WANAMAKER'S DOWN STAIRS STORE

The Dress Most Often Worn Is Usually of Navy Crepe Georgette

There is no other dress that seems to be appropriate for so many occasions, no dress that seems to muss so little or to require so little care. In fact, a woman's Summer wardrobe is not complete without a dress of blue Georgette.

New dresses with a hint of Autumn about them have been appearing during the week Half a dozen are made without beading, but are embroidered with silk in interesting square patterns or made with knife-pleated tunies. An unusual frock has deep tucks on the tunis which the control of the control of the transfer that the control of the tunis which the control of tunisments are tunisments. the tunic which shows only at the sides,

Among the beaded dresses are many handsome border designs showing conventional squares or scrolls or scattered with red cherries. Some are beaded in blue, some gleam with red and others have glistening ougles or crystal beads.

Prices on these charming dresses start at $22.50 and go to $50. Georgette dresses in lighter color start at $20. Thousands of Cotton Frocks of voiles, tissues, dimities, swisses and organdies are ready to be put into vacation trunks. Their Summery charm is at its height. Excellent choosing at $5, $6, $7.50, $8.25, $8.75 to $23.50.

The Commercial Stationery Store Has Moved Into New Quarters

It is now to be found on the Gallery, Market Street and Juniper cor-ner, just a half flight down from the Main Floor. Here is a roomy, bright store devoted to the thousand and one little conveniences for the office and for the writing desk at home, as well as a great number of useful things made of paper. Here are fountain ens of the Wanamaker make and other good brands, pens, pencils, all sorts of erasers and inks, charming little sets of sealing wax and wee candles. Pertinent at this season are the various stickers which can be used for labeling jars of preserved fruits and jellies. They are priced 15c and 25c the package.

Then there are handy packages of writing paper to take on vacation trips or to give to the departing friend, by way of a gentle hint. For the summer picnics that the rain has delayed there are paper plates of many sizes, waxed paper drinking curs and straws, crepe napkins and table covers and boxes for carrying lunches. Men Seeking Office Supplies will find this new location most convenient, as it adjoins the Men's Furnishings and Clothing Store. It is the matter of a moment to pick up office needfuls on your way to either of these splendid stores. (Gallery, Murket)
