be good enough?

TAYLOR—Just, a minute JUST A MINUTE. It must that kind of a show. In a short time I expect to get in communication with the world's champion and make him a flattering offer which he cannot reject. In DUE time I shall try to introduce the champion to the sport-loving public of Philadelphia against a worthy opponent. In the meantime, please mention in a casual, off-handed way that Johnny Tillman meets Johnny Griffiths in Denver on July 25, Tillman is the most glittering, gorgeous, garish pabler in the land. Why, he-

SCRIBE—He oughtta fight in Australia so we can't see him.

Voshell now are speeding along the reigned. Welsh suffered more verbal tails to Cleveland, where they will enter the ratio of the championship after he rails to Cleveland, where they will enter the ratio of the championship after he rails to Cleveland.

TYPEWRITER-"the games are played in the rain or on a muddy field. Moisture and mud do not interfere with their-

GLASSMAN—Low Tendler's ground train again soon. Gound use him in a special show in August. Matched him with Charles White. Swell four, TYPEWRITER—"speed. At any rate, Manager Cravath says confidently that he expects to skid out of last place in the near future and

TELEPHONE-Sporting editor? Well, me and a friend has gotta het that a L. Sullivan never was composed of the world. Now to decide this het Scribe harls down receiver. Business Then resumes writing-"percentage table. In a short time the club will make another Western trip and according to Manager Cravath in this exclusive interview more games will be won-" TELEPHONE-Is Mr. Carolan in yet?

SCRIBE-No, mise, he am't here. Any message? Yes, I'll tell him you will go to the motordeome with him next Thursday night. You'll be first on the Oh, don't mention it.

TYPEWRITER—"than on the last trip. Manager Cravath is confident this will be done and will bet on it. The pitchers are going better than ever before. Bradley Hogg has left the maiden class and now has one victory to his credit. Perhaps he will win another if he gets some breaks. At any rate, the new manager is ready to launch-

LOAFER-Say, what's the matter with them Phils? They ain't doin nothing this year an' just look at the A's. Now when the Phils was losin' I goes downstairs th' other day and I says-

Losfer from local room enters.

SCRIBE (surcustically)-Never mind what YOU said. It ain't worth repeating. And listen. This is no recreation park or smokehouse. Understand?

TYPEWRITER-"a drive which will astound the other seven clubs in the National League. This is inside stuff-'

JOE-Man outside to see you. Didn't give no name, but looks like that SCRIBE-Lissen, Joe. I ain't been here for a week and won't be here until

I get back from Frisco. Show him th' gate.
Runs fingers through bair, bangs head and continues writing TYPEWRITER-"and can be taken for what it is worth. Man ager Cravath knows what he is talking about and must be taken—"

TELEPHONE—Say, Mr. Editor, please put in the paper that the Hard, won by William Tilden, 2d, and Vin- has been schooled in this style of ring

Boiled Eggs, hard to hest, is the heat sixteen year-old uniformed team in the cent Richards at Lengwood last year. city. How much does it cost? SCRIBE.—They's nobody in (slams down receiver). And I office boy and The annual tournament for the chambureau of information in this joint? The next time I have a swell story I'm goin' pionship of eastern Pennsylvania in to a nice, quiet place like Baldwin's and get it off my chest. Resumes writing. TYPEWRITER-"seriously. Although untried as a pilot in the big show, Gavvy has the goods. He is fearless, tells the boys what he has on his mind and-" TELEPHONE-This is Johnny Burns. If you don't say something in the paper about Joe Borrell and the Cambria club. I'll bring a bum down and blow-SCRIRE-That will be two burns if you bring it. Good-by, TYPEWRITER-"so forth. Tomorrow he will open with the Pittsburgh Pirates in a double-header and says the game will be played rain or shine if it doesn't-

TELEPHONE-"Say, who won the third race at Empire City? What's You go there yourself, you big-

Scribe again slams receiver on book Enter working staff accompanied by Jake Weinstein.

SCRIBE-Well, who lost the decision? SPICK HALL-Weinstein. He reached for the check first. SCRIBE-You guys must have one-way porkets. You get your hand in and and A. Picolet, TYPEWRITER-"rain. That's sound logic-Enter John Sherman, with military walk. JOHN-Got some exclusive news for you. A big golf match will be played at North Hills next Saturday between me-SCRIBE-Who are you? JOHN-I'm runner up in the third sixteen and will play Mr. Winskill for the title. Come out and see it. SCRIBE-If such dubs like Woody Platt or Eddie Styles get in the way. em off the course. Remind me about it next Monday, TYPEWRITER-"from Connie Mack and-"

Scribe tears hair again and jumps from chair. story about the Phils an' Gavvy Gravath and wind up by introducin' Connie SCRIBE-Am I gettin' cookoo or somethin'? Here I start on a exclusive JOE-That guy is back again. SCRIBE-Throw him out. He might be the best collector in Philadelphia he couldn't collect a thought in this joint. My exclusive story is ruined and a Brodic over the back fence. Just hold that collector five minutes, He'll never find me after that.

WONDER WHAT THE COOK THINKS ABOUT

FO DE LAN' SAKE! MO COMP'NY! AH NAIVEH WUKKED SO HAHD IN MAH LIFE - AH AIN'T SO STUCK ON DIS PLACE

ALL JES SLAVE SLAVE FIM MOHNING TILL NIGHT - AN AH MIN'T FEELIN' WELL A. TALL - NOBODY ROUND DIS HOUSE SEEMS TO CARE

AH'LL GIT MAH PAY AN' BEAT IT-DEY AIN'T GOIN' T GIT NO MO' WUK OUTA ME - AH'M GOIN' ON A VACATION

. EE YUH YUH YUH

DE FUNNIES OL

DEY SUHTAINLY HAS

DISHES IN DISHYA

HOUSE - EF . YUH .

YUH - YUH - YUH - AH

GOT BETTER

MAH SE'F

ME FO DE

SEASHO

· WAIL HERE AH

GOES MAKIN ANOTHER PIE BUT

DEY AIN TA GWAN

TO GIT NO BISKITS

TONIGHT - NO SUH - NO.

INDEED - NO IN- DEED

Johnston and Griffin Again Form Doubles Team-Play in Kansas City

WON TITLE IN 1915 AND 1916 HE DELELOPS ATTACK

All doubt as to William M. Johnston's partner in the championship doubles Is JOEY FOX another Freddy Weish?

Welsh, the brilliant little Freddy Weish? from the sectional doubles at Longwood and would instead play in the northwestern doubles at Kansas City.

On the advice of the same officials Voshell now are speeding along the reigned. leavor to qualify for the national doubles championship by winning the see tional tourney at Cleveland. By this channel of reasoning there will be quite a few strong teams to oppose the Australians in the national doubles, instead of one, if all competed this week at acknowledged not only by Welsh sup-

Will Be Favorites

If Johnston and Griffin succeed in Must Be Aggressive Tilden and Vincent Richards, the na- the gathering.

rife speed, and his overhand volleying, heart and one who loves the game, tion was deadly. Griffin Great on Defensive

Griffin was a wonderful defensive t was almost impossible to drive them Fox Underrated back. They won the national title at Lord Forest Hills in 1915 by defeating Me- Lonsdale helt in the featherweight di-Longhlin and Bundy in the challenge. cound after a five set struggle, and suc resufully defended their bones the fol-both entering the service. Johnston in the pavy and Griffin in the army, and Cnywyd Tourney Saturday Saturday afternoon on the clay courts of the Cynwyd Club. In addition to these two events, there will also be held the Pennsylvania state junior and ris center championship.

Play will begin each day in the boys' events at 10 a, m. The junior events. will start at 3 p. m., and the men's events will start at 5 p. m. Prizes will be awarded in each event. The In addition, Joes following members of the tennis comtournaments until men of Friday, July 25: Warren Miles, C. N. Beard, Dr. P. R. Hawk, G. R. Powell, Carl Fischer, Americanize the clever little Englishmay not succeed, still be cannot be H. W. Swayne, William T. Tilden, 2d. man. He has had flashy American acrested for trying. One thing is Swayne, William T. Tilden, 2d.

Hugo Bezdek Ill; Leaves Pirates for His Home

Huge Bezdek, manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates, left the team here this morning and returned to his home in Pittsburgh. The Pirate leader has been suffering from a nervous attack, and at the request of his wife left for Pittsburgh for a

In the absence of Bezdek the Pirates will be handled by Acting Captain Cutshaw, assisted by Max Carey, the captain, who just has rejoined the club after an illness of three wooks.

AGGRESSIVE TYPE OF RING STAR IN FAVOR

Welsh. Great Fighter, Unpopular Because He Depended Upon Strong Defense—Also Hurt Fox

became known that on the advice of the man who dethroned Willie Ritchie in hecame known that on the north London back in 1914, waded turough the S. N. L. T. A officials Johnston the American lightweight field for third and Clarence J. Griffin and withdrawn ty-three months before he finally empire. lated to the battering attack and crush ing assault of the gallant little Benny Leonard.

Welsh was outpointed by more see Fred B. Alexander and S. Heward and raters than any champion who eye from the scribes than any predecessor.

What was the trouble? Welsh was an underrated and un-anding into the same form as that The American boxing public admires nutional doubles champions, many are Any hoxer who called a following as age, for 1 knew that eighty five per large to be applied that there doesn't seem cribes it to his rushing, fearless factics, cent of the fans came there every time. Harry Passon, who of 1915 and 1916, when they were the and stands by, an aggressive fighter. to be another team in this country that It is typically American and for this to see me get my head knocked off. I basketball record for playing three can defeat them. This includes Bill reason makes an immediate hit with notice that this Joey Fox's case is sim-court history. Johnston was the ag- drawing eards because they force the show up the rapping ones," gressive hard hitting member of the fight. Jack Dempsey is a popular Few Yor Boosters.

as he came racing in for the net post- But Freddy Welsh lacked these qualities. He was a wonderful defensive hattler. He could block punches and evade rushes with the utmost skill He was an artist on the defense. offensive was limited to a puny left jab. ston. He was the deadliest and craftiest offensive was limited to a puny left jab. of lobbers, and when he and Johnston He had developed no attack. For this reason he was aupopular.

vision, has been builded a reception similar to the one accorded Welsh. has engaged in at least five battles this city. He fought well, gave In 1917 the champions did not play, his best, but in ceturn all he heard were howls of disapproval.

Joey is a typical English fighter. He work and to become a convert to the American style cannot be accomplished in a day

Ted (Kid) Lewis is an exception. nen's singles and doubles will start this Right now Lewis is an aggressive boy and almost as American in his attack as the best. Lewis's change in style made him a popular fighter.

Fox. however, admits his style did hoys' championships and the junior ten- not impress. Joey is a bright fellow and it didn't require many of the hissing good-bys to convince him that Punches Well something was wrong.

In addition, Joey has a very wise manager. Johnny Mooney, the former mittee will receive entries for these Boston promoter, is recognized as one of the wisest, fairest and squarest hox- promised a lot of punches, ing men in the game. He is beloing to stars working with his protege at Herrmann's gymnasium.
"It will be a different Joey Fox that steps into the ring against Johnny Kil-bane at the Phils' Park on Monday night from the Joey who has fought well, but failed to please in the past. said Manager Mooney. "Fox is a great fighter, but one underrated by the fans. "He has absorbed much during his brief stay here on this visit. He has developed an attack. His defense always was good, but he has learned that more than a defense is necessary to win. He will use both on the popu-lar Cleveland boy." There to Knock

The majority of the gathering that will attend this match will be there for one purpose—to witness the annihilation of Fox.

There are fans who attend fights to

British May Pension Driscoll, Ex-Ring Star

London, July 22.-Jem Driscoll, retired featherweight champion, his announced his intention of returning to the ring, and it is reported that lack of funds prompts the contem-plated move on Driscoll's part.

At a recent dinner at the Eccen-tric Club, Lord Lonsdale suggested that if it were true that Jent's finances are in poor shape British sportsmen should vote him a pensifor life in recognition of the manne in which he upheld the honor o Great Britain by his victories in American rings. The suggestion met with unani ous approval.

In fact, he invited it. porters but by many of the boys who | Fulladelphia Jawn, "when I heard the have opposed him. "Ally McWilliams will make his list appearance at second base, and in the hove start to how. They wanted to see me knocked cold and every time I ducked a punch they hissed me. "I always wanted to box on percent-Tional indoor and outdoor champions. Benny Leonard, Johnny Kilbane. "Well, I admive Joey, I found that tion nine, of which he has enarge and Johnston and Griffin form one of the Johnny Dundee, Lew Tendler, George it never burt my fighting. In fact, it which, according to the records Harry smoothest doubles team of American Chancy and other aggressive boys are did much to make me work harder to

Few Fox Boosters

ceived yesterday from one of the memhers of "The Fox Rooters' Club," of Kensington:

> Boxing Editor, the Evening Public Ledger.

Philadelphia, Pa. Dear Sir:

There are a lot of guys around here who say that Joey Fox won't have an ice cream cone's chance Hades when he meets Johnnie Kilbane on Monday night at the Phillies' ball park, I'd like to know where they get that stuff off of. Killiane is a great fighter, but when meets Fox the American is going to have both of his gloved-hands more than full. There's one gang that's pulling for Fox and that make will be heard loud and plenty when the bell rings. The bunch will be composed of "The Fox Rooters" Club" of Kensington.

We all like to see a boxer who gives the fans a run for their mo Fox is one of those fighters. He'll not only give the cash customers all the action they want, but Mr. Kilbane also will be in the running. You can say that the champion won't he overlooked.

You know that Fox is a good two-handed boxer, he doesn't hold on like a lot of supposed-to-be championship contenders be punches all the time, and young Mr. Kilbane is

Fox is out for a knockout. He certain, the smart guys who think Kilbane is going to have things all his own way are going to admit they were very much mistaken. Kilbane is in for one tough fight.

and there's going to be a heluya big mob making a brass band per-formance when Fox is egged on by "The Fox Rooters' Club.

Phil Glassman announces that he will stage another all-star card at Shibe Park on the night of August 4 Lew Tendler will face Willie Jackson in the wind-up. The other bouts follow: Ted Lewis vs. Steve Latto in a return battle, Joe Tiplitz vs. Frankle Britt, Joe Welling vs. Eddie Moy and George (Young) Erne vs. Frankle Confere.

MORE TEAMS PLAN J. & J. Dobson and Recreation

Team Latest to Join the Ranks

McWILLIAMS WITH DOBSON

Several more of Philadelphia's representative baseball teams have joined the They are the J. & J. Dobson team, of goal the Main Line, and the Athletic Recreation nine. They both play on Wednesday nights. For its opponent tomorrow evening the Dobson aggregation will play was outpointed by more sections than any champion who ever Welsh suffered more verbal from the fans and bitter drives seriles than any predecessor, but on a hissing act. The hissers will seriles than any predecessor, but on a hissing act. The hissers will be on the pitching mound ngainst "Pete" Liebert.

Managers Cathoun and Bates, of Dob-

When Philadelphia Jack O'Brien was son, are doing all in their power to at his best he had many knockers. But strengthen the East Falls aggregation in this never approved Phyladelphia Jawn, order that they may capture the secondhalf penpant. The announcement "It always made me smile," said unde that in the contest with Ambler "Ally" McWilliams will make his first league battle on Saturday Harry Fritz will make his debut at a position to be decided on before that time.

Harry Passon, who holds a world's licity in behalf of the Athletic Recrea "Well, I admire Joey. I found that tion nine, of which he has charge and keeps, has won sixteen in a row without meeting defeat. He has decided the time is ripe for twilight games, and thmorrow evening through the opposing court with ters sive. He is a fighter with a fighter's The following communication was rewill stack up against Harry Scibold's All Stars. The former Athletic hurler has surrounded himself with a collection of Main Line stars and altogether has a fine line-up, Harry Passon would like to book games at home on Satur-days and on Wednesday evenings and away on Sundays. He can be reached at the recreation center.

Evening Games Pay

The financial success of the evening tion is the case at Nativity. The Richmond club's finances are derived from a hat collection, and in their last night engagement it was found that $382 had been lifted, one-half, or $191, of which went to the visiting team, which in this case was Hilldale.

Manager Hagerty, of Nativity, paid a visit to Atlantic City on Sunday in an endeavor to bring the Bacharach Giants to Richmond? but missed the manager of the Shore Wonders by a few minutes. Hagerty wishes to an-nounce that Nativity will play Quaker City on Friday evening and not Lupton, announced. Quaker City will have Bobby Mair on the mound. He has not een scored upon for forty-five innings. "Spha" Playing Fine Ball

Owing to the McForbes team deciding o travel the S. P. H. A. team is without a game for this Saturday. Although this is the "Spha's" first season on the diamond, they are having exceptional success, having defeated some of the best home teams in this vicinity. "Chick" Passon, who last year pitched for Becker, Page & Smith, of the Manufacturers' League, and won eleven of fourteen games, is pitching in fine style. The team has been trengthened by the addition of Canady, the captain and shortstop of the 1916 Southern High team. This addition has enabled Manager Williams to shift Kravitz to the outfield where he is playing sensational ball. Manager Williams also has several open

Dickinson 1785 J. NATIONAL LEAGUE PARK PHILLIES vs. PITTSBURGH

BRILLIANT VICTORY OF 1913 POLO TEAM RUNS HIGH IN SPORT

Conquest of This Famous Quartet Over Great Britain's Reputed Unbeatable Riders Is One of Six High Spots in American Sport

> IN THE SPORTLIGHT-By GRANTLAND RICE Copyright, 1919. All rights reserved

Six High Spots in American Sport No. 1—The Big Four Ride Again

THE first week in June, 1913, found the American sporting contingent at So far as one could see with the undressed orb. Great Britain was on the verge of taking back the polo trophy, won at Hurlingham several years before and twice successfully defended. But American prospects had suddenly gone bloole. The Old Four who had triumphed so often looked to be in the sere and yellow. Their day was

No one figured them with a chance. They were merely a last resort, a final resource that perhaps might make a game, and courageous stand in

ENGLAND'S riders — Captains Chenpe, Edwards, Ritson and Lockett—must have felt a confidence equal to America's depression, They formed a great quartet and the situation looked to be within

The Unforgettable So, on a balmy June day, in the presence of 25,000 or more who knew S little of pole, but who sensed a great international contest, the two teams was passed from the field to the big crowd. The Old Four might be all in, but they were out for one last whirl one dashing finale that would get somewhere or cost a neck. Riding "hell for leather" they went to it. Man and pony took every chance in the percentage realm, and within a minute and thirty-six seconds J. M. Waterbury had secred the first goal for the U. S. A. To suggest that started something would be putting it entirely too gently.

FOR the first time the eroud began to have visions of possible victory.

Veterans Attacked Early

FOR in that first period the American cam rode and played as it had never ridden or played before. Captain H. P. Whitney decided the time to win was at the start, before the older team became wearied down. And of all the polo my international match ever has seen nothing surpassed the play of the Old

Four in that first charge. After Monte Waterbury had secred Larry Waterbury came through & short while later with a second goal, and before the period ended Devereux ranks of those playing twilight baseball. Milburn, probably the greatest of all Number Fours, had rung up still another

Three goals to none in the first period! And this by a team that many believed to be outclassed.

THE first period was the episade that turned the trick.

England's Rally CTARTING the fifth period, the United States team was leading by 5 goals to 1. The Big Four had secred six goals, but had suffered two penalties for rough riding in their wild rush to prove they were not yet eligible for a veranda seat in the Old Man's Home. It was here that England made her final rally. Realizing that in place of winning with fair case, they were about to be beaten again, the invading four went to it with a dash. In attacks led by Cheape and Ritson they scored two goals and brought the fight almost to even terms.

But this was their last stand before the continued onslaught of their op-The United States team was penalized again for half a point in the seventh

THE American team had actually world eight goals, but had suffered three penalties on their way up and out.

period, but when the final period arrived it was Larry Waterbury who nailed

England's last chance with another goal, leaving the final count at 51/2 to 3,

The Big Four's Last Victory THIS match ended the Big Four's victorious stand. A year later England sent another set of challengers across, and this time the cup went back, British soil. Of that English team not one man is left. Captain Cheape, one of the greatest polo stars that ever played, was one of the first to fall with the Contemptibles that held back the German rush. One by one the others were temptibles that believe the killed outright or badly wounded.

THERE will be another American polo team leaving for British soil next summer, but of the eight who fought it out in June, 1913. not more than one will be in action when the next test comes.

Tomerrow-McLoughlin vs. Brookes.

PATSY WALLACE SCORES

victory.

This bout was not the only exciting This financial success of the evening games is the appealing feature to those who have undertaken to stage the aftersupper affairs. As much and in some cases more than the receipts of Saturday have been realized. An illustration of the success of the semiwind-up one of the s Patsy encountered a willing every one started clamoring in the ring.

It was several minutes before order was mixer in Max Williamson, but Wallace are several minutes before order was restored, but it was a good fight while was all broken out with eagerness to, it lasted and in itself well worth the fight last night and the diminutive price of admission

Italian came through with a clear-cut

ESTABLISHED 1850

ND the New Four, hended by Forball Keene, had suddenly dis-A integrated when Keene cracked a collarbone and left for the The Sudden Change THERE was nothing to do, of course, but to call in the Old Four again for a last ride. This team consisted of the two Waterburys, H. P. Whitney and Devereux