

Some Delvers of Anthracite : A Catching Little Yawn : At the Long Branch Horse Show

MINERS IN the primary grade, breaker boys and lads employed on the mine surface, who later on graduate to skilled delvers of hard coal.

Photo by LEDGER PHOTO SERVICE

Photo by LEDGER PHOTO SERVICE

MULE DRIVER who hauls the newly mined coal from the working chamber to the carriage where it is taken to the surface.

A PENNSYLVANIA hard-coal miner just from the pit, always eager for the smoke denied him while at work on account of the danger from explosive gas.

PHOTO BY LEDGER PHOTO SERVICE

AT THE END of the day's work, greeting their father as he emerges into the sunlight after his daily toll in the mine depths.

Photo by LEDGER PHOTO SERVICE

YAW-W-W-UM-UM! Another trying day ahead. Mother, sisters, nurse and a lot o' people to regulate one's existence and keep a fellow from living his own life.

Photo I.F.S.

MRS. WILLIAM DU PONT, who was Miss Jean Austin, of Philadelphia, on Witchcraft, a ribbon winner at the Monmouth County Horse Show.

Photo I.F.S.

A GENERAL VIEW of the field at the Monmouth County Horse Show at Hollywood Park, Long Branch, N. J. The show marks the twenty-second annual exhibition of the Monmouth County Horse Show Association. Thoroughbreds from many stellar strings are entered.