A'S INFIELD CHANGES LIKE OIL QUOTATIONS

Not One Guardian of Inner Defense Who Started 1919 Season in Mack Line-Up at This Time

TWO OF SEVEN REMAIN

By EDWIN J. POLLOCK

THEY say Connie Mack tore down his 1914 ball club. How about his 1919 ball club? A mere skeleton remains of the team that began the campaigning for the A's down in Washington on April 23.

The personnel of the daily Mack line-up changes like oil stock quotations.

The way Mack has traded during the last five years and the way ball players are being shuffled around from club to club at present is any one's fault to think it is a bad thing.

Annet Luteraus

IT IS a pleasing fact that in the season he surpasses the world's record for play in consecutive games, Fred Luteraus, a veteran of thirty-three summers, is hitting the ball at a speedier clip than he has in a stretch of four years.

Right now he is playing better than he has at any time since the Phils copped the flag in 1915.

In this prohibition days, Fred Luteraus is the guy making Milwaukee famous.

Herzog Clump Wanderer

BUCK HERZOG, who has just been traded to the Cubs for Pick and Mann, has wandered around the National League circuit in a variety of uniforms.

In 1905 when he was a collegian playing with the University of Maryland he was given a trial by the Phils.

Three years later he started his big league career with the Giants.

In 1910 he was traded to the Braves and the following season he was back with the Giants.

In 1914 he was sent to the Reds and the next year he became manager.

Nineteen sixteen saw him back with McGraw and during the last campaign he was with the Braves.

Now he's a Chicagoan.

Herzog is touched neither by time nor experience. He's been in the big leagues eleven years and got his A's.

If George Stallings could uncover a regular handed thrower, he'd have a working combination in Mann, Pick and Herzog. They should be able to dig up some victories.

National League clubs will find the Cubs getting when they try to Buck Herzog.

Pat Gets Outfielder

PAT MORAN has obtained an outfielder to plug up the hole in left field. Cuto, the Cuban, and a considerable amount of coin was turned over to Rochester for Charley See, who is leading the International League in hit-

TENDLER AND JACKSON BOTH AFTER LEONARD

Tonight's Opponents in Shibe Park Feature Bout Seek Title Match With Champion

TED LEWIS VS. LATSO

By JAMES S. CAROLAN

A BATTLE of regular 135 pounders will meet at Shibe Park this evening.

High-class 135-pound boys are very scarce these battling days, and in Ted Tandler and Willie Jackson we will see two lads capable of making the lightweight limit without effort.

Tandler is a small lightweight; in fact, he even offered to make 128 pounds ringside for Johnny Kibane. Willie Jackson also is ready to meet the game little Clevelander at 128 pounds.

It seems strange that these boys also want to take a smash at the rib-crashing, slow-punching Heavy Leonard.

Now comes forth another individual with title hopes. Willie Jackson made his debut a few days ago that he believed himself capable of making it interesting for Leonard.

Tandler is out to win by a decisive margin. He has fought 120 rounds in his career and has won 107 out of 120.

WILLIAMS MAY LOSE STAR

Ben Boynton Plans to Enter Georgia Tech or Rhode Island State, Report

Williamstown, Aug. 4.—Slight mixing is felt among Williams men because of rumors which have arisen to the effect that Ben Boynton, all-American quarterback of two years ago and captain of the Purple eleven this fall, might not return to college after all.

One story circulated states that Boynton may enter Georgia Tech.

Another rumor would have Boynton enter Rhode Island State, where he would join Fred Walker, who was coach of the Williams eleven of two years ago, on which Boynton made his football name.
