ELEANOR H. PORTER.

Author of "Dawn"

gress" Discusses the Problem

From Original Documents

phia bar, has gone to original sources upon various phases of the race question in this country. The work shows search and is singularly temperate and free from controversial aspects. It is

Hilarious

Textbook of Aviation qualified, by experience, for the task he has undertaken in "Avlation," which he calls "a Theorico-practical Textbook sistant chief instructor at the Y. M.

is needful along the line of theory and many diagrams are helpful. This book should serve a useful function at this time when aviation has such prominence in a spectacular way and such

The Presbyterian Book Store

Everything Desirable in Books WITHERSPOON BLDG.

is rich in practical explanations.

promise in a commercial way.

for Students." Mr. Carmina is as Benjamin M. Carmina is peculiarly

J. E. Buckrose, one of the best known carefulness and thoroughness in re written in an admirably clear style.

TRAVEL, FICTION, THE JEWS AND THE RACE QUESTION IN NEW BOOKS

CIVILIZATION'S DEBT TO THE JEWS

Dr. Joseph Jacobs Writes a Notable Estimate and Appraisal of Activities

untoward claims. Doctor Jacobs was for the convenience of those who never far from being an apologete—his purpose in this book was simply to point a book Marquis has put his own prefout the share that the Jews have contributed to the advance of the world's the very last page.

prefaces from beginning to end. And cler or even the scientific observer.

She begins with an account of a voyage down the lower reaches of the Rumanian Danube, with graphic descriptions of the scientific observer. It is free from bias, partisanship or prefaces from beginning to end. And eler or even the scientific observer.

out of which he was so well qualified book. of its subject-an estimate of the Jews' relation to civilization.

JEWISH CONTRIBUTIONS TO CIVILIZA TION. By Joseph Jacobs. Philadelphia Jewish Publication Society of America.

SHANTUNG QUESTION

teresting and Authoritative Work

wrapped up in the peace treaty, Thomas F. Millard's book, "Democracy and the Eastern Question." has particular timealso has great value, for liness, it also has great value, for Mr. Millard is one of the best equipped and qualified of Americans to present the problems of the Orient and their possible solutions to his fellow countrymen, who, it must be confessed, in the mass have scant knowledge and possibly scantier interest in the matter. This, of course, is not as it should be. of isolation from international concerns times on idyl. and ended our policy of conscious sepa-

and to set forth contemporary topics. In this book he is definitely partisan. He is for China and he combats the policies of nations which, he declares. are exploiting the Chinese republic. He osserts that Japan's side, for instance, is amply cared for by the extensive Japanese propaganda in America. Says Mr. Millard: "Taking the case of China in toto, it presents almost an ideal test to apply to the principles of the major nations in prosecuting the war and making the peace." Among the topics he considers are China and economic nen-door nolicy, the

DEMOCRACY AND THE EASTERN QUES-TION. By Thomas F. Millard. New York: The Century Company. $3.

Under the Southern Cross the Southern Cross who chance to read "Understanding South America" will doubtless react to its statements, interpretations and opinions as citizens of juices and preserved fruit are all inthe United States from the days of Mrs. Trollope and Dickens to those of methods are given. The directions are Kipling and Masefield have reacted to condensed but clear. The book conthe voluble—and fortunately volatile—veniently assembles all that the houseimpressions of scribbling, scurrying for- wife, no matter how large her canning eigners who told us what for and why and preserving ambitions and opportuabout ourselves and our traits, habits nities may be, needs to know about the and institutions without hesitation, subject, without much or intensive investigation MANUAL and usually without provocation. That occasional resentment will be engulfed in a vast amusement and possi-

The author, Clayton Sedgwick Cooper, judging by the ttile of other books which follow his name, is evidently one of that quasi-journalistic cult which hurries through a strange country, pausing a bit here and there, quizzing all and sundry, and out of the mobilization of hearsay and personal impressions writes a book. Naturally such a work cannot be very authoritative. work cannot be very authoritative, though it can be readable and interesting, if the writer is alert with ear and eye, as Mr. Cooper apparently is as a good part of his time on his travels. ter Many of the things he records or interprets contain information for the North American; but others will hardly meet with the approval of South Americans. The closer unity brought about by the great war in the western isphere and the fruitful endeavors of the Pan-American Union make sympathetic and appreciative relations beween the United States and South America very desirable. Mr. Cooper points out some of our opportunities there in his discussion of industries, institutions, etc.

UNDERSTANDING SOUTH AMERICA Clayton Sedgwick Cooper, New George R. Doran Company, $2.

A New Dave Porter Book

Dave Porter fans have something new or cheer about and also something to deer about and also something to deep the series with the power Porter's war Honors." Now a new Dave Porter's war Honors." Now a new Dave Porter book is an event in juvenile ading circles, but the joyous greeting scatting this, the fifteenth of the series, will have its thorn, since it is also answounced as the concluding volume.

Mr. Stratemeyer tells Dave's thrilling adventures with the fighting engineers at the front. They are many, wired and thrilling, including an expectation of the English Church. "I wolume and thrilling, including an expectation of the English Church." I wolume.

Mr. Stratemeyer tells Dave's thrilling adventures with the fighting engineers at the front. They are many, with the fighting engineers at the front. They are many, with the fighting engineers at the front. They are many, with the fighting engineers at the front. They are many, with the fighting engineers at the front. They are many, with the fighting engineers at the front. They are many, with the fighting engineers at the front. They are many, with the fighting engineers at the front. They are many, with the fighting engineers at the front. They are many, with the fighting engineers at the front. They are many, with the fighting engineers at the front. They are many, with the fighting engineers at the front. They are many, with the fighting engineers at the front. They are many.

Mr. Stratemeyer tells Dave's thrilling adventures with the fighting engineers at the front. They are many.

Mr. Stratemeyer tells Dave's thrilling adventures with the fighting engineers at the front. They are many.

Mr. Stratemeyer tells Dave's thrilling adventures with the fighting engineers at the front. They are many.

Mr. Stratemeyer tells Dave's thrilling adventures with the fighting engineers at the front. They are many.

Mr. Stratemeyer tells Dave's thr

PREFACES TO BOOKS NEVER WRITTEN

Delightfully Whimsical Essays on Things in General

There are men who read the prefauthority on the Semites and their his- said at once that the prefaces are in for the people most wonderfully.

merits as a definitely worthy treatment ace would be enough to sell a large Bulgar reschields. fudge and corned beef and cabbage evidently enormously rich in natural which should be fortunate enough to wealth, and the people are very insecure permission to use it.

lection of delightful essays, some other, just as they have done for cen-whimsical, some humorous and some turies, outwardly on good terms, but Thomas F. Millard Writes In- can see a joke if they get possession if, living near our American towns and book "The Question Before Congress," swift revision of human aims and valof the book. It is full or unexpected villages, were true to the and appearance, and it comprises a consideration of the nes and with a debates and final action by Congress father and son. place of reward for the Puritans. In view of the Shantung imbrogilo PREFACES. By Don Marquis. New York: hating the foreign intruders on their

THE JERV AISE COMEDY

Fiction With Light Work

"The Jervaise Comedy" is both light and delightful. J. D. Beresford has Since the punitive march on Pekin a temporarily abandoned his graver accre of years ago the United States themes such as that of sex psychology themes such as that of sex psychology It has had some part in Chinese affairs, in his last full length novel, "God's and our entry into the great war on Counterpoint" and the development of the side of liberty, democracy and self-character as in his earliest novel "Hisdetermination has apparently severed tory of Jacob Stahl." for high comedy permanently from our old position sometimes verging on farce and some-

An elopment which is contrived but not carried out furnishes the nivot of Mr. Willard knows both the West and the plot. The plot involves a young the East. He edits an important jour- playwright whose week end visit makes nal in China, but makes frequent visits him a participant in the planned clopeto his native land. His journalistic ment. He, himself, also becomes entraining and his well-known position as training and his well-known position as a foreign correspondent fit him to sense and to set forth contemporary tonics.

The participant in the planned clope and faith made possible Columbus's distance of the New World. The full specific covery of the New World. The full decorate which is a participant in the planned clope. The portant discuments in the logs and faith made possible Columbus's distance of the New World. The full specific covery of the New World. The full atist's part in the affair adds zest to the ingenious situations invented by the mensely. style as brisk and bright as its sub- reader's understanding.

Siberian question and China's place in many years of experience in canning the war.

In the operation in the Heroes of the Nations' series and the author couple of hours, and preserving for special customers is known for an earlier work, "The Tales of the War. and preserving for special customers and in a public laboratory kitchen. Her book contains the tested old-school | ISABEL OF CASTILE, fly ferne L. Plun-ket New York: G. P. Putnam's Sons. recipes and also the methods employed in the new cold-pack process, which has been successfully used by many Natives of our sister republics under women through the educational propa-

MANUAL OF CANNING AND PRESERV ING. By Theodora M. Carrell. New York E. P. Dutton & Co. $1.50.

AT THE FREE LIBRARY Books added to the Free Library, This teenth and Locust streets, during the wee ending July 31:

Miscellaneous

M.-"Pius II." ler. L. C.-"Autobiography of Beicher, Henry - "First American Civil War."
Hlankenhorn, Heber-"Adventures in Propmfield, Reginald-"Studies in Archi-

Bloomfield Daniel—"Selected Articles on Dynkoymen' Management."
Rreal, Michel—"Semantica"
Bullard, Arthur—"Barbary Const."
Bumpus, T. F.— Cathedrals and Churches f Norway, Sweden and Denmark.
Calvert, A. F.— Grandle East Indiamen."
Chesterion, E. K.—"Apietite of Tyranny."
Celiton Automobile Directory. Chilton Automobile Directory, Clergue, Helen.—'The Salor. Clifton, Mrs. Talbot.—'Pilgrims to the leles of Penance.'' Cochran, J. C.—'Foreign Magic.'' Coombs, Florence—'Islands of Euchantment:

Curie, Richard—"Joseph Conrad."
D'Auvergne, E. B.—"Famous Castles and Palaces of Italy."
Dodd, A. F.—"History of Money in the British Empire and the United States."
Dugmore, A. A. R.—"Romance of the Newfoundland Carlhou."
Estep, H. C.—"How Wooden Ships Are Built."

Farrer, J. A.—"Monarchy in Politics." Pisher, A. H.—"Through India and Bur-Gasquet, Abbot-"Great Abbeys of Eng-

PRE-WAR LIFE

Don Marquis's Collection of Miss Bates Describes Conditions Among Our Near Eastern Allies and Enemies

IN THE BALKANS

The great merit of the impressive book "Jewish Contributions to Civilizate the present which the second the present t it maintains its thesis with admirable What the last class would do with describes their willy lives, occupations, argument, testimony, illustration and Don Marquis's latest book it is diffimanners and ideas with far more inducts it with admirable good humor. cult to imagine, for it is nothing but timate knowledge than the chance trav-

civilization and their constant partici- There is more entertainment in the tured, and in the villages in the heart pation in the progress of life. | volume than is usually found in the of the country, especial attention being |
Doctor Jacobs, for thirty years be- explanatory introduction to a book, given to the triganes, or gypsies. They fore his death in 1916, had been an | To remove misapprehension it must be go to the towns and villages and play tory and ideals. He originally planned a menumental work on "The Jewish Bace—A Study in National Character." the preface to a book of cigarette destruction." The buildings and streets Engrossment with other works, literary papers, and a preface to a book of fish and practical, prevented the consumband practical, prevented the consumband of this design, for the carrying safety pins and a preface to a check the principal object of interest here is King Ferdinand, and a more detestable and equipped. The present work is in a way a by-product of his original co- Rell Wright will never be printed in and according to her account of him and lossal scheme. But it is by no means any collected edition of the works of his barbarities. It is a wonderful change NEGRO LAWYER ON fragmentary. It is planned, cohesive this prolific and widely read diluter to pass from pictures of this maledorous and deserving of standing on its own of the decalogue. The cook book pref- life to the miles upon miles of long

Parts of the Balkan peninsula are dustrious. They are of many different Mr. Marquis's book is really a col- nationalities and live apart from each profoundly philosophical. There is an inwardly deadly hostile. It is almost evening of delight in store for all who exactly the same condition it would be of the book. It is full of unexpected villages, were tribes of Indians, exactly and it comprises a consideration of the ample, when he says he wishes some to those whom the Puritans saw when ne would develop the idea of hell as a they landed on our New England coast. to all appearance now friendly, but still

A chapter is devoted to a description of the life of the German settlers in by the Rumanians is shown by the comsecount of life in a Jewish family in Crontin, in which Miss Bates spent some time as governess to the daughter. is a strange but interesting home which is pictured.

scope of the volume, which covers pri-They will amuse readers im- marily the last half of the fifteenth century, but which has the earlier historic The book is written in a background properly established for the of the younger British novelists

THE JERVAINE COMEDY By J. D. Beresford New York; Macmillan Company.

Canning and Preserving

Canning and Preserving Theodora M. Carrell has written a restriction of the deservation of the deservational countries and domination of the deservation of the very timely and practical handbook for the home cook in "A Manual of Canning and Preserving." She has had

BOOKS RECEIVED

Fiction

OF THREE By Clifford Raymend, 11.50 NIGHT OPERATOR. By Frank L. Packard. New York: George H. Doran 11.50 Stant chief instructor at the Y. M. C. A. airplane mechanics school and a lecturer for the Aeronautical Society, of lett. Boston: Houghton-Mittlin Company which he was a founder and charter SI 03.

OFF DUTY Compiled by Wilhelmina HopDET New York: Century Company 11.50.
HE BLOOMING ANGEL. By Wallace IrWill New York: George H. Doran Company 11.50.
FIRST New York: George H. Doran ComPLESH AND FANTAGE win. New York: George R. Duran Com-sany, 11.50. FANTAST. By Newton A. Fissels: Roston: Cornhill Company, $1.40. LVIA AND MICHAEL. By Compon Mac-Kenzie. New York: Harper & Bros. $1.75. NY THE CARRIER. By largel Zangwill New York: Macmilian Company, $2. EZANOV, By Gertrude Atherton. Mod-ern Library. New York: Bont & Live-land To cents. NOV. By Certrude Atherton. Mod-Library. New York: Bonl & Live-ht. 70 cents.
Taker. By Daniel Carson Goodman.
Taker. By Daniel Carson Goodman.
Veryork: Bonl & Liveright. $1.75.
MOON AND SINPENCE. By W. Som-et Maugham. New York: George H. ron Combann. New York: George H. Fin Combann. See York: Confider.
W. York: E. P. Dutton & Co. $1.75.
ENCHANTED ISLAND. By Fanne-ulse apichn. New York: E. P. Dutton. Louise Apiohn. New York: E. P. Duttor & Co. $1.75. HE GROPER. Rv Henry G. Aikman, New York: Boni & Liveright, $1.60.

General POEMS. By Ernest Dowson, New York:
Bunt & Liveright, 70 cents,
WHAT AMERICA DID. By Florence Finch
Kelly New York: E. P. Dutton & Co. 52.
HELI-PING PERMICE. By Ruth Gaines. New York: E. P. Dutton & Co. 52.
HELI-AND'S FIGHT FOR FREEDOM. By George Creel. New York: Harper & Bros. DERMANY IN THE WAR AND AFTER By Vernon Kellogg, New York: Macmillan Company. $1.

PREFACES

Pack up a copy in your old kit bag and "week end it" in perfect harmony with things and a smile for the water

Pictures by Tony Sarg.

THIS IS AN APPLETON BOOK

$1.50 everywhere,

THE BREAK OF LIGHT RISING GENERATION THEME OF NOVEL

Son's Ideals Conflict With 'Dawn,' by Eleanor H. Porter, Father in Mrs. Watts's

When young Steven Rudd discovered When young Steven Ruda answered that an ancestral profiteer had dug the foundations of the family fortune he turned a straight and scornful back on the palace this fortune had built and the palace this fortune had dug the palace this fortune had dug the palace the pal struck out into a difficult world on his overwhelming darkness in the life of a youth whose sight fails, leaving him

Steven's high ideals and his strug- despondent. g'e to keep them high are portrayed of whom Steven is one-by inheritance at least. With his sturdiness he combines a temperament, and this temper-ament is a source of puzzlement and distress to his materialistic father, who lacks not only a temperament, but also Steven's delicate fineness of character. THE RACE ISSUE so when young Steven, on the basis is happy. A delightful character is of old letters discovered after a lapse "The Question Before Conof many years, charges that the family and Mrs. Malaprop. reveling in riches accumulated largely by a scandalous granddad and demands DAWN. By Fleanor H. Porter. Boston. Houghton Mifflin Company. $1.50. that his father give up his wealth and start anew a very definite breach opens at once between Steven and the elder George W. Mitchell, of the Philadel- Rudd.

It is then that Steven strikes out for for his book on the race issue in the himself, and he is on the doorstep of United States, Mr. Mitchell calls his success when the war breaks, with its ues and with a reconciliation between

FROM FATHER TO SON By Mary S. Watts. New York: The Macmillan Company. 41.73.

Poems by Ernest Dowson

"Poems and Prose of Ernest Dow-THE JERVAISE COMEDY
Transylvania, and especially of their graduated from Howard University, and has practiced law in this city for the varied and invaluable "Modern Library" virtually all the verse and a law to be a proposed.

J. D. Beresford Varies Serious

Mr. Mitchell, bern in Virginia, was graduated from Howard University, and has practiced law in this city for the varied and invaluable "Modern Library" virtually all the verse and a law to brary virtually all the verse and a law to brary virtually all the verse of the large the base for efficient and achieving Mr. Mitchell, born in Virginia, was by the Rumanians is shown by the com-non saying. 'Give the German a pig-non saying, 'Give the German a pig-varied his legal vocation with the decadent and symbolist, who died twen-work in solving the numerous and presand you will give him a companion.

The closing chapters are devoted to an avocation of historical research and ty years ago, singing of love and spring ing problems of reconstruction. study, this book being the fruit of more and youth, himself hardly out of life's She'by was for some time editor of the than ten years' investigation and springfide. Readers with whom Dow- News Letter of the woman's committee philosophical scholarship.

The book sets forth the historical mous poems of passion, that to Cynara, her contact with the activities of the background of slavery in the colonies. "Libera Me" (the pitiful plea to Aph-national and state headquarters has chief is pictured.

The ALLIES AND ENEMIES IN THE STATE East. The fight against it in the constitutional NEAR EAST. By Jean Victor Bates, With an introduction by the Right Hon. New York: E. P. Duttin & Co. 15.

The fight against it in the constitutional redited, and the others. In striking convention of 1787, the moral crusade contrast to their roses and rantures are the delicate and devotional "Renediction of Face Peace. By Gertrade Carton, K. C., M. P. New York: Henry Holt & Co. 15.

The fight against it in the constitutional redited, and the others. In striking given her many stimulating ideas, contrast to their roses and rantures are the picture picture. In striking given her many stimulating ideas, contrast to their roses and devotional "Renediction of Face Peace. By Gertrade Carton, K. C., M. P. New York: Henry Holt & Co. 15.

The fight against it in the constitutional redited, and the others. In striking given her many stimulating ideas, contrast to their roses and rantures are the picture. In striking given her many stimulating ideas, contrast to their roses and rantures are the picture. In striking given her many stimulating ideas, contrast to their roses and rantures are the picture. In striking given her many stimulating ideas, contrast to their roses and rantures are the picture. In striking given her many stimulating ideas, contrast to their roses and rantures are the picture. In striking given her many stimulating ideas, contrast to their roses and rantures are the picture. In striking given her many stimulating ideas, contrast to their roses and rantures are the picture. In striking given her many stimulating ideas, contrast to their roses and rantures are the picture. In striking given her many stimulating ideas, contrast to their roses and rantures are the picture. The picture is the delicate and devotional "Renediction of the delicate and devotional "Renediction o The Patroness of Columbus

Our subterfuges employed to nullify treme Unction." Dowson was essentially the several enfranchisement amendaments to the constitution by certain poems still rings poignant. Read after grossing story of the life of the great states. Several appendices exhibit im- a quarter of a century the Swinburnian Castillan sovereign whose patronage portant documents in the negro move- echoes seem more marked. The regrets and retrospections of lost youth-youth poems akin in feeling to the Housman of "A Shropshire Lad."

COE''S AND PROSE OF ERNEST DOW 80N. Introduction by Arthur Symonds N. Y.: Benl & Liveright, 76 cents

A Psychic Revelation Reported by Dr. albert D. Watson

The 20th Plane

A tremendous sensation in osychic circles has resulted from its publication. "Far and away above . . . works of this kind . . . well worth perusal."-Boston Transcript.

Every Bookseller has it. - $2.00 net. GEORGE W. JACOBS & COMPANY,

Don't Miss The TIN SOLDIER

By Temple Bailey 50th Thousand At all bookstores $1.50 PENN PUBLISHING CO., Philadelphia

ACOBS 1628 BOOKS STATIONERY AND ENGRAVING WHEET ME AT JACORE

Daylight Bookshop 1701 Chestnut St., N. W. Cor.

Optimism "Dawn" is a typical Eleanor H.

THROUGH BLINDNESS

a Typical Story of

The new day breaks for him in the in the intest novel of Mary S. Watts, realization that even though his From Father to Son." The story is troubled spirit cannot go to the front told with that simplicity and intensely to fight for his country, he can be of buman touch characteristic of all that great help at home as a fellow sufferer, rich in sympathy and understanding, to But there is little of the accustomed the blinded soldiers and both lift them atmosphere of the Middle West which out of spiritual despair and aid them one has grown to expect in this writer's virtually in self-respecting labor. As a books in the newest of her novels. The matter of fact the work which he learns chronicle for the most part unfolds it- to do and which he teaches them is of in New England-fashionable New delicately mechanical production England as the summer visitor sees it.

However, the principal characters in the book are sturdy middle western folk, low men as well. All this is not ac complished without many trials and difficulties, and of major concern is the course of his love for the girl who has understood his wild meads from the first, Needless to tell any reader of Mrs. Porter that the love story ends right for Keith and Dorothy and that every-

Susan Betts, a composite of Silas Wegg

Problems of Peace Gertrude Shelby in "How to Face

Peace" has brought together what amounts to a virtual symposium on the proper methods of making permanent and capitalizing for the national and community welfare the forces and organizations brought into fruitful exist ence by the necessities of winning the war. The machinery of many of these, although hastily assembled, was constructed on sound principles and ran without much friction. The question now is whether all that has been de-

Margaret Deland

Author of Small Things

Great little stories of little lives torn from their niches of peaceful labor, of mad German things, incompatible with civilization's idea of playing the game, of our American girls across seas, of our doughboys marching gayly "into the dark," of the "upspringing divinenesses" that made war bearable. And in the simple beauty of their telling, these inimitable glimpses of the bright soul of France will touch the heart of every American.

"Small Things |- but Mrs. Deland's treatment of them makes them seem great and glorious. One notes in all this narration the insight of genius. . . . It is a choice book." — Hartford Courant.

This is an Appleton book At all booksellers'. $1.35 net.

THE YOUNG VISITERS By Daisy Ashford With an introduction by J. M. Barrie

"Place your order to-day with your favorite bookseller for 'THE YOUNG VISITERS.' It is without the slightest doubt the funniest book that was ever bound between covers. I predict a vogue for 'THE YOUNG VISITERS' that will cast a deep dark shade over the 'Pigs is Pigs' tradition, surpass the supersale of 'Dere Mable' and blot out all memory of 'The Four Horsemen Of The Apocalypse.' If you don't get one of the first hundred thousand of 'THE YOUNG VISITERS' it will be your own fault; you have been warned."-Henry B. Sell in The Chicago News.

At All Booksellers

One Dollar

GEORGE H. DORAN COMPANY Publishers New York

A New Locke! FAR-AWAY

STORIES By WILLIAM J. LOCKE Author of "The Rough Road,"

"The Red Planet," etc. Cloth, $1.50 net. "A distinctly interesting volume." -New York Times.

"Like his novels, these tales are distinguished by gracious spirit. Mr. Locke's popularity is not due alone to his rare gift as a story teller. Without taking the pulpi he influences his renders to think more tenderly of their fellow-

John Lane Company

ENJOYMENT . FOR YOUR HOLIDAY

A "Dream-Come-True"

THE HIDDEN VALLEY

By MURIEL HINE Author of "The Best in Life," "Earth," etc. Cloth, $1.75 net.

"The best of Muriel Hine's novels that I have read, and it is none the less enjoyable because it contains no suggestions of the war."
-New York Herald. "A love story that has a singular appeal in this day of the gradual transformation of woman to meet new circumstances. Sure to prove interesting, especially to the fem-inine reader." -Philadelphia Press.

MISS FINGAL

The psychic novel that is causing so much comment. Already in its 5th printing

"Cae of the best novels of the last few years."-Wm. Lyon Phelps in the New York Times. "The most fascinating novel of the entire season."-Chicago News. "One of the distinctive novels of the day." -San Francisco Argenaut. "A notable book and extremely well written."—N. Y. Evening Post. "One of the few novels of the year that the lover of really worth-while fiction cannot afford to neglect."-Boston

By Mrs. W. K. Clifford, $1.50

THE MOON AND SIXPENCE

Do you wish to read a book that is different, that does not give you the feeling of having read it before, done in a different style? "The Moon and Sixpence," says Heywood Broun in the Tribune, New York, "goes up stream against the con-ventional current of Anglo-Saxon fiction. It is not only brilliantly written but seems to us a great book. At any rate, it is the most absorbing story we have read in a year. It is full of surprising turns and yet each is convincing just as soon as it happens." And in the Chicago News, under the head of "Conrad Equalled," J. V. A. Weaver writes, "The Moon and Sixpence is one of the finest pieces of romantic realism that I have ever seen—the resemblance to Conrad is unmistakable. There are places where Maugham seems to excel his model in the treatment of the women and in humor. which here is stinging and satirical. It is no fault that Maugham has followed Conrad; he has done a thundering good piece of work. Maugham is recognized as a realistic novelist of great skill."

By W. SOMERSET MAUGHAM Author of "OF HUMAN BONDAGE"

On sale at all bookshops at $1.50 net

Published by GEORGE H. DORAN COMPANY

"The Ivory Trail," by Ta'bot Mundy, is an entertaining and often thrilling adventure story, with plenty of incident, several admirably portrayed characters, and a number of extremely narrow but entirely plausible escapes from sudden and violent death, told

Every one who likes adventure and high courage and determination proved in the face of apparently insurmountable obstacles will do well to accompany the narrator along "The Ivory Trail."-N. Y. Times. Illustrated, Price $1.75 net.

time, however, the hedge comes to mean a shelter rather than a barrier, and the daughter sees that behind it many lovely things may grow into a woman's character that might be trampled down in a more exposed situation,-if the hedge can be made a thing of beauty, and the right man is within it, all a woman's world may be shut in by it without any sense of imprisonment. The book is beautifully done, with fine humor and courage. Illustrated, Price $1.50 net.

-THE BOBBS-MERRILL COMPANY, Publishers -

BEST NEW NOVELS John By Talbot Mundy Jrail

with spirit and skill.

to adjust itself, to grow and develop and meet the outside world in spite of the hedge that surrounds their home and has become a barrier between them and the world. In

By Juliet Wilbor Tompkins

The story unfolds the struggle of a family

CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS

GALSWORTHY'S "SAINT'S PROGRESS" One favorable criticism does not guarantee the worth of a book any more than one swallow makes a summer, but look! NEW YORK: "A great novel."-Don Marquis cures every kind of a grouch, including those of July 1st vintage, in his gay

PHILADELPHIA: "The most powerful arraignment of our present social life that has yet been written."-Ledger. WASHINGTON, D. C.: "Galsworthy's greatest achievement so far."-Star.

LOUISVILLE: "One of the most different things about a Galsworthy novel is the feminine character. Lelia is another instance of Galsworthy's almost eerie under-standing."—Courier-Journal. BALTIMORE: "One of the finest things Galsworthy has written. Probably the most important novel of the year."-News. CHICAGO: "Galsworthy is one of the great story-tellers, and 'Saint's Progress' is among his best."-PHILADELPHIA: "A great novel."

icle. NEW YORK: "A distinctive and distinguished offering. Mr. Galsworthy at his best."-World. -Plain Dealer.

-Evening Ledger. SAN FRANCISCO: "It would be almost impossible for Galsworthy to write a novel in which there was not a good story." - Chron-

CLEVELAND: "A strong story.