

HISTORY AND BIBLE FIGURE IN FORD SUIT

Doctor Johnson's Definition of Patriotism Quoted by Counsel for Defense

EMMA GOLDMAN'S VIEWS

By the Associated Press
Mount Clemens, Mich., July 31.—Reference again was made to Dr. Samuel Johnson and the doctrines of Emma Goldman, and Prince Peter Kropotkin was quoted today in the hearing of Henry Ford's libel suit against the Chicago Daily Tribune.

Professor William A. Dunning, of Columbia University, an expert on history and political science, called by the plaintiff, was still under cross-examination by Elliott G. Stevenson, senior counsel for the defendant.

It was finally established, according to the testimony, that when Doctor Johnson said "patriotism is the last refuge of scoundrels," he referred to Edmund Burke.

Mr. Stevenson continued his efforts to bring out the scriptural characteristics of well-known anarchists to show, as Mr. Ford's attorney, Alfred Lucking, said, "how complimentary the Tribune was in 1916," when it published an editorial headed "Ford is an Anarchist."

Kropotkin was quoted by Mr. Stevenson as writing: "We specifically disavow treating others as we would not have them treat us."

Mr. Stevenson adduced that the scriptural equivalent of this is found in "Love thy neighbor as thyself" and "Do unto others as thou wouldst be done by."

When witness answered one of Mr. Stevenson's questions with the nod of his head the lawyer reminded him that the stenographer could not hear nods.

"You believe in President Lincoln?" asked Mr. Stevenson.

"That's what he complained of—disloyalty at home among the copperheads."—"Yes."

Meaning of "Anarchism"
"There was a long colloquy over the meaning of the words "anarchy," "anarchism" and "anarchist." Professor Dunning insisted that one who seeks by violent means to overthrow government is the best definition of an anarchist as commonly understood.

"I am trying to show that the utterances of Emma Goldman and Henry Ford are alike," said Mr. Lucking. "However, let Emma Goldman be the test."

When Mr. Stevenson had concluded his direct examination was begun by Mr. Lucking. He read from decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States where the word violence was included as an essential in the definition of "anarchist."

"That agrees with my understanding," said Professor Dunning.

Witness Contradicts Lawyer
Mr. Lucking announced that he would read from the essays of Emma Goldman and in the course of an objection Mr. Stevenson said:

"This witness was called to the stand to refute our witness, Professor Reeves, and ends by confirming everything that Reeves said."

"I did nothing of the kind," broke in the witness, turning to Judge Tucker.

"Excuse me, professor, I will repeat that you agreed that Professor Reeves told the truth," insisted Mr. Stevenson.

"Very well, Mr. Stevenson, and I will repeat that I did nothing of the kind."

Mr. Lucking was permitted to read. Then he asked some questions.

Emma Goldman's Doctrines
"Emma Goldman wrote on subjects other than anarchy?"

"Yes. On prohibition, which she opposed, and woman suffrage, which she also opposed," replied the professor.

"Now because Emma Goldman and the wets were in agreement, would you call the wets anarchists?"

"No sir."

"Does the law of the United States allow anarchists to come into the country?"

"I object that this is not rebuttal," put in Stevenson.

"Why yesterday Mr. Stevenson was trying to show how nice the anarchists are, how good, how Christian," said Mr. Lucking. "Now we wish to show—"

"The witness may answer," said Judge Tucker.

"The law excludes them," replied Professor Dunning.

Mr. Lucking quoted from Emma Goldman's writings:

"Anarchism rouses man against that black monster (God)."

"Religion fetters the mind of man."

"The state, with its theory of property, fetters the needs of man."

"Society enslaves the spirit of man."

"The lawyer said these quotations represented the essence of the teachings of Emma Goldman, and asked if he found any such sentiments in Mr. Ford's writings."

"I do not," said Professor Dunning.

GRINSTEAD DEFENDS 'HARD-BOILED' SMITH

Draftic Action Was Necessary Because of Numerous Army Desertions, He Says

Phoenix, Ariz., July 31.—(By A. P.)

Further defense of Lieutenant Frank H. ("Hard-Boiled") Smith in his conduct of prison farm No. 2 at Chilled, France, and assertions that large numbers of American army desertions necessitated drastic action were made by Colonel Edgar P. Grinstead in a formal statement issued today.

Grinstead was mentioned in testimony Tuesday before the congressional committee in New York and the main responsibility for prison crafties in the American expeditionary forces.

"Everybody that was a soldier in France knew that thousands of our men were running away from the front lines and that had the war continued many executions would have been necessary before these desertions could have been stopped," Colonel Grinstead said.

He characterized as "absurd" imputations that he had made a scapegoat of Lieutenant Smith or had been a party to such action. "I don't believe and never did believe that Lieutenant Smith did anything but his duty at farm No. 2," he added.

It was finally established, according to the testimony, that when Doctor Johnson said "patriotism is the last refuge of scoundrels," he referred to Edmund Burke.

Mr. Stevenson continued his efforts to bring out the scriptural characteristics of well-known anarchists to show, as Mr. Ford's attorney, Alfred Lucking, said, "how complimentary the Tribune was in 1916," when it published an editorial headed "Ford is an Anarchist."

Kropotkin was quoted by Mr. Stevenson as writing: "We specifically disavow treating others as we would not have them treat us."

Mr. Stevenson adduced that the scriptural equivalent of this is found in "Love thy neighbor as thyself" and "Do unto others as thou wouldst be done by."

When witness answered one of Mr. Stevenson's questions with the nod of his head the lawyer reminded him that the stenographer could not hear nods.

"You believe in President Lincoln?" asked Mr. Stevenson.

"That's what he complained of—disloyalty at home among the copperheads."—"Yes."

Meaning of "Anarchism"
"There was a long colloquy over the meaning of the words "anarchy," "anarchism" and "anarchist." Professor Dunning insisted that one who seeks by violent means to overthrow government is the best definition of an anarchist as commonly understood.

"I am trying to show that the utterances of Emma Goldman and Henry Ford are alike," said Mr. Lucking. "However, let Emma Goldman be the test."

When Mr. Stevenson had concluded his direct examination was begun by Mr. Lucking. He read from decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States where the word violence was included as an essential in the definition of "anarchist."

"That agrees with my understanding," said Professor Dunning.

Witness Contradicts Lawyer
Mr. Lucking announced that he would read from the essays of Emma Goldman and in the course of an objection Mr. Stevenson said:

"This witness was called to the stand to refute our witness, Professor Reeves, and ends by confirming everything that Reeves said."

"I did nothing of the kind," broke in the witness, turning to Judge Tucker.

"Excuse me, professor, I will repeat that you agreed that Professor Reeves told the truth," insisted Mr. Stevenson.

"Very well, Mr. Stevenson, and I will repeat that I did nothing of the kind."

Mr. Lucking was permitted to read. Then he asked some questions.

Emma Goldman's Doctrines
"Emma Goldman wrote on subjects other than anarchy?"

"Yes. On prohibition, which she opposed, and woman suffrage, which she also opposed," replied the professor.

"Now because Emma Goldman and the wets were in agreement, would you call the wets anarchists?"

"No sir."

"Does the law of the United States allow anarchists to come into the country?"

"I object that this is not rebuttal," put in Stevenson.

"Why yesterday Mr. Stevenson was trying to show how nice the anarchists are, how good, how Christian," said Mr. Lucking. "Now we wish to show—"

"The witness may answer," said Judge Tucker.

"The law excludes them," replied Professor Dunning.

Mr. Lucking quoted from Emma Goldman's writings:

"Anarchism rouses man against that black monster (God)."

"Religion fetters the mind of man."

"The state, with its theory of property, fetters the needs of man."

"Society enslaves the spirit of man."

"The lawyer said these quotations represented the essence of the teachings of Emma Goldman, and asked if he found any such sentiments in Mr. Ford's writings."

"I do not," said Professor Dunning.

RAILROAD MERGER IN MEXICO ENDED

Lines Now Under Separate Management—Return to Owners Expected in Month

U. S. OIL FIRMS WATCHED

By the Associated Press

Mexico City, July 31.—The Mexican railways and the Pan-American Railroad, which systems traverse the territory between the capital and the Gulf of Mexico and the Isthmus, have been turned back to separate management.

Information from reliable sources is to the effect that the government probably will return the systems to the private owners within a month.

The management of these systems had been merged with that of the national lines since Colonel Paulino Fontes, former manager of these lines, took over the management of the national railways.

Washington, July 31.—A small army of secret service men has been dispatched by the Mexican Government to the Tampico oil fields, it was learned yesterday from advices from Mexico City, to secure evidence against American companies operating there.

One of the things the Carranza detest is that the oil companies have aided revolutionists in the campaign of the latter against the Carranza Government. Oil company officials say there is no ground for the suspicion.

The detestives are seeking employment with the oil companies. According to information which has been transmitted to the State Department the impression prevails in official circles in Mexico City they have instructions to manufacture evidence if they fail to find it otherwise.

Former Chief of Police Orsozza, of Mexico City, who is now the head of the Carranza secret service, dispatched the men, the exact number of whom is not disclosed.

There seems to be no doubt, however, as to the purpose of the secret service men, the exact number of whom is not disclosed.

It is reported that the oil companies have aided revolutionists in the campaign of the latter against the Carranza Government. Oil company officials say there is no ground for the suspicion.

The detestives are seeking employment with the oil companies. According to information which has been transmitted to the State Department the impression prevails in official circles in Mexico City they have instructions to manufacture evidence if they fail to find it otherwise.

Former Chief of Police Orsozza, of Mexico City, who is now the head of the Carranza secret service, dispatched the men, the exact number of whom is not disclosed.

There seems to be no doubt, however, as to the purpose of the secret service men, the exact number of whom is not disclosed.

THREE TARIFF BILLS BEFORE THE HOUSE

Republicans Plan to Dispose of Them Today—Democrats Object

HIGHER DUTIES FIXED

By the Associated Press

Washington, July 31.—The first tariff measures to come before Congress since the Republicans regained control were on today's House program for action. While leaders planned to dispose of three bills designed to protect American industries forced into existence by war necessity they were doubtful whether such a program could be forced through the House.

Democrats, though not expected to be a unit in opposing the new duty rates, planned to fight for continuance of prevailing rates or some slightly advanced, with executive provision for control of imports through a licensing system. Such control, they said, would give ample protection to the industries.

The bills scheduled for consideration included one levying high ad valorem duties on chemical glassware and apparatus; another providing a duty of $10 a ton on tungsten and the third fixing duties of $10 a ton on crude magnesite, $15 a ton on finished magnesite and $15 a ton plus 10 per cent ad valorem on magnesite bricks.

The measure of Representative Bacharach, of New Jersey, applying the high duties on chemical glassware and apparatus and also repealing the present duty-free provisions on imports for educational institutions and government bureaus, taxes glassware 45 per cent and surgical instruments 60 per cent.

The increases over the existing Underwood tariff bill as provided by the Bacharach bill are 15 per cent on chemical glassware; 10 per cent on porcelainware; 25 per cent on scientific instruments; 40 per cent on surgical and dental instruments and 45 per cent on optical glass, now on the free list.

House leaders planned to bring up today a bill repealing the wartime legislation permitting foreign ships to engage in American coastwise trade. The Hawaii Islands are partly exempted from the provisions of the repeal because of the shortage of tonnage due to the removal of ships from the Pacific to the Atlantic during the war. Before the war, foreign ships were kept from the coastwise trade.

Nab Two Auto Theft Suspects
Two men, suspected of stealing an automobile belonging to John Molin from a garage at Fifty-first street and Parkside avenue, were arrested today by Acting Detective Seal, of the Sixty-first and Thompson streets station. They were each held in $1000 bail.

ESTHONIA ASKS BRITISH AID

Infant Republic Seeks Commune Rule If Support Is Withheld

London, July 31.—(By A. P.)—The Estonian provisional government, in a statement received here today, asks further help in maintaining a republic and the right of self-determination by the international labor conference at Southport, England, a month ago.

The statement declares the Estonians, with the help of the Allies, have established a democratic republic and are struggling to retain their independence and the right of self-determination. The statement expresses the hope that "the democracy of England will not refuse further support" and declares that, if it is withheld, "Estonia will become inevitably a victim of imperialistic communism."

When Mr. Stevenson adduced that the scriptural equivalent of this is found in "Love thy neighbor as thyself" and "Do unto others as thou wouldst be done by."

When witness answered one of Mr. Stevenson's questions with the nod of his head the lawyer reminded him that the stenographer could not hear nods.

"You believe in President Lincoln?" asked Mr. Stevenson.

"That's what he complained of—disloyalty at home among the copperheads."—"Yes."

Meaning of "Anarchism"
"There was a long colloquy over the meaning of the words "anarchy," "anarchism" and "anarchist." Professor Dunning insisted that one who seeks by violent means to overthrow government is the best definition of an anarchist as commonly understood.

"I am trying to show that the utterances of Emma Goldman and Henry Ford are alike," said Mr. Lucking. "However, let Emma Goldman be the test."

When Mr. Stevenson had concluded his direct examination was begun by Mr. Lucking. He read from decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States where the word violence was included as an essential in the definition of "anarchist."

"That agrees with my understanding," said Professor Dunning.

Witness Contradicts Lawyer
Mr. Lucking announced that he would read from the essays of Emma Goldman and in the course of an objection Mr. Stevenson said:

"This witness was called to the stand to refute our witness, Professor Reeves, and ends by confirming everything that Reeves said."

"I did nothing of the kind," broke in the witness, turning to Judge Tucker.

"Excuse me, professor, I will repeat that you agreed that Professor Reeves told the truth," insisted Mr. Stevenson.

"Very well, Mr. Stevenson, and I will repeat that I did nothing of the kind."

Mr. Lucking was permitted to read. Then he asked some questions.

Emma Goldman's Doctrines
"Emma Goldman wrote on subjects other than anarchy?"

"Yes. On prohibition, which she opposed, and woman suffrage, which she also opposed," replied the professor.

"Now because Emma Goldman and the wets were in agreement, would you call the wets anarchists?"

"No sir."

"Does the law of the United States allow anarchists to come into the country?"

"I object that this is not rebuttal," put in Stevenson.

"Why yesterday Mr. Stevenson was trying to show how nice the anarchists are, how good, how Christian," said Mr. Lucking. "Now we wish to show—"

"The witness may answer," said Judge Tucker.

"The law excludes them," replied Professor Dunning.

Mr. Lucking quoted from Emma Goldman's writings:

"Anarchism rouses man against that black monster (God)."

"Religion fetters the mind of man."

"The state, with its theory of property, fetters the needs of man."

"Society enslaves the spirit of man."

"The lawyer said these quotations represented the essence of the teachings of Emma Goldman, and asked if he found any such sentiments in Mr. Ford's writings."

"I do not," said Professor Dunning.

Every Night This Week

Hotel Adelphia Roof Garden

REFINED ENTERTAINMENT AND DANCING

Come to Dinner and Spend the Entire Evening at

"THE COOLEST PLACE IN TOWN"

| | |
|--|--|
| 1. McPHARLAN and PALACE Two Kings of Comedy | 5. PRINCE ILMA QUARTET In Their Caravan Songs |
| 2. MADAME DORA DAVERO Coloratura Soprano | 6. LIBRA The Mystery Woman |
| 3. MAURICE Ideal of the New York 400 | 7. THE HISLEY SISTERS Songs and Dances |
| 4. MISS SARAH JONES Novelty Singer | 8. THE BROADWAY ENTERTAINERS |

Entertainment Begins 9:30
Cover Charge: One Dollar—After 9:30 P. M.

In the Bacharach Q. S. Policy Clearance Sale—Special Feature—$10.00

"Arctcraft" Broadcloth Silk Shirts $7.35

All their name implies—Arctcraft and Broadcloth and Silk! Plain colors and jasper stripes in blue, green, tan and lavender. All sizes. Men will WANT them! All have separate soft collars of a good high shape.

Closing out the remainder of our Summer Suits at greatly reduced prices.

We Want Three Good Salesmen

—and to the right men we will pay the most liberal salaries. Apply in writing only, giving age, experience and all details. Applications will be considered "absolutely confidential." Steady positions. Address Bacharach's Quality Shops, 1114 Chestnut Street.

Bacharach's Quality Shops

1114 Chestnut Street
920 Chestnut—37 S. 13th—52d & Chestnut
BUY WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

In Sweltering, Stuffy Hot Weather

When every pore of your body is cooling perspiration, and there isn't a bit of air stirring—ah! that's the time that the cooling breeze from a Polar Cub fan is like a breath from Heaven.

Why wait for a spell of such awful heat? Why sit in your room or office and suffer? Why spend a sleepless night tossing about till you're almost crazy? Get a Polar Cub today and be prepared for the hot weather. His price is only $5.85 and he uses but a penny of power in six long, cool hours. Height, 8 inches; blade diameter, 4 inches; beautiful nickel-plated motor, adjustable to any angle.

Polar Cub has two speeds and a stop and comes fully equipped with cord and plug, ready to attach to any electric light socket. If your dealer hasn't this fan, write us and we'll give you the name of one who has.

The A. C. GILBERT COMPANY, 327 Halsey Ave., NEW HAVEN, CONN.

Polar Cub $5.85 Electric Fan

Kennedy & Bro. JEWELERS

102 S. THIRTEENTH ST.
Cor. Drury Lane

Old Jewelry Modernized

IN THE LATEST AND MOST DISTINCTIVE DESIGNS
PLATINUM or GOLD

Prices Not Excessive
Let Us Estimate

Mail Orders Filled HATS TRIMMED FREE OF CHARGE Phone Orders Filled

Lit Brothers

Market Eighth ONE YELLOW TRADING STAMP WITH EVERY 10c PURCHASE ALL DAY Filbert Seventh

Purchase of Seventeen Hundred Fine, Cool Tropical-Weight Suits for Men

The stock of Joseph Goldsmith & Co., 15th and Wallace Streets, this city—for more than thirty years makers of men's fine, reliable summer clothing.

The firm is reorganizing—two of the members are retiring.

Two-Piece English and Conservative Styles

A phenomenal deal just put through in the "nick of time" for August vacationists. Every suit is brand new, in fact, just being unpacked as this notice is being written.

Suits Actually Made to Sell for $20, $22.50 & $25

Choose Unreservedly Today at

$13.75

Silk Mohair, Palm Beach, Bermuda Cloth, Comfort Cloth, and a Host of Other Mid-Summer Fabrics

Suits that are distinctly high grade in both cut and finish, offering—

| | | |
|-------------|----------------|-------------|
| Plain Navy | Jasper Gray | Pin Stripes |
| Plain Black | Tweed Mixtures | Plaids |

Wonderful choice—wonderful values.
Lit Brothers—SECOND FLOOR, SEVENTH STREET

Women's & Misses' Pretty $8 to $10 Summer Frocks $5

This is a Chapter in Our Clearance Program of Which You Should Very Quickly Recognize the Bargain Worth.

They are fashioned in the prettiest styles brought out this season. Dainty sheer materials, including plain and figured voiles, batiste and net, as well as the practical tussah and gingham in attractive colorings.

The ideas portrayed embrace delightful variations of pockets, attractive belts, graceful sashes, striking collars, buttons and beautiful embroidered effects.

$5 The four models pictured will serve to give you a hint of the designs—they're all lovely and worth three to five dollars more.

Lit Brothers—Second Floor

Little Tots' $4 to $6 Sample Frocks $1.95

Beautiful Little Frocks Worth Two and Three Times the Sale Price

Of checked, striped and plaid gingham, solid color chambray, linen, Peter Pan material, colored voiles, batiste and white rep effectively combined with contrasting collars.

They are trimmed with embroidery, smocking, attractive pockets, belts and butterfly sashes. Sizes 2 to 6. One sketched.

| | |
|---|--|
| Women's $6.50 Slip-on Sweaters $3.85 | Women's $4 Sleeveless Slip-on Sweaters $1.95 |
| Women's $39c to 55c "Onyx" Sample Stockings, 29c | Women's $1.25 Silk Stockings, 69c |
| Women's $44 Sleeveless Slip-on Sweaters, $1.95 | Women's $1.25 Silk Stockings, 69c |

Zephyr yarn in plain and fancy weaves. Have purring and tassels. In buff, salmon, turquoise, peacock and American beauty.

Women's $1.25 Silk Stockings, 69c
Rembrandt and Richelle ribbed. Black, white and colors. Imperfect.

Women's $1.25 Silk Stockings, 69c
Richelle ribbed in black and white. Spliced toes and heels. Re-enforced tops.

Lit Brothers—FIRST FLOOR, SOUTH

Specify Zementine

The Perfect Water Paint

In your contracts—for solid interior surfaces—plain and decorative—actual dollars and cents saving, yet you can guarantee a first-class job. "ZEMENTINE" is a splendid proposition—recommend it. Especially because of its low cost, surfaces can be "done over" frequently, maintaining a standard of bright and clean appearance.

Proven by more than 25 successful years' usage—for most purposes that an oil paint is used. In white and colors. By the 1 lb. 7c lb., smaller lots, 8c lb. Special price to contractors. Sample on request.

Householders can buy it in 2-lb. Cans
AT DEALERS'—20c
JOHN C. OETERS, 1242 N. 31st St.

Men's $8 "Shantung" Pongee Silk Shirts $5.98

Separate Soft Collar to Match Silk-worked buttonholes; soft cuffs.

$2.50 Shirts, $1.85
Striped pattern in new designs. French cuffs.

Lit Brothers—First Floor, 7th St.

Friday Bargains

Mail and Phone Orders Filled (Exceptions Noted). Bell Walnut 2800—Keystone (Our Free Service), Main 3700

| | |
|--|---|
| 75c Sugar & Cream Sets $39c | Remnants of $1.35 Cork Linoleum $85c |
| Floral and mitre cutting, Large sizes, Lit Brothers—THIRD FLOOR | 4 yards wide, sq. yd., Long remnant lengths. Bring sizes. No mail or phone orders filled. |
| Floating Bath Soap, cake 7c | RUGS REDUCED |
| 2pc Bath Sprays $6.75 | $30 Axminster, 6x10.6 ft., $22 |
| White rubber. Have five feet of white hose. First Floor, South | $18 Plain Blue Rag Rugs, 9x12 ft., $11 |
| $8 Indirect Lighting Fixtures, $5.95 | $12 Mixed Rag Rugs, 8x10 ft., $8.50 |
| Gas or electric, 16-inch bowl. Complete with hangers. | $12 Axminster Rug Strips, 27 inches by 12 ft., $5.98 |
| 70c Inverted Lights, 45c | $7.50 Axminster Rag Strips, 27 inches by 6 ft., $3.98 |
| Complete with brass burner, half-fronted globe and good marble. Lit Brothers—THIRD FLOOR | $10 and $12 Royal Wilton Strips, 27 inches by 6 ft., $4.98 and $5.98 |
| $1.75 Sheets, $1.29 | $18 Winner Gas Range, $12.50 |
| Seamless. Medium weight; bleached. No dyeing. Size $12.90 | Three burners and large oven. Can be connected with pipe or hose. Not white. |
| Lit Brothers—First Floor, North | $23 White Enamel-Lined Refrigerator, $16.95 |
| Remnants of 30c to 50c Drapery Fabrics, yard 19c | Top-tilt style. |
| Scrim, marquisette and cretonne. | $17.50 Sauce Pans, set of three, $1.19 |
| $1 Window Shades, 85c | 1, 1 1/2 and 2 qt. |
| Oil opaque. Guaranteed spring rollers; all fixtures. Wanted colors. | $1 Map Outfit, 69c |
| Remnants of 50c to 75c Awning Material, yard 39c | Includes 75c mop with adjustable flat-folding handle and can Cedar oil polish. |
| Khaki duck and fancy stripes. | 65c Double Roaster, 49c |
| Lit Bros. Wood Slat Porch Shades | Gray enamel. Small family size. |
| 7 ft. 6 in. drop. Green only. | $1.80 Step Ladder, $1.25 |
| 4 ft. $2.79 6 ft. $3.49 | 5-ft. with bucket rest; reinforced. |
| 6 ft. $4.69 10 ft. $8.69 | Lit Brothers—THIRD FLOOR |
| No Mail or Phone Orders Filled on Upholstery. | |
| Lit Brothers—THIRD FLOOR | |

Subway Store

Occupying the entire under floor of this big store—and selling up-to-date, seasonable merchandise greatly under price.

| | |
|---|---|
| WOMEN'S & MISSES' WEAR REDUCED | HATS TRIMMED FREE |
| Gingham Dresses, $1.98 | $2.50 to $4 Sports $1.49 |
| Smart styles. Limited lot. | Hats |
| Linene Dresses, $3.98 | Special purchase—exceptional values! Fashionable models in various values, attractively trimmed with ribbon. Wanted colors. |
| Silk Poplin Skirts, $3.75 | Women's Cotton Vests, 12 1/2c |
| In black, navy, taupe, green and Copenhagen. Regular and extra sizes. | |