Three Out of Six From Sox What May Happen and Two Out of Three From Tigets, Is Macks' Trouble-Making Record PITCHING STAFF GOOD

By EDWIN J. POLLOCK

Some centuries ago a sooth-saying Cineinnati Sage broke out with the statement Chicago that it is the little things in life that Freeklyn count. Take, f' instance, that bit of Baston Philadelphia hay that ruined the camel's back. Also St. Louis. take f' instance our A's.

The A's aren't exactly ruining any body, but for such down-and-outers. such mites in the world of big baseball. they're causing a heap of trouble. The Mackless Mackmen reached up from the depths and slapped Kid Gleason on both cheeks of his pennant-bright face. Are they going to turn Daniel and tame the lion that faces them in Tiger skin today?

If Mr. C. Mack and his little Macklets were to battle the White Sox and the Bengals on their own soil throughout the entire flag season they would be standing somewhat higher than the position which now graces or disgraces them.

The A's have come to blows with the Sox six times this season at Shibe Park and have won half the number of games. They have exchanged scratches on three occasions with the Tigers on the home lot and have scored two decisions. - This gives them an average of .555 against the two leading clubs of the American Not so bad for tailenders! What?

Soft and slow music is in order when the record of the Macks in the homes of the Comiskey and Navin clubs is Cravath Determined to Stop mentioned. The A's have dropped six out of seven in Detroit this year and the same number in Chicago.
