EPPA STRATEGY FAILS FL. Louis

By EDWIN J. POLLOCK By EDWIN J. POLLOCK CRIPPLED and battered and beaten. the A's are with us again after an St. Louis with defeats, but their heads are up and they're going out to battle Tris Speaker's Indians in a double-decker this afternoon

Connie wasn't anyway pleased over the showing of the club on the road. Who could be when twenty games are lost out of twenty-seven? But Connie i is convinced that his pitchers are working in great shape now and he believes that his athletes are going to land a few ball games before they depart for foreign ports again on August 13.

Whitey Witt, Amos Strunk and Joe Dugan all have been sticking around the bench on the road, but it is believed that they all will be able to get into the pastiming here. Strunk will play in today's double-header. It is not probable that either Dugan or Witt will see service for some time.

Terry Turner, who was nicked up by Mack when he was released unconditionally by the Indians, will make his first appearance here as a Shibe laborer today at second base after showing for Cleveland against the A's here for fifteen years. Tris Speaker also will make his debut as the manager of the Ohio
