

Creek Turned Torrent; Chicago Dirigible Tragedy; Salvaging Scuttled Ship; Divers Views

MISS GERALDINE GRAHAM, of Santa Barbara, Calif., is often acclaimed as "the most beautiful young woman in American society." She has appeared in New York society the last two years and is to make her formal debut at Newport this year.

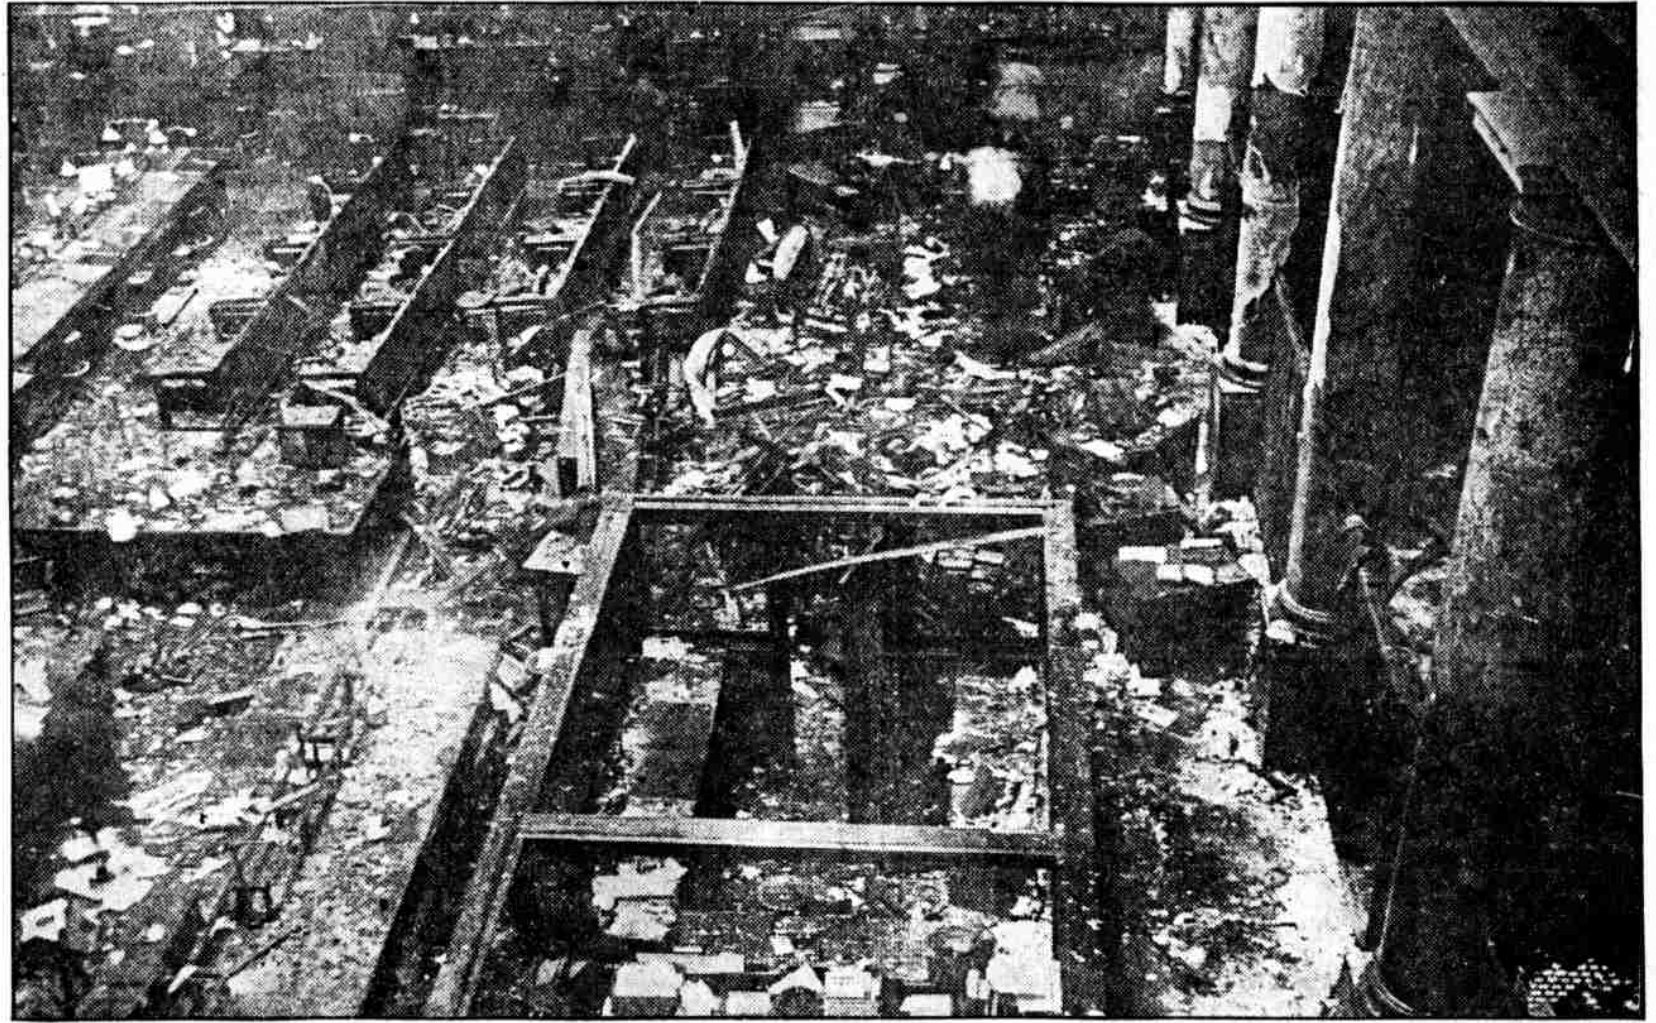

THE INCESSANT RAINFALL has proved too much for Cobbs creek at Sixty-third and Market streets. The usually well-behaved little stream has breached the restraining dam and is running wildly down its course

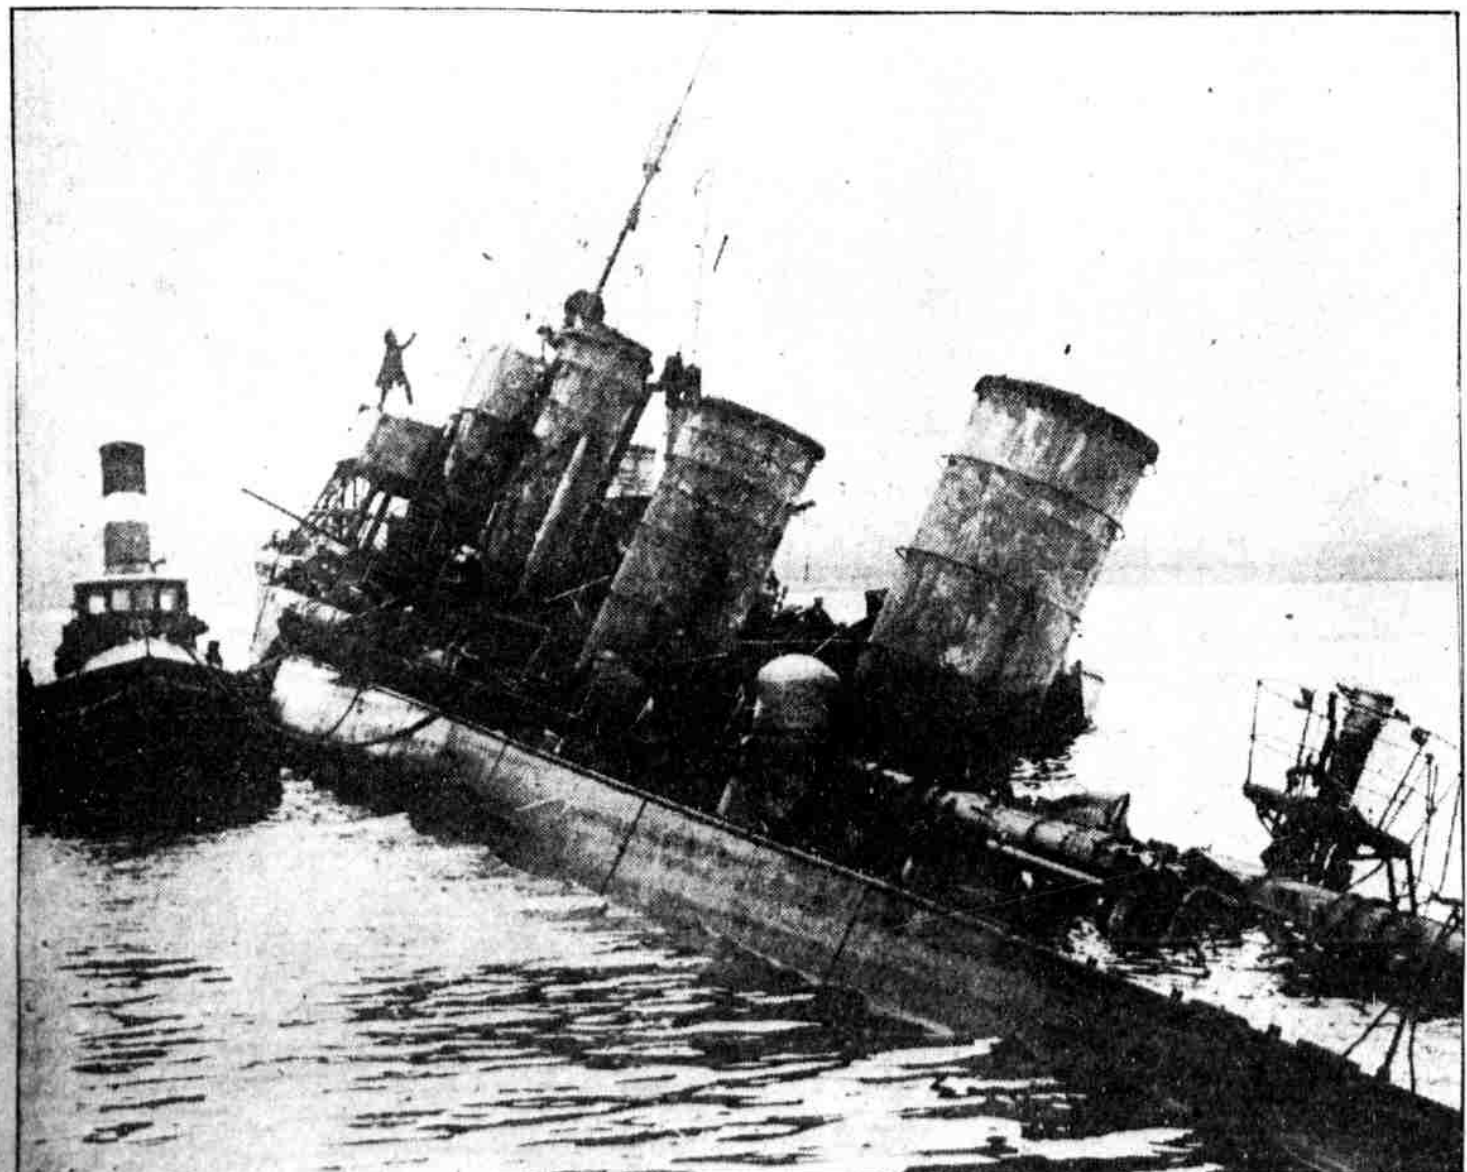

A SHORT-SKIRTED Parisian summer frock worn at Longchamps.

FRANK L. POLK, assistant secretary of state, and Mrs. Polk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Potter, of Philadelphia, on the deck of Imperator, on which they sailed for France. Secretary Polk is to take Secretary Lansing's place as peace delegate

INTERIOR OF THE Illinois Trust and Savings Bank, Chicago, wrecked when the flaming dirigible, Wing Foot Express, plunged through the skylight, killing twelve persons, chiefly girls, and injuring more than a score of others

MEN OF the British navy raising one of the German destroyers scuttled and sunk by its crew at Scapa Flow, Scotland. Many of the Teuton warships, including the great dreadnoughts, are to be floated.

THE SHATTERED SKYLIGHT, through which the blazing dirigible crashed into the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank, showing firemen at work on the roof