INTERNATIONAL REGATTA

for Races in September

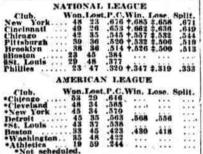

Boston, July 23 .- Oarsmen from Australia, New Zealand and Canada plan to visit this country in September for races with American amateur sweeps. Major Paul Withington, a former Harvard crew man, who is overseas, sent a cablegram to his brother, Lothrop Withington here, announcing the desire of colonial oarsmen to meet the American. As a result local rowing club officials are discussing arrangements for an international regatta to be held in the Charles river basin, some time in

Polo Final Postponed

New York, July 23.—The final pole match for the Blizzards Cup, which was to have been played at Cedarhurst Long Island, yes-terday afternoon, had to be postponed again because of the inclement weather. Coopera-town and the Rockaway teams will fight it out in the final round.
