

VETERAN TERRY TURNER TURNS IN A VICTORY FOR ATHLETICS OVER CLEVELAND INDIANS

ALARM SOUNDS FOR MACKMEN AND PHILS

Shibe and Baker Clubs Awaken From Baseball Hibernation—Five Out of Eight for A's

REVENGE FOR TURNER

By EDWIN J. POLLOCK

FOR the first time this year Philadelphia is getting baseball fitting to a city of a million and a half population. But for how long and again how long?

The A's are tearing along at a swift gait, hauling down the Indians from their lofty perch, and the Phils are delivering. Jack Dénémy blows on the cards in their effort to climb out of last place. The Philadelphia clubs have quit bobbing their heads in peaceful slumber. The Phils and the A's are awake.

Five victories out of the last eight starts is proof that the Mack hibernation is over. The alarm clock for the Phils sounded in the person of Garry Cravath and it rang earlier than the A's bell. The Baker boys have copped nine out of their last thirteen.

The Mackmen are well entrenched in the cellar. They have locked all the doors and there's not a chance to disturb them, but the Phils are seeing daylight already. Their win of yesterday melted the margin separating them from seventh place to one box score.

Terrible Terry

IT WAS a Turner win that was turned in at the Shibe home yesterday. Terry put all the might of vengeance behind his blow in the ninth, and the walk-off decided the encounter, 2-1. Terry was released unconditionally by the Indians after fifteen years of service in Cleveland, and naturally he didn't shed many tears over the downfall of his former teammates.

Three were on in the last inning, two were out and the figures knotted at one when Terry the Tamer strode to the plate. He let one go by, foul tipped the second, watched the third go outside and smacked the next one so hard he almost ruined Jasper's abdomen. Fred Thomas scored easily with the winning run. Terry the Tamer became into Terry the Terrible.

It was the second victory of the series over the Spokemen and the third win in the last four starts. The best the Indians can hope for during their stay here is an even break. The final game of the set is carded for this afternoon.

A's Outfit

IT'S NOT very often that the A's win a ball game and it is very seldom that they land a triumph unless they double the number of blows made by the opposition. Yesterday they were actually outfit.

Both Walter Kinney and Jasper twirled first ball, and if the truth must be told, the Clevelanders deserved the victory, judging from the number of hits recorded. He allowed only five bingles, and neither of the two Mack counters were earned. Kinney permitted eight bingles, but kept them well scattered, except in the third when three were clustered.

It was a loss of control in the ninth that led to Jasper's downfall. He walked Fred Thomas at the start of the final frame and Frederick was the individual who scored the deciding marker.

MAYS GOES TO YANKS, THEN IS SUSPENDED

President Johnson Scores Owners in Putting Pitcher Down for Indefinite Period

RED SOX GET $40,000 CASH

Chicago, July 31.—Carl Mays, the Boston pitcher, who was traded yesterday by the Boston Americans to the New York Yankees, has been suspended indefinitely by R. B. Johnson, president of the American League.

The suspension is the result of the desertion of the Boston Club by Mays in Chicago, July 12. Mays had a three-year contract with the Boston club, and when he left the club he broke this contract, Mr. Johnson declared.

The deal which was consummated in New York yesterday is not approved by Mr. Johnson, who said he was surprised to think that any club-owner would be dickered for a player who acted as Mays did.

"Baseball cannot tolerate such a breach of discipline," said Mr. Johnson, in suspending the player.

"It was up to the owners of the Boston club to suspend Carl Mays for breaking his contract, and when they failed to do so, it is my duty as head of the American League to act. Mays will not play with any club until the suspension is raised. He should have reported to the Boston club before they made any trades or sale."

Mr. Johnson today notified owner Frazee, of Boston, and the owners of the New York club of the suspension of Mays.
