

Berlin Strike Transportation : Middies at Panama : Royalty and Coster on King's Highway

JAMES CARDINAL GIBBONS at eighty-five. Time has made comparatively little inroads on his health, and his intellect is as keen as ever. He takes his daily walks and enjoys them.

Photo LEDGER PHOTO SERVICE

MRS. DAICHUAN QUO, wife of Tai Chi Quo, technical delegate of China to the Paris Peace Conference. Doctor and Mrs. Quo are recent arrivals in America. Mrs. Quo will visit her sixteen-year-old sister in Springfield, Mass., while her husband goes to Washington.

A BERLIN "JITNEY" transporting passengers during the trolley strike in the German capital.

A STATELY white satin evening gown for mid-summer of becoming, simple lines. Strings of pearl and a streamer of crimson roses.

© W.N.U.

MIDSHIPMEN from Annapolis Naval Academy inspecting the locks of the Panama canal. Twelve hundred middies were carried to Panama from Cuba on six battleships.

JAMES J. McCABE, composer of American music for "My Country, 'Tis of Thee." The patriotic words have always been sung to the tune of "God Save the King." Mr. McCabe bears a striking resemblance to President Wilson and is often mistaken for the Chief Executive. He is district superintendent of New York schools.

© HARRIS SEWING

THE KING AND QUEEN of England on their way to St. Paul's Cathedral, London, to the thanksgiving service for the closing of the world war.

'ARRY AND 'ARRIET and little Nipper, all dressed up in their pearls in their smart little turn-out, on the way to the Coster Donkey Marathon at Kow, England.